The President Returns

Mr. Fred Margareten has just returned from an extended trip to Europe accompanied by Mrs. Margareten and his mother. The President was the Mizrahi delegate at the World Jewish Congress in Geneva and served on several important committees there. A hearty welcome to him.

Mr. Adler back from Palestine

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adler returned from a six weeks' trip to Palestine where they visited their parents. They brought back a rather gloomy report of the recent events in the Holy Land.

The Synagogue Begins To Look Like New

The alterations in the Synagogue building progressed throughout the summer. The outer front of the Synagogue was sandblasted and a new cornice installed on the roof. The stained glass windows throughout the building were fixed, cleaned and in some cases replaced. The ventilating system in the main Synagogue was put into operation assuring a steady and clean flow of air at all times. Thus we might say the first section of the work of altering and improving the Synagogue structure was completed.

For what has already been done we are indebted to Mr. Albert Sokolski, Chairman of the Building Committee and to Mr. Thomas Bornstein who is always on the job. They were assisted by the other members of the Committee, Herbert J. Roeder, George Jacobs and Judge Samuel M. Katz. The financial end of the work was handled by Samuel M. Kaplan, Treasurer of the Building Fund.

Social Events of the Summer

Naomi Friedman, daughter of our esteemed trustee, Dr. Samuel Friedman, was married to Joshua Manischewitz at the Commodore Hotel, on June 29th.

A daughter was born to our Secretary, Mr. George Jacobs and Mrs. Jacobs on June 13th. The young lady, the second in the Jacobs family, was named Ruth Marcia.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Freedman on July 17th. The young man was named Robert Allen. Rabbi Lookstein was his Sandek (God-father).

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Rich. Mr. Rich is one of our newer members.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sokolski announced the engagement of their daughter, Inez, to Samuel Liebowitz. The wedding will take place in October.

To all of these go the sincerest wishes of the entire Congregation for unending happiness.

We're In The Navy

Kehilath Jeshurun now boasts of a full fledged mariner among its membership. Samuel M. Kaplan, who always delights us with his surprises, is now the owner of a beautiful yacht in which he plied the waters of the nearby Atlantic throughout the summer. Use it well and ay, ay, sir!

New Members Apply

We are pleased to announce the receipt of the signed applications for membership from

Dr. Maxmillan W. Goldstein,
827 Park Avenue

Dr. Edward Schweiger,
120 East 85th Street

Mr. M. Duke Manacher,
70 East 96th Street

A hearty welcome to these applicants whom we hope to soon count as part of our congregational family.

A Speedy Recovery

Our best wishes for a speedy recovery are extended to Mrs. David Kass, lying ill at the Fitkin Memorial Hospital Neptune, New Jersey.

Similarly do we wish a rapid recovery to Mr. William Bachrach lying ill at the home of his daughter in Orange, N. J.

An Appeal To Our Worshippers

We take this means of appealing to our worshippers to cooperate with us in maintaining proper order and decorum during the High Holiday Services.

Join the Congregational Singing so that you may better enjoy the services.

Do not remove the Talis or leave your seat until after the Rabbi's Closing Benediction.

Please be in your seat before the Sermon begins as the doors will be closed during the Sermon.

A Committee of Ushers will be in charge and we beg you to cooperate in our efforts to make our services more dignified and more impressive.

A Wise Old Custom

An old Jewish custom, as valid as law, made Jews pay up before Rosh Hashona all outstanding pledges of the year. We call this custom to the attention of our members and seatholders. Any dues, donations and other obligations to the Synagogue should be taken care of without delay so that we may start the New Year with a clean slate. We urge this especially upon those who have pledged to the Building Fund of the Congregation.

The Yizkor Scroll

The form that follows may be used for sending in names of deceased for the Yizkor Scroll to be used on Yom Kippur at Memorial Services. To insure inclusion of these names in the Memorial Prayers the form must be returned to us without delay.
