From The Rabbi's Desk . . .

The generation gap and the alienation of our youth are the major words of alarm sounded in Synagogues and Jewish organizations throughout the country. The dissatisfaction of the younger generation with the establishment takes the form of student riots in the various universities, hippie communes and yippie demonstrations, pot parties and flower love-ins which cause the Jewish parent, rabbi and leader to alternately despair and defy.

As a member of this younger generation (after all, I have not yet reached the critical age of 30) and a teacher of college students, I would like to raise my voice in strong defense of our youth and their search. The college student is justifiably disappointed in the Great American Society, with its crass materialism and computer dehumanization. He is shocked at the disregard for human lives evidenced in Viet Nam and Biafra, in our collective apathy in the light of individual suffering and racial strife.

The extremist elements choose to either force the establishment to change its course of action (SDS and Yippie demonstrations) or opt out of society as they know it (through pot, acid, LSD and/or through the formation of smaller communities rejecting societal norms in terms of dress and cleanliness but basing their relationship on "love").

The overwhelming majority of our young people, however, are choosing neither of these extreme alternatives as their life pattern. They are searching for a more meaningful approach to living,

Chanukah Law and Lore

1. Chanukah means Rededication, for it was on the twenty-fifth of Kislev that the Jews rededicated their Temple which had been defiled by the Greek-Syrians. After a miraculous battle against overwhelming odds which incited by devastating anti-Jewish decrees, the Maccabees led the Jews to a victorious rekindling of the Menorah in the Holy Temple.
2. The Kindling of the Menorah. In thanksgiving and commemoration, we kindle one candle on the first night of Chanukah (Sunday Evening, Dec. 15) and add a candle each night until we have eight lit candles on the last night of the holiday (Sunday Evening, Dec. 22). The candles are placed in the Menorah from right to left and are kindled from left to right. The count does not include the shamash, the candle which lights the others.
3. It is preferable to place the Menorah on the window-sill in order to "publicize the miracle." One should endeavor to kindle the Chanukah lights at the time of the coming out of the stars, but many still kindle them as long as there are people walking in the street or awake in the household. On Friday evening, however, one must kindle the Chanukah lights before the Sabbath candles, and should use candles which are large enough to burn for thirty minutes after the coming out of the stars.
4. Before Kindling the Chanukah Candles, the following blessings are recited:
Baruch Ata Ado-nay, Elo-henu Melech Ha Olam, Asher Kidshanu Bemitzvotav Vetsivanu Lehadlik Ner Shel Chanukah.
Baruch Ata Ado-nay, Elo-heynu Melech Ha Olam, She-asa Nissim La Avotenu Ba Yamim Ha-hem Ba Zman Ha Zeh.
 Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has sanctified us with Thy commandments and has commanded us to Kindle the Chanukah Lights. Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has performed miracles for our fathers in those days at this time.
 On the first night only we recite:
Baruch Ata Ado-nay, Elo-henu Melech Ha Olam, She hechiyanu Ve kimanu Ve higianu La Zman Ha Zeh.
 Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has enabled us to live and reach this time of celebration.
5. Latkes. There is an interesting legend that Judith killed a Greek general after putting him to sleep with the aid of warm milk and latkes. Enjoy the latkes, but don't overeat!
6. Dreidel. The proverbial top goes round and round, and so does the destiny of the Jewish people. Children and adults alike have all spun the dreidel to the words: Nes Gadol Haya Sham, a great Miracle happened there. This game inaugurated the acceptance of light gambling only on Chanukah.

President's Message

On several previous occasions this column has been used to spotlight one or more of our most ardent members. This month we turn with pride and gratitude to JULIUS KAHN.

He is a Law School Graduate of New York University '27, and has a Doctorate in Law. He lives at 180 West End Avenue with his devoted wife Maria. In addition to his work at L.S.S. he is a Trustee of Syracuse University, Honorary Counsel of the Australian-New Zealand Society, one of the founders of Crown Heights Yeshiva etc. etc. He is actively engaged in the practice of law with offices at 36 West 44th Street. He has lectured in Universities and is considered an expert in condemnation practices and procedures although he does not specialize in this area.

During the last three years he has tirelessly served us in many capacities. However, he is best known as the Chairman of the Legal Committee. In this capacity he has given much of his "professional" time without charge, thereby saving the Synagogue many thousands of dollars in legal fees.

He served as our attorney in the purchase of our land, negotiated with the Architects, the Caterers, the Building Contractors, and who would ever forget the incredible task of obtaining the "Easement"?

"Julius" has been and continues to be an indispensable right arm to your President who can think of no honor great enough to be bestowed upon him.

We wish long life to "Julius," so that he will be able to serve the Almighty and the Jewish Community with the same youthful enthusiasm and inexhaustible energy he has demonstrated in the past.

From the Rabbi's Desk (Cont'd)

for a weltanschauung which will teach man to communicate with his brother, which will structure man and society towards creative productivity and which will restore man's faith in human dignity and value.

It is mainly to this group that Judaism must address itself. These youngsters will hardly be impressed with a Judaism observed with the edifice complex and dedicated to Bingo games and chopped-livered Bar Mitzvahs. They will not abide a Yizkor-Yom Kippur faith or a stuffy preacher who piously intones benedictions and robes himself in the garb of the cleric. They will respond to the genuineness of a total faith commitment, to the peace which descends on a traditional Sabbath table of kiddush and zemiroth, to a halachic structure which provides an oasis of ultimate meaning in our desert of inhumanity, to a philosophy of sex and marriage based on the concept of kidushin (sanctification), to a Torah which speaks in terms of loving the stranger and anxiously awaits universal redemption. In order to attract our youth we need not have all the answers. We must ask the right questions, however, and study our sources without sham and pretense.

The younger generation will certainly respond to the Jewish message. LINCOLN SQUARE SYNAGOGUE proves that every Wednesday evening at our Adult Education Classes, and every Sabbath morning at our regular Services.

When the American Jewish establishment begins to concern itself with the real issues of Jewish learning and practice, it will discover that this is what our youth has been waiting for all the time. I pray that we do not wake up too late.

ANNUAL DINNER

IN HONOR OF

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH L. GREENBERG
WALDORF ASTORIA HOTEL

The following article appeared in PANIM-EL-PANIM, Israel's popular newsmagazine weekly, which is read avidly by Jews in Israel and throughout the world:

"A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE YOUNG CANTORIAL GENERATION IN AMERICA"
"WARM PRAYER WITH TRADITIONAL MUSIC"

Before us is a young, second-generation American Cantor, who is a native of New Haven, Conn. This is CANTOR SHERWOOD (SHIMON) GOFFIN's fourth year as Cantor of the esteemed LINCOLN SQUARE SYNAGOGUE in New York City, near the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, the Metropolitan Opera and the Philharmonic Hall. This New York synagogue is one of the most interesting occurrences in the entire area of the "West Side," which is being built anew. Synagogues that belonged in the past to the Conservative and even Reform movements, are waning. Many of their congregants are becoming associated with this Orthodox synagogue, under the direction of one of the youngest and most important Rabbis in America, Rabbi Shlomo Riskin.

Through his knowledge of the taste of the masses that come to the synagogue, Cantor Goffin finds ways of bringing them close through his prayers. His aim is especially to the hearts of the younger generation, who are a goodly percentage of the synagogue. In numerous concerts, he sings Hebrew and English folk-songs with the help of a guitar. This familiarity with the interests of American audiences serves well, so that when a young person comes to the Synagogue, he hears tunes that he recognizes, and joins into the songs and prayer with zeal.

Cantor Goffin graduated from the College and the Cantorial Institute of Yeshiva University, and is the Secretary of the Cantorial Council of America. He studied privately with the renowned cantorial coach, Cantor Noah Schall of Brooklyn, and also with Cantor Macy Nulman of Y.U. His Nusach of the High Holidays was inspired by the great "Baal t'filo" A. Y. Karniol, and also by the years he spent, like a son, at the home of the Chassidic rabbi, the Bostoner Rebbe.

Cantor Goffin is also a graduate of the Mesivta Torah Vodaath in Brooklyn, and is presently the Principal of his synagogue's Hebrew School. According to him, this is a good way to relate to the parents and their children, in order to bring them closer to the Synagogue.

Cantor Goffin says that it is up to the Cantor to seek a closeness with his congregation, and this tie is enhanced through "warm prayer" that stems from the "traditional music modes." Many professional cantors may have intricate coloratura, but he sees himself as a "Baal t'filo" (man of prayer), first.

Finally, he has also made some records that have been successful. Among them are one with the Mark 3 Orchestra, a record on behalf of Soviet Jewry, and "The Songs of the Bostoner Rebbe".

L.S.S. News and Notes

The unsung heroes of every Service are the Gabbaim, the Synagogue representatives who distribute the various aliyot and honors. This task requires the patience of Job and the wisdom of Solomon. Kudos to SAM FELD (who even gave a Shemini Atzeret Party to insure his unanimous re-election), and to ELMER KLEIN and ARON LANDAU who took over during the High Holidays in the regular Synagogue. (Let there be no misunderstanding: ELMER is not Assistant Gabbai. In SAM FELD's absence, he is complete Gabbai) . . . Congregational Thanks to SAM RACHLIS, who has served as Esplanade and Riverside Plaza Gabbai for the High Holiday Services since the inception of L.S.S. Sam helped tirelessly in setting up the Hotel for Services, and also helped out the Chazzan between his distribution of aliyot and other honors . . . The Rabbi was invited to be the Guest Speaker at the Hillel Academy Dinner in Denver, Colorado. You can imagine his surprise and elation to see Treasurer ARTHUR and HILDA MORGENSTERN in the audience. Both our Rabbi and Treasurer manage to get around . . . The Synagogue was once again transferred into a Shopping Center due to the magic energies of CELE and HENRIETTA EDELMAN and our Sisterhood. Does everyone realize that the best bargains are to be had during our regular Services and Classes throughout the year — and at remarkably low cost? . . . Late Friday night's Oneg Shabbat sang and swayed to the songs and stories of SHLOMO CARLEBACH. The Chasidic folk-singer has brought Shabbos to hundreds of would-be hippies in his House of Love and Prayer in San Francisco. Quotable Quotes from Shlomo: "Definition of House of God: A place where they love you when you come in and miss you when you're away . . . Most people rest one day a week to gather strength to work the other six. Religious Jews work six days a week in order to better appreciate Shabbos." Following the Oneg Shabbat about 35 young people sang and spoke with Shlomo in Rabbi Riskin's apartment until 2:00 A.M. Are the Rabbi and Shlomo really soul-brothers? . . . CHARLES and BLANCHE BLUMENFELD gave a beautiful Kiddush in honor of SOPHIE and FRANK TAKS' trip to Israel. SOPHIE, together with BEA WALD, is doing a tireless job in leading the Sisterhood. The ubiquitous FRANK is always helping and organizing, from the High Holiday seat sales, to forming an efficient ushering system, to arranging the Bazaar. May God grant them both many years of healthy activity and regular Sabbath worship at L.S.S. The Lincoln Zionist District #5 with SIDNEY TROMPETER as President was one of the hosts at a Melava Malka, arranged under the auspices of the Manhattan Region at the Herzl Institute. RABBI RISKIN with his talk on "The Sabbath and the Dignity of Men" and CANTOR GOFFIN with some "Songs of the Jewish Soul" and leading in community-singing added immensely to the atmosphere of a prolonged Shabbat. The effervescent and miraculous Martha Cohn arranged and chaired the evening — in excellent Hebrew. May God continue to give her the strength to continue her varied activities . . . The real test of Kaddish is at the conclusion of the mourning period. How gratifying it is to see BEN FRUHLINGER and MORRIS WEINER still attending minyan twice daily. Would that more of our congregants follow their dedicated example.

GRATEFUL THANKS

Without the help of the women and men who gave so unselfishly of themselves and of their time during the days of the Bazaar, the Bazaar could not have been possible . . . and for this we wish to extend our sincerest thanks and appreciation for their efforts and dedication.

To those who donated or were responsible for obtaining merchandise to make the Bazaar the success it was — our gratitude.

We are also grateful to those that contributed in many other ways.

Cele and Henrietta Edelman

INTRODUCTION TO MRS. SILVERMAN'S LETTER:

The last column "FROM THE RABBI'S DESK" evoked much comment. All of the communications were in hearty endorsement with the exception of the following letter:

Dear Rabbi:

As always, I have read your message in the bulletin with great interest. I hesitantly offer my responses as one who stands outside the Synagogue, but not beyond it.

It is true our city has inadequately protected its Jewish shopkeepers, but how well has it protected its others? It is true many Jews have been in the forefront of the Civil Rights and Anti-Poverty struggles, but how many in our congregation? Should not our communal, congregational and Jewish outcry be for all who suffer in war-torn Brooklyn? The Anti-Semitism which stemmed from that section, occurred in part, from the city's neglect of all its citizens there; not just the Jews.

There is a Black community less than 4 blocks from our Synagogue walls, but how many in our congregation have ever crossed the barrier of 66th Street, that great divide. Moreover, how many of "our own" have not sought even greater distance, via private schooling for example, from those who live beside, and yet beyond us.

How many of us have personally, or how have we as congregation, extended ourselves to any of our Black neighbors? And if so, how many have done this not out of pity, charity or obligation as you cite, but out of simple, human sympathy, compassion and respect?

I do not ask you to quote Jewish "ideals", because "Black ideals" or "Christian ideals" or "Union ideals" also embrace brotherhood and reject intimidation, terrorism and violence. No groups "ideals" motivate such behavior.

Neither do I ask you for your personal accounting, because mine surely is not without blemish. However, if you accuse the City government or Brooklyn groups of Anti-Semitism, may I suggest that you have overlooked the covert transgression of this congregation and focused on the overt ones of others, which admittedly have not only been obvious, but extreme. May I also ask if you have not reinforced smugness, and a defensive righteousness by using the quick and easy and appealing words on denunciation; words by the way which do not recall the probing, searching and rehabilitative thoughts I have "heard" from you before.

Yes! My primary concern is me, mine and my own. Yes! I am frightened by the dangerous, infectious pus that seeps from Brownsville's wounds, but No! I do not believe that accusations such as yours heal that wound, and thereby draw that pus, nor do I believe that attacking many symptoms cures an ailment, nor that it can lead to recovery.

Most respectfully,
Bernice Silverman

The Rabbi responds:

Dear Mrs. Silverman:

Undoubtedly, Jewish tradition teaches concern for all underprivileged, and counsels us to attempt to reverse the causes of strife whenever possible. However, no feeling of frustration can be allowed to justify overt anti-Semitic statements and actions. The Jewish minority in America is not responsible for the injustice perpetrated against the Blacks. Indeed, we have always been in the forefront of liberal movements, advocating universal civil rights. Nor are we empowered — as a group or as a congregation — to appreciably better the racial situation, one which requires primary government concern and expenditure. But when Synagogues are burned and hate literature is disseminated, we must condemn whoever is responsible and let the authorities know that we dare not remain silent. Yes, "If I am only for myself, what am I?" But "If I am not for myself, who will be for me?" Hitler has proven to us that in the final analysis, the Jew stands alone. Our lay and rabbinic leadership must unite to provide the kind of protection that the situation at hand warrants.

The Rabbi Responds (Cont'd)

In terms of practical accomplishment, at least bulletins like ours and the unequivocal response of the Jewish people of New York have caused the anti-Semitic incidents to be publicized and openly condemned by the Mayor of the City of New York. Extra protection has been provided for Synagogues and Yeshivot. For a time, a conspiracy of silence had been cast over such outbreaks. We could not allow such a situation to continue.

Believe me, the reaction of the intelligent Jewish community is not due to smugness or self-righteousness. We understand the evils of persecution and see the complexity of the present situation. But we are after all the survivors of the Six Million. Jewish history teaches in blood-soaked letters:

"If I am not for myself, who will be for me?"

In our legitimate concern for world, let us not forget our primary concern for self.

YOUNG COUPLES BOOK OF THE MONTH

A most intellectually stimulating meeting was held Sunday evening, December 8, at the home of Rabbi and Mrs. RISKIN, during which time Summerhill by A. S. Neill was discussed and debated. The book deals with a boarding school in England based on complete freedom of choice for the individual student as long as he doesn't interfere with the rights of others. Neill's assumptions of Freudian psychology and his theory of the innate goodness of every human being were questioned and analyzed. His practical suggestions for child-rearing were affirmed. The most interesting part of the evening was an exploration of Summerhill's programs and traditional Jewish teachings. Our next meeting will take place in the home of DANNY and EMMA MARS and will discuss Podhoretz' Making It.
