Rabbi's New Year's Greetings

The advent of the New Year brings in its wake an acute awareness of the passage of time which is marked by an inventory of past deeds and events, joys and sorrows, successes and setbacks. Upon evaluating this past year, we of the Lincoln Square Synagogue have a great deal to be proud of and thankful for. We have witnessed the inspiring development of a nebulous, three-day-a-year hotel service into a vital Community Synagogue, rooted in the truths of Jewish tradition and dedicated to the ideal of reaching out in love to those of our people who are searching for a meaningful and relevant religious experience compatible with twentieth-century life.

As your rabbi, I am filled with gratitude to the Almighty for what has been a most rewarding and stimulating beginning. I pray that during this coming year we may continue to strive towards the creation of a dynamic spiritual oasis in the midst of the cultural center of America. May you and your loved ones be inscribed in the Book of Life, and in the months to come may you join with me in the noble adventure of the rediscovery of ourselves and our God.

President's Message

During the past few weeks your officers and active workers of the Synagogue have been very busy not only with preparations for the High Holiday services, but also with the organization of our building campaign.

A call to all Jewish families in the neighborhood is going out urging them to join our committee and lend us their time and talent.

I am looking forward to your continued support and assure you that the leadership of our Synagogue is as enthusiastic as ever in leading our organization on a steady and upward course. With the help of G-d we shall succeed.

My personal good wishes and hope for a Peaceful and Happy Year to you, your dear ones and the peoples all over the world.

HIGH HOLIDAY LAW AND LORE

1. Elul — the month preceding Rosh Hashona (beginning of the year), the Shofar is blown each morning and everyone must prepare himself for the Days of Awe (Yamim Noraim). Our Sages tell us: "The thirty days of Elul to what are they compared? To the thirty days of grace which a court grants a debtor in which to pay his debts and be freed of his creditors."
2. Kever Avot — the graves of the ancestors. It is customary during this period of sobriety to visit the cemetery and strengthen one's ties with the ideals of the faith of our fathers.
3. Tsedaka — it is also the custom to liberally distribute charity to the poor. Compassion for one's fellow man is the prerequisite for any communication with God.
4. Hadlakot HaNerot — the woman of the house lights candles in honor of the New Year so that warmth and love may permeate the home. Just before the nightfall which ushers in each evening of Rosh Hashona and Yom Kippur (Day of Forgiveness), the following two blessings are recited upon the lights:

"Blessed art Thou, Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, who has sanctified us with His Commandments and has commanded us to kindle the Festival lights (on Yom Kippur substitute: "the lights of the Day of Forgiveness)."

"Blessed art Thou, Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, Who has kept us in life, preserved us and enabled us to reach this season."

High Holiday Law and Lore (Cont'd)

5. Aseret Yemai Teshuva — The Ten Days of Penitence or Return. These are the days between and including Rosh Hashona and Yom Kippur. It is customary to greet one another during this period with the blessing: May you be inscribed and sealed for a good year (Ketiva Vechatima Tova). It is important to note that one can only be Divinely forgiven for those transgressions committed against God. It is therefore incumbent upon every individual to seek forgiveness of his fellow man during these days for any wrongdoing he may have committed against him in the past year. The people of Israel must stand before God with hearts purified by love of man.
6. Upon returning from the Synagogue on the evenings of Rosh Hashona there is a beautiful custom to first dip chalah and then a slice of apple into some honey. This special hors d'oeuvre is eaten with the prayer: "May it be Thy will to renew unto us a good and sweet year."
7. All the sacred vestments in the Synagogue — as well as the robe (or Kittel) worn by the Rabbi and Cantors — are white during these ten days. The Talmud presents the following reason:

"When men are summoned before an earthly ruler to defend themselves against some charge, they appear downcast and are often garbed in the black robes of mourners. Israel, however, appears before God on the Days of Judgment in the white garb of a feast in the confidence that as soon as one returns to God in repentance there will be immediate forgiveness."

White is likewise a symbol of purity, and evokes the prophetic verse: "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall become as white as snow."
8. Tashlich — literally, to cast away (ones transgressions). The first afternoon of Rosh Hashona usually marks the fascinating Tashlich ceremony, which takes place on the bank of a river or near some body of fresh water. Appropriate prayers are recited and then it is customary for each person to shake the corner of his garment. This is to indicate that it is in man's power to shake himself free of sin and to mend his ways. In the presence of an ever-flowing stream one is immediately moved to think of the infinitude of God and in contrast the finitude of man.

9. Shofar or ram's horn. It is the highlight of the Rosh Hashona morning services and signals the conclusion of the Yom Kippur fast. Among the many reasons for the blowing of the Shofar are:
 - (a) To proclaim the sovereignty of God on the anniversary of the creation of the world (The Kings of Israel were coronated amidst the sounding of the ram's horn).
 - (b) To rouse the slumbering individual from his sleep of complacency and to stir him to repentance.
 - (c) To remind God (as well as ourselves) of Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac, his only son. The Bible relates that a ram was substituted for the beloved Isaac. In such a manner do we hope to be saved from impending death.

10. Shabbat Shuva — The Sabbath of Return, which is the designation for the Sabbath between Rosh Hashona and Yom Kippur. Its name is taken from the haftarah (portion from the Prophets) chanted on that Sabbath, which begins: "Shuva Yisroel, Return O Israel unto the Lord Thy God" (Hosea 14:2ff).
11. Yom Kippur Fast — In ordaining Yom Kippur, the Bible states: "You shall afflict your souls." This is the basis of fasting, the abstinence from food and drink on the Day of Forgiveness. The purpose of the fast is to emphasize the spiritual nature of man and demonstrate the Godlike quality in each of us. Children usually begin to fast at the age of thirteen.
12. Kol Nidre — "All the vows," the beginning of the dramatic prayer which inaugurates Yom Kippur. The haunting and inspiring melody speaks of God's absolution of religious vows. It is conjectured that the music was composed during the Spanish Inquisition (1492), when many Jews were forced to publicly vow their allegiance to Christianity.
13. Non-Leather Shoes — It is customary to wear non-leather shoes during the entire Yom Kippur period. This is because:
 - (a) leather is a sign of luxury
 - (b) the death of an animal is necessary in the production of leather shoes. On Yom Kippur we must be made aware of the dependence upon a Higher Source which unites all of God's creatures.

ADULT EDUCATION: HIGH HOLIDAY INSTITUTE

Every experience, and especially a religious experience, requires a certain amount of preparation if it is to be at all meaningful. 12:00 Midnight — Selichot Service: an hour of hymns and psalms asking for God's clemency as we seek forgiveness. Among the prayers are some of the most exalted of Hebrew poems, composed with the tears and dreams of suffering, searching and dedicated souls.

II — Wednesday Eve., September 22

9:00 P.M. — God: King, Father and Lawgiver of Israel — An analysis of the Amidah (standing, silent prayer repeated by Cantor) of Rosh Hashona

(LSS) NOTES

This column wishes all A Happy New Year . . . We hope you had an enjoyable summer . . . Our best wishes to PHYLLIS and STANLEY GETZLER, in their new home — will they love us at Central Park West, as they did at 303 — of course they will . . . Glad to hear that FRANCES TROMPETER, is feeling better . . . FANNIE COHEN, after a long s-t-r-e-t-c-h, wishes to thank all of her friends at LINCOLN SQUARE SYNAGOGUE, for their kind visits, telephone calls, and cards of well wishes . . . Our efficient Financial Secretary, ESTELLE MARGETT, back from a trip to the Orient, is now figuring all LSS income in Japanese money (sens and yens) — we have sent our fine member MORRIS TIEFENBRUNN to Japan to find out what her figures mean in dollars . . . STANLEY GETZLER, our Corresponding Secretary was overwhelmed with mailing letters, notices, relating to the High Holidays — the only way he could cope with this work was putting his father MAX, to work — in addition he had all his mechanics, and two friendly Traffic Officers (don't tell the Commissioner) stuffing envelopes — thanks to all of them . . . A suggestion — this New Year, lets all pool our prayers and wishes, so each of us individually, will share in all the good things, that will be asked for . . . Happy Davening.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN HEBREW WITHOUT TALKING

BATYA RISKIN, daughter of our Rabbi is only a few months old. It has been observed that when the Rabbi and her mother hold her, in their arms, they only talk to her in Hebrew. Though she cannot answer them, as she does not talk as yet, there must be something they are doing right or evidently she is very bright, because when she gets hungry and wants some food, she crys in Hebrew.

DECORUM???

Many grown-ups can emulate BATYA RISKIN, our youngest worshipper. On a number of Saturday mornings her mother brings her into the Synagogue, to attend services. It has been observed that she is very attentive to the prayers and chanting. When the Rabbi starts his sermon, she is very quiet. BATYA, turns to one side, and goes to sleep.

BROTHERHOOD OF MEN

BOB DONOHUE and HARRY SAGER, two of Alcoa's fine mechanics, have graciously donated their time, after working hours, to our synagogue. If you wish to contact them for any private work, in your home, call the synagogue.

What About Tomorrow?

On the Day of Atonement in a city of eastern Europe the synagogue was crowded with worshippers. Deeply moved by the inspiring services conducted by the Rabbi and the Cantor, everyone was imbued with lofty sentiments of contrition and forgiveness. Just before the Shofar was to be sounded to mark the conclusion of the Ne'ilah service, the Rabbi fainted! When he was revived, he was asked what had happened. The Rabbi said: "I heard a voice calling out, 'How nice! how good! how lovely!' Doubtless it was Satan uttering these words."

"Satan!" the people exclaimed. "Surely Satan wouldn't praise our High Holy Day devotions so extravagantly."

But the Rabbi explained that Satan had uttered these words not flatteringly but sarcastically. Our sages tell us that Satan is busy every day except on the Day of Atonement. The numerical value of the Hebrew letters Heh, Sin, Tes and Nun in the word Ha-Satan is 364, signifying that Satan is busy every day of the year except one. "On the Day of Atonement," continued the Rabbi, "Satan does not tempt us Jews, nor does he make false accusations against us. Instead, he takes it easy. He laughs at us mockingly and says: 'How nice! how good! how lovely these Jews are today. They remain in the synagogue all day fasting and praying. Yesterday before Kol Nidrei they greeted each other warmly and asked pardon of all whom they had wronged. All day today they have repented of their misdeeds and asked G-d to forgive them. Their hearts overflow with contrition, peace and love. They strive for holiness; and to a certain extent they actually approach it. How good and how lovely they are today. But what about tomorrow? Tomorrow will they stay on the lofty spiritual heights that they reached today?" When I heard Satan mocking us thus, I was so disturbed that I fainted."

Turning to the congregation, the Rabbi asked: "What will happen tomorrow? Unless we retain the High Holy Day spirit throughout the coming year, our prayers will have been in vain. The inspiration of this sacred season must be an incentive to greater devotion to Torah and Synagogue, our people and Zion. Then shall we remain all the days of the year on the lofty heights we have reached this day. And if Satan tries to entice us on any of his 364 busy days, we shall certainly have the will power to overcome temptation."

Surely there is no need for me to add anything to these comments of the Rabbi. I merely invite you to make full use of the Lincoln Square Synagogue today and tomorrow and throughout the coming year.
