“TIKKUN SHOYUOTH”

The vestry rooms of the Synagogue will be open on Sunday night, June 1st for the saying of “Tikkun Shoyuoth.” This traditional custom of spending a most pleasant hour of religious-social activity at the Synagogue, part of which is given over to the discussion and reading of interesting chapters of the bible, is, indeed, most appropriate for the eve of the Holiday which commemorates the giving of the Torah to our people.

Rabbi Lookstein will be there to expound parts of the Bible that may require interpretation, and of course—refreshments will be served.

A cordial invitation is extended to all.

SOCIAL NEWS

It is expected that beginning with next season this Bulletin will be issued monthly and sent to all members and seatholders of the Congregation.

A special column will be devoted to the social news of the families of our members and seatholders, and we shall, therefore, be glad to publish any social announcements sent to us.

In view of this monthly feature, there will, hereafter, be no public congratulatory announcements of any sort made by the Rabbi from the pulpit.

"SHUL NIGHT"

One of the institutions of the new administration is "Shul Night". Every Tuesday night the officers and synagogue officials (rabbis, cantor, sexton) may be met at the synagogue for any congregational matters which require their attention. It is planned that in the course of time "Shul Night" will take on in addition to its administrative importance, a social significance as well.

CHILDREN'S SERVICES

The Children's Services will be brought to a close for this season on Saturday morning at 10:30 in the vestry rooms of the Synagogue.

These services, initiated for the first time this season, proved to be most successful from every standpoint. The congregational singing, the sermonettes and stories and the delightful manner in which the more talented of the children acted as cantors and read the service with all its traditional effects and colorings were most inspiring.

The Congregation owes a debt of gratitude to Mr. Irving Goldberger who led and managed the services most admirably, and to Mr. Sydney Cottin and Miss Hilda Schlang for their able and devoted assistance. To the ladies of the Sisterhood who supplied the "Kiddush" which was a regular feature every Saturday, the Congregation offers its most profound thanks.
