Condolences

We record with profound sorrow the passing of Mr. B. Lang, a seatholder and long-time friend of Kehilath Jeshurun. It is our sincere hope that his family will be spared further sorrow for many, many years to come.

On the Approach of Passover

Passover Bulletin Next Week

Next week the synagogue Bulletin will contain the schedule of the holiday services, as well as the necessary regulations and rituals in connection with Passover.

Passover Relief for the Needy

Passover is almost here, and many of the poor and needy people who come to us each year for assistance at this time are still unprovided for. Our Passover fund has not nearly reached its quota yet, and there are very many who are depending upon this support.

We appeal to all those who fully intend to send in contributions not to delay any longer, but to please respond as soon as possible, so that our distribution of these funds may be timely and do the most good. And we ask our many friends to please be as generous as they possibly can. Checks may be mailed to the synagogue office—117 East 85th Street.

Palestine and Passover

The holiday of emancipation is an appropriate time to think of Palestine. We can serve Eretz Yisroel by purchasing Palestine-made products, and every table should be graced by some product of the Holy Land.

ALL OUT FOR OUR THEATRE PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT

This Saturday evening the members and friends of Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun will gather at the Guild Theatre at the gala theatre party conducted on behalf of our synagogue.

The play, "SIMPLY HENRY HOGG", presented and produced by the Theatre Guild promises to provide an evening of real entertainment and enjoyment for our many guests. The comedy is a political satire, humorous, smart, and very clever. We know that our many kind friends who have taken tickets, will thoroughly enjoy themselves.

For those who do not have tickets, but wish to cooperate and give their assistance to the synagogue in this way,—tickets may be purchased through our synagogue office until Friday afternoon, and thereafter at the Guild Theatre box office. We may add that we still have a number of choice tickets left, at all prices, and should greatly appreciate further cooperation in this direction. We suggest that even at this last moment, you and YOU and YOU sit down at your telephone, call up a friend or two, and ask them to joint you at this theatre party. Show your willingness to help in the support of the synagogue!

Young People's League Forum Meeting

The Young People's League of Kehilath Jeshurun will conduct a most interesting forum meeting on MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 4th

8:30 promptly

in the

SYNAGOGUE SOCIAL HALL

117 East 85th Street

The guest speaker of the evening will be MR. JAMES LIBBEY, who will give several play reviews of "ONE THIRD OF A NATION", "PROLOGUE TO GLORY" and "HAITI". His lecture will be followed by an open forum, in which all will participate.

Dancing and refreshments will follow. The Young People's League will be happy to welcome all young people of the neighborhood.

NAT KOGAN, President.

About the Theatre Party

We do want to acknowledge with deep appreciation the assistance rendered by a few of our members in the disposal of theatre tickets for the party Saturday night. First and foremost among our ticket-sellers is our able synagogue Comptroller, Jacob D. Cohen, followed closely by our always cooperative and generous Ben Gottfried. We wish to heartily congratulate these two kind gentlemen whose efforts on behalf of the Theatre party went a long way towards its success. To HERBERT ROEDER, DANIEL EBERSTEIN, MRS. S. S. GORDON and MRS. JULES PRICE we also extend our thanks for cooperation and aid. We are sincerely grateful to them not only for their assistance in the disposal of tickets, but their kind encouragement and ready willingness at all times to help.

Sisterhood Notes

The Sisterhood held an interesting meeting in the Social Hall on Monday afternoon, at which a report of the Bazaar-Rummage Sale was rendered by Mrs. William Goodman, the chairlady. At this meeting plans were made for the forthcoming function of the Sisterhood, the Tea and Fashion Show which will be held on May 10th. Tickets for this affair will be in the mail shortly.

Community Seder Called Off

The number of advance reservations for the Community Seder does not warrant its being held, and Kehilath Jeshurun therefore, will not conduct one this year. We are very sorry indeed to disappoint those people who did send in their reservations.

Ramaz Academy Excursions

As part of its constructive program, the Ramaz Academy arranges regular excursions for pupils to various places of interest about the city, in connection with the courses of study. Two weeks ago, while studying "means of communication", the children were taken to and through the main post office. On Wednesday of this week, the entire school paid a most interesting and instructive visit to the Horowitz-Margaretan Matzoh Bakery.

Mrs. Sheinblum's Bridge Party

The Bridge party which Mrs. Irving Sheinblum kindly arranged at her home on Tuesday evening was a very lovely affair. All the people who attended spent a most enjoyable evening. The proceeds of the party will be donated by Mrs. Sheinblum to the Ramaz Academy.

News of the Girl Scouts

Miss Mildred Cohen, Scout leader of Kehilath Jeshurun's Girl Scout Troop, reports that over twenty-six girls have successfully passed their first tests and are full-fledged scouts, wearing official uniforms and insignia. The troop meets regularly Wednesday afternoons.

The new Brownie troop, consisting of cub scouts of 7-8-9 years, meets on Thursday afternoons in the Social Hall. Applications for this troop may be sent to the office, or interested prospective scouts may come down to the meeting on Thursday, which starts promptly at 3:15 o'clock.

A surprise party was tendered by the Girl Scouts to Nathalie Lookstein, whose birthday was celebrated at the last meeting.
