FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

The High Holy Day Period, commencing with the solemn Rosh Hashanah and culminating in the joyous Simchat Torah, serves to reintroduce countless Jews to the world of the Synagogue. This is the season when the Jew realizes that he was not born in a vacuum, but that he is an historic entity representing a link in the glorious chain of Tradition which stretches back to Sinai and reaches forward to the Messianic Age. Never does the Biblical phrase assume greater significance: "Remember the days of yore and understand the years of many generations; ask thy father, and he will declare unto thee, Thine elders and they will tell thee."

The bedrock of the Jewish historical experience has always been Jewish law. In every age the faithful minority would rather give up their lives than compromise any detail of the law. Our forefathers understood that the finest expression of Judaism was to be found in the 'thou shalt' and the 'thou shalt not,' in the kiddush and the havdalah, in the morning service and the evening service. The objective nature of the law provided their lives with absolute guidance and direction, and served to remind them that they were dedicating themselves to an ideal which transcended the petty concerns and fashions of the hour. Even more important, the eternal character of the law linked the individual to past and future generations and mirrored the Eternal One who is its Author and Inspiration. How comforting and ennobling it is — especially in an era of situation ethics and relative morality — to subscribe to a way of life which has survived countless civilizations and cultures and still serve as a guidepost of morality and enlightenment for the twentieth century.

From The Rabbi (Cont'd)

Please resolve to give careful thought to this Tradition during the coming year. Approach it with reverence, for it was initiated by God and is responsible for your Jewish identity. Learn it with love, for your own grandparents helped form and perpetuate it. Study it with humility, for countless Jews have committed their lives to insure its propagation. Fulfill its precepts with joy, for it will bring you close to God and to man.

President's Message

We have now concluded our fourth High Holy Day Services and attendance has broken all previous records. Under the able Chairmanship, of our Vice-President, Bernie Skolnick, and a big assist from his Committee, we surpassed even our highest estimates.

In spite of the fantastic response to our activities, the Building Fund Campaign is still slowly plodding along in desperate need of keeping pace with our growth. Our present facilities are obviously too small and our present financial status does not permit us to proceed with the construction of the Synagogue. Shortly you will receive a notice to attend a meeting where the campaign will be discussed and plans will be mapped out for the manner in which we will raise the necessary funds. I hope you will attend this meeting and lend your time and talent to the cause.

We recently had an election of officers for the Men's Club and Mr. Morton Langer was elected President. I wish him luck in his new position and promise him my whole-hearted support. I hope you will do likewise.

One of the most rewarding parts of this year has been the rate of religious growth of our members, myself included. May it be God's will that L.S.S. members continue to grow in numbers as well as in stature before the eyes of Him who sees and knows all.

Daniel Mars, President

Sukkot Law and Lore

1. Chag Ha Asif —

The feast of Ingathering, which is another name for the Festival of Sukkoth. Due to this agricultural significance of the holiday, the Synagogue becomes permeated with the colors and fragrance of four species representative of the glories of nature.

2. Ethrog —

The Bible commands us to take the "Fruit of a goodly tree, branches of palm trees, boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook, and you shall rejoice before the Lord your G-d seven days." By "fruit of a goodly tree" was meant the Ethrog, a citrus fruit which has many similarities to a lemon but is of a different species.

Usually an Ethrog is imported from Palestine for the Sukkoth celebration, thus recalling to us the beautiful land of our fathers where the Chag Ha-asif was originally celebrated. It is permissible to use an Ethrog from any other part of the world, provided it meets the religious requirements. Now that we rejoice in the rebirth of the Jewish State, one should of course seek to unite himself visibly with Israel by having an Ethrog which comes from our Holy Land.

There are a host of rules about the shape and appearance which an Ethrog should have. It is usually more expensive to buy than any other fruit simply because it requires supervision and care.

One of the important parts of an Ethrog is the Pitom, the blossom at the top of the fruit. If the Pitom has been removed, the Ethrog is no longer fit for ritual use. However, if the fruit grew originally without such a blossom it is permissible to use it for Sukkoth.

3. The Lulov —

By "branches of palm trees" the Torah meant a Lulov, which is a branch of the palm tree. We use American-grown Lulovim, because if they were imported they would no longer retain their freshness.

4. Hadasim —

Leaves of myrtle are used in accordance with the statement, boughs of thick trees. Three of them are used, and they are tied to the Lulov by palm trees.

5. Arovoth —

Two willow twigs are tied with the Lulav to complete the injunction about four species on Sukkoth.

A blessing is recited over the "four species" during each of the seven days of the Festival. In colorful pageantry the worshippers march around the Synagogue holding aloft their symbols of Divine Bounty during the holiday services.

6. Our Species —

Tell us that of the Four Species, the Ethrog is fragrant as well as tasty, the Myrtle leaves are fragrant, the willow is tasty and the lulav has neither fragrance nor taste. The four are held together, reminiscent of the various types of Jews who comprise the people of Israel. Even those of our people who have "neither taste nor fragrance" must be included and encouraged.

7. Intermediate Days —

The third, fourth, fifth, sixth, and the seventh days of Sukkoth are called Chol Ha-Moed, which might be translated as semi-holidays. The rules about forbidden kinds of labor on a holiday are greatly relaxed on these intermediate days. The prayers of these days have a dual character. The regular week-day prayers are recited, with the addition of Yaaleh V'Yovoh ("May there rise and come before Thee . . .") in the Eighteen Benedictions. In addition, Hallel is recited every morning, and the Musaf as well.

8. Hoshanah Rabbah —

The last of the Intermediate Days has a special character. It is called Hoshanah Rabbah ("The Great Hoshanah"). The morning service became invested with a solemn character similar to the Day of Atonement and many of the prayers sound like an echo of the Great White Fast. According to tradition, the final seal of the decree for the New Year (G'mar Chasimah Tovah) is proclaimed in heaven on this day. Another opportunity for repentance is granted at this time.

9. Shemini Atzeret —

The eighth and ninth days are full Holy Days, with the same restrictions as the first two days of the Festival. The eighth day is called Shemini Atzeret. The translation of this phrase is "the eighth day, a day of solemn assembly." The word Atzeret also suggests the thought of delay—to delay, as it were, the closing on the holiday season by celebrating an additional day before closing this month of holidays.

10. Simchat Torah —

The final days of the holiday is the most joyous of all. Simchat Torah means "The Festival of the Rejoicing of the Torah." It is the occasion for the expression of the joy which is the characteristic of every Jew who appreciates that he is one of a people to whom study and the practice of the Torah has been entrusted. "We are a people principally in the possession of the Torah," was the statement of Saadya Gaon, the great philosopher of the early Middle Ages. Similarly Rabbenu Gershom, "the Light of the Exile," writing about the year 1000, said "The only possession left to Israel is the Torah. Even though we fall short in our observance of the precepts of the Torah, whether from negligence or indifference, our glory as Jews is that we are the People of the Book, that is, the people of the Torah."

11. Hakafoth —

The evening service is distinguished by two unique ceremonies. At the close of the evening prayer of Maariv, the Ark is opened, and all the scrolls of the Torah are taken out. Various individuals are called to the pulpit to carry the scrolls, and then a procession is formed, which winds its way all around the synagogue. It is led by the cantor singing special hymns. Old and young mix freely in the synagogue on this evening, and each puts forth his hand to touch the scrolls and then kiss it, while wishing the bearer every good thing in the year that has begun. Seven times does the procession march around the synagogue. Each time other people are honored with the privilege of carrying the scrolls. After each such procession there are songs, and even dances. This circling of the synagogue is called Hakofoth.

This year our little Synagogue gave forth a second offspring for the Holy Days. Our Services conducted at the Synagogue and the Esplanade Hotel, saw a third service at the Park Royal Hotel. This third service proved to be an immense success with everyone enjoying the services and new surroundings. Needless to say, for the second year our two regular services were sold out.

The problems of organization were greatly reduced by the hard working Ticket Committee Co-Chairman Miss Maria Rubini, Miss Estelle Margett and Mr. Barry Weinstein.

I would also like to acknowledge and express my thanks to the following people for their assistance in preparing ticket mailings and manning ticket locations. Again thank you all.

NEWS AND NOTES

Many thanks to Cantors Silver and Aisenstadt, as well as to Messrs. Feld, Tiefenbrunn and Wach for assisting so ably with their beautiful voices. Can you imagine so many Cantors and all members in the same Congregation. We'll have to institute a Cantorial Placement Bureau when our new Synagogue is opened . . .

A vote of appreciation to Messrs. Bergman, Klein, Landau and Rachlis for not acting as Cantors as well as for acting as Ritual Directors at our various services. Rumor has it that Sam Rachlis is a C.I.T. (Cantor-in-Training) . . . In true L.S.S. tradition, it rained buckets during the Holiday Season. The Rabbi claims it is Waters of Purification . . . The Rebbitzin, Chazenta and Mrs. Bergman are each opening special Sabbath and Holiday Catering Services. Which one will have the Franchise in the new Synagogue?

Stan Getzler just finished knocking down some walls in his new apartment when he erected a few in our magnificent SUKKAH. Our President and Vice-President are builders in a literal as well as a figurative sense . . .

At this solemn season of the year, when our thoughts turn in poignant love to our dear ones who are no longer with us on earth, it is comforting to know that we have perpetuated their memory by inscribing their names on the Memorial Plaque of our Congregation. This service insures that our dear departed will be recalled in loving tribute at Yahrzeit and all Yiskor commemorations.

YOUR APPLICATION WILL RECEIVE OUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION.
