(Note: My feelings about Passover are best expressed in an article of mine written many years ago. With your permission, it is reprinted).

Passover, for us, has always had a fascination, a magnetic appeal, unexplainable, emotional, and tinged with excitement and anticipation. It is comparable to being completely enveloped by a vibrant force, that stimulates and elevates us spiritually; endowing us at the same time with beneficence and goodwill to all mankind. It carries with it a pleasing illusory quality, generating within one's person only warmth and goodness. Pesach, to us, has only pleasant memories, epitomizing the togetherness of families, bound by ties transcending mere blood relationships. The traditional Passover Seders as practiced in the Orthodox home radiates with the blessings of unswerving loyalty, dedication, love and filial devotion and pride. Echoes of the past weaves its kaleidoscope of fulfillment, as the history of the ages is unfolded at these evening rituals.

Perhaps we can best capture the Purim-Pesach season where the canvas paints in rhyme the impact of the Seder Services:

Tradition sets its wondrous tone its spell is most complete

It helps fulfill a need in life whose gift may not be beat.

A Jewish home at Pesach time exudes its love and charm

And spreads its goodness all around and shields us all from harm.

The family gathers closely knit together in one home

The warmth is message clear enough no longer need they roam.

From near and far the members come none says that he but can't

The Seder draws them willingly to hear the age old chant.

Torah sets the theme of life, the family is supreme

As long as we're in close commune we share the golden dream.

The children play their gayest best, the mood is theirs to share

The women scurry to and fro to prepare the evening fare.

*The house is Kashered clean and bright
according to the rule*

And settles down in untold wealth to await the men from Shul.

The Seder should be sacred to a people such as we

And we thank the Lord in every way for keeping this land free.

This time of year in Jewish life the heart shows quickened pace

The joys we live through all these days is mirrored in each face.

The songs we sing at Pesach time roll back a thousand years

And the haunting tunes of yesteryear bring forth the joyful tears.

The child, the parent fill the home their strength is in their love

And G-d in his great wisdom smiles down from up above.

When the young recite the Kashas, through the ages they've endured

They spell a tale in history that time has not obscured.

As we leave the Seder table, a family closely bound

The ties are ever strengthened and cannot be unwound.

We pray for peace in all the land, let the world be ruled by reason

And may Yiddishkeit embrace us all in this happy Pesach season.

SELLING OF CHOMETZ

The religious ceremony of "Me-chiras Chometz" traditionally customary each year before Passover will take place under the supervision of our Rabbi Maurice L. Schwartz daily until Erev Pesach at the office of our synagogue from 2 to 8 P.M., or at the rabbi's residence, 1470 Parkchester Road, Apt. 1B. All contributions received are donated to charity.

Passover Reflections

The festival of Passover is the most colorful and longed for holiday in Jewish life. But there are relatively few that enjoy it completely or draw as much spiritual sustenance for their lives from it, as they should. It is due to the fact that most people do not fully understand the meanings of each step of the ritual nor the reasons for doing so. Yet every one prepares either to make a Seder or to participate in one or at least to see one. It is because each one's Soul subconsciously feels the sacredness of the Jewish holiday and its majesty, which reaches to the very core of the Jewish heart and faith.

It seems to me that the basic reason for the beauty of this festival derives from the fact that Passover is signalized by the Seder or order of ceremonies of the first 2 nights. The Seder includes two most important Mitzvos, (1) eating matzoh and (2) narration of the going out of Egypt, which we observe in memory of the miracle of the exodus and on account of which we accepted service of G-d for all time. Furthermore, the recital of the Hagadah and the miracles of the exodus of Egypt instill in us the hope for our final redemption and elevation of our people to our destined place in the world.

Symbolically, the Seder impresses upon us the fact that this world is governed by Divine law and order. Every move, every step of the ritual has a meaning. The how, where, when, amount of matzoh eaten, amount of wine to be had, the various vegetables and other foods to be used carry significance. It thus makes us feel that our lives are so fashioned that everyone of our physical actions carries spiritual meaning and consequently we should calculate every move and act of ours so that it should lead to the service of G-d and enhancement of His glory.

Our sages foretold that we would be redeemed from the diaspora during the month of Nissan. May, therefore, this Pesach bring us Elijah the prophet, to announce the coming of the Messiah and the complete redemption of Israel to the Hills of Zion and Jerusalem.

MEDICINES FOR PASSOVER

There are many medicines which contain Chometz and are questionable if they can be used during Passover. Call our Rabbi Schwartz, either at the synagogue or at his residence 792-0737 for advice and guidance. The rabbi, in consultation with recognized medical authorities, will be able to advise you on how to conduct yourself on Pesach.

GET WELL

Our best wishes for a full and speedy recovery to Joseph Brown, Lena Felman, Leah Gurock, Murray Heller, Maurice Levin, Dick B. Ponyman, Mollie Siegelman and Bertram Stern.

Let's see you all back at Young Israel healthy and hearty.

It's good to see Roberta Horowitz up and around once again.

Our heartiest congratulations to:

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Fusfeld, on the birth of their grandson David Scott, born to their children Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fusfeld.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Katz, on the birth of their granddaughter Aviva Yael Sharon born to their children Mr. and Mrs. James Katz.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Steiner, on the birth of their granddaughter, born to their children Dr. and Mrs. Richard Steiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Stern, on the birth of their new grandson.

Best wishes and felicitations to the following members having birthdays or anniversaries in April:

PASSOVER QUIZ

Questions

1. What are the other names of Passover?
2. How long is this holiday?
3. What are the Hebrew dates?
4. What does this phrase refer to: The Intermediate Days?
5. What is the name of the Sabbath preceding Passover?
6. Which name is out of place? Pharaoh, Aaron, Miriam, Moses?
7. Who was Zipporah?
8. What doesn't belong? Frogs, lice, ants, locusts.
9. What was the tenth plague?
10. Name three songs sung during the Seder?
11. What does Hagadah refer to, and what does the word mean?
12. During the Seder, we tell about the Four Sons, one wise, one wicked, one simple. What was the Fourth Son?
13. What word is out of place? Shankbone, bitter herbs, cheese, salt water.
14. Complete this phrase: "On all other nights we do not dip even once . . ."
15. Why are four cups of wine poured during the Seder?

* * *

Answers

1. Z'man Herutenu — Season of our Freedom, and Hag HaMatzoth — Festival of Unleavened Bread. Hag HaAviv — Festival of the Spring.
2. 8 days; in Israel 7 days.
3. Nisan 15-22.
4. The Hol Hamoed or the Intermediate Days refer to the period of time between the first two days of Passover, and the last two. They are regarded as semi-holidays.
5. Shabbat HaGadol. "The Great Sabbath". The name probably refers to the phrase, "the great day of the Lord" which occurs in Malachi 3-23 and is read as part of the Haftorah (Prophetic Reading) that Sabbath morning.
6. Pharaoh is the name out of place. Aaron and Miriam were brother and sister to Moses.
7. Zipporah was Moses' wife.
8. "Ants" does not belong in this list as frogs, lice and locusts were three of the Plagues God sent upon the Egyptians corresponding to the deeds they had perpetrated against the children of Israel.
9. The Tenth Plague was the slaying of the first born sons of the Egyptians.
10. Dayenu, Chad Gadya, Ehad Mi Yodea, Addir Hu.
11. Hagadah meaning "the telling" refers to the book which tells the story of Passover and describes the Seder.
12. The Fourth Son is the "one who does not know enough even to ask".
13. "Cheese" is out of place as the other items refer to symbols used during the Seder itself.
14. "On all other nights we do not dip even once, but on this night we dip twice."
15. To symbolize the four expressions of liberation which the Bible uses. (Exodus 6:6).

TO THOSE WHO HAVE PETS

Chometz is not permitted in one's possession during the entire Passover! Check the diet of your pets and substitute all Chometz with other Passover foods. Bird food is Chometz and we have been advised by Hartz Mountain Foods that Matzoh Farfel, ground up and spread out, is an ample substitute in the bird's diet for the Passover week.

One should also check cat and dog food to see if it contains Chometz.

SHABBOS HAGODOL

The Great Sabbath

Our Rabbi Maurice L. Schwartz will preach the Traditional Sabbath Hagodol Sermon (Drosha) in Halacha and Agada on Saturday afternoon, April 10th at 5:00 P.M. Everyone, both men and women, are cordially invited to attend this most important Torah discourse.

MODEL SEDER

The children of our Hebrew and Sunday Schools will conduct their traditional Model Seder on Sunday morning, April 11th at 10:30 A.M. All parents, members and friends of Young Israel are invited to attend this most educational event, which will be complete with Matzohs, gefilte fish, wine, etc. Free Seder instruction sheets will be distributed to all present.

HEBREW AND SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTICE

There will be no sessions in the Hebrew School during the entire Passover Holiday.

Sessions will resume Monday, April 26th at 3:30 P.M.

Sunday School will resume Sunday, April 25th at 10:00 A.M.

Children, however, should attend the services on the festival days in the main synagogue.

CONCERNING PASSOVER CAKES

One must be particularly careful when purchasing cakes and other baked goods for Passover. We are happy to inform the congregation, that besides the packaged products baked under approved rabbinic supervision, we now have a retail bake shop, GRUENEBAUM'S DANA BAKE SHOP, 2218 White Plains Road (north of Pelham Parkway) which will carry a large variety of Kosher for Passover cakes, cookies and macaroons under the supervision of Rabbi Dr. Joseph Breuer and approved by our Rabbi Schwartz.

FAST OF THE FIRST BORN SERVICE

Because the first born of the Israelites were spared when the Egyptians were smitten in the Tenth Plague, all first born Jewish males are by tradition required to fast on the eve of Passover as an expression of thanksgiving for their deliverance.

If, however, one attends a "Seudat Mitzvah" a celebration accompanying the performance of a religious deed, as a Siyum, completion of the study of a volume of the Talmud, one may absolve himself from fasting. This Siyum ceremony is held at 7:30 A.M. following services on Wednesday morning, April 14th. All first born should attend.

SEARCH FOR CHOMETZ

Every home must be thoroughly cleaned of Chometz before the Eve of Passover. All closets, cabinets, cupboards and all other places where one suspects the existence of Chometz should be thoroughly inspected. This includes our automobiles and their trunks. On the night before Passover, Tuesday night, April 13th, a formal search known as B'Dikah Chometz is conducted. The opening pages of your Hagadah give you the procedure. The next morning the Chometz collected during the search is burned.

From The President

We are currently, in our Sunday morning Mishna class, immersed in the study of laws pertaining to "Kurban Pesach" (The Paschal Lamb). In the process we glean a little knowledge about many other sacrifices offered in the Temple of old, among them a "thanks offering." Our synagogue is obligated at least to a written "thank you!" to a most deserving pair.

Our annual affair in mid-February, which commemorated both our 36th anniversary as a Young Israel branch and our Rabbi's 18th year with us, is now history and another added page in the social and religious life of a dedicated membership. The speeches and the candle lighting ceremony consumed too much time for some of the celebrants and too little for others. The smorgasbord and the dinner were catered to perfection, the music was most inspiring, if the dancing to its rhythmic beats was any measure of its acceptance, and a good time was apparently had by all.

But what about the plans and preparations that entered into play before that evening of merriment passed into memory? No detail could be omitted, however minute, not even the journal ads which traditionally are a part, if not the essential ingredient, of an annual synagogue affair. All of these elements were expertly executed mainly by two men to whom we all owe a "Kurban Todah," an offering of gratitude.

The most fortunate discovery our branch made in recent years is, without any question of doubt or hesitancy, our friend and confidant, Mr. Lou Friedman. His delightfully charming commentaries in these pages, always timely, concise and complimentary to all and sundry, are for him but a side line. As chairman of the dinner committee he planned, questioned, prepared, negotiated, supervised, improved, altered, decided, executed and finalized every facet that required a guiding touch to allay the concerns of the professionals, that no flaw be allowed to mar our festivities, and assure members of his own committee that no loose ends would go untied. His indefatigable energy and enthusiasm, in spite of the pressures of time, made possible the happy results in which we all participated.

And is there an area in which our good friend, yours and mine, Max Spielberger, is not involved? If Max doesn't do it, he doesn't know about it! He helps on every committee—even if one doesn't exist. But as Journal Chairman, which means chief fund raiser, Max has no peers—and certainly had none in recent years. He leaps where angels fear to tread. His tools are the mails, the telephone and the "buttonhole." When Spielberger holds the calling end of a phone, a Parkchesterite immediately mumbles to himself "how much will this cost me!" But the results of his efforts are gratifying to the synagogue, to the community and its social life, to charity organizations, to needy individuals and, most important, to the very donor himself, to whom "giving" is made so effortless and rewarding.

We must give thanks to Kelly Winkler, also. His job of seat arranging at annual affairs assumes giant proportions, and particularly so when last minute changes are demanded by sedate or irate revelers-to-be. But do you know anyone with a temperament more forgiving?

Best wishes for more simchas, for a Happy and Festive Pesach.

Please remember our Jewish needy who have less than we and give to our Mo'os Chittim Fund. SOL SPITZ
President

From The President

At our March meeting we enjoyed a very delightful film furnished by the Jewish National Fund, on the establishment and gradual growth of a kibbutz in the normally dry and arid area near Eilat in Israel's Negev. After many years of hard and laborious toil by the kibbutzniks, beautiful trees, flowers and productive plants grew where formerly there was only dry soil — one of the many miracles in glorious Israel. Since the meeting occurred several days before Purim, naturally we partook of delicious hamantaschen in honor of the holiday.

Our members continue to be on the move—some leaving permanently: Rose Grasheim, Recording Secretary, who is moving to Florida and Mary Bernstein who, with her husband Jack, are moving to California. Farewell, dear friends, good luck and happiness in your new homes. Vacationers: Hattie Haiman, Corresponding Secretary, and her husband, Philip, are leaving for a visit with their son Mark in San Diego, California, Molly and Abe Gewertz will be in Israel over Passover — have a wonderful time. Others are happily returning from warmer climates: Hello to Dorothy Haimowitz, Sara Kaufman, Ruth Kohen and Bessie Vegotsky (and husbands) — it's so good to see you back with us again, relaxed and raring to resume your activities at the Donor Table, Koffee Klotches, or White Elephant Sale.

Final arrangements for our Donor Supper on Monday night, May 17th will be completed by our very capable Dottie Haimowitz for this very last year, as she and her husband, David, will also be moving shortly—to Florida, so ladies, let's have as many members as possible attending this most enjoyable event in tribute to Dottie. See her and her capable committee, Pauline Lehman, Gert Miller and Rose Parness for reservations at Arele's famous night club.

The final Card Party of this season will be held on Sunday afternoon, April 25th in Levin Hall from 1:00 - 6:00 P.M. Lunch and your favorite card games are the program. Let's make this a very successful event — all we need is the presence of many members and friends!

Reserve Sunday, May 2nd for the Solidarity Day Parade in Manhattan. Remember the importance of as great a demonstration as possible by us to indicate to the world that we stand with Soviet Jewry as a united people.

Evelyn Hein, Chairlady, is very actively preparing for the White Elephant Sale on Sunday, May 16th, starting at 10 A.M. Any and all clean useable and saleable merchandise is welcome. Please bring it to the Synagogue as soon as possible.

With the approach of Passover, it is my pleasure to say "Chag Sameach"—a wonderful happy and most enjoyable Holiday to all officers and members of the Women's League and your families.

Men's Club

From The President

Several weeks ago Washington had an important guest, the Foreign Secretary of the State of Israel Yigal Allon. After his conferences with President Ford and other U.S. officials Allon was entertained at a luncheon by the Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, who rose, lifted his cup of wine and drank "L'Chaim" in honor of the Foreign Secretary and wished him success in his mission.

In his response Secretary Allon told the assembled dignitaries about a conversation between him and Kissinger in the year 1957. It took place after Israel retreated from the area of Azzah and Sinai under pressure from Washington. President Eisenhower and Secretary Dulles threatened Israel with punishment if she would not leave the territories captured in the operation.

In the year 1957 Allon was a student in a seminar of Harvard University under the professorship of Henry Kissinger. At the end of the seminar Kissinger told Allon that he is traveling to New York by car and asked him if he wants to join him. Allon gracefully accepted the invitation. The trip lasted about 4 - 5 hours during which time they discussed various subjects. At that time Kissinger did not dream of becoming the Secretary of State and the conflict between Israel and the Arab countries would become one of his many problems. But one thing he knew that Allon who was a General in the Israeli army is capable of holding a high post in the government of the State of Israel.

At the luncheon Allon singled out only one item from his conversation with the professor. Kissinger told his student the following: "If half of Sinai will be again under your rule, don't you leave until the Arabs will give you full recognition and will sign a treaty of true peace."

DID SECRETARY OF STATE KISSINGER DO WHAT PROFESSOR KISSINGER SAID?
