Sisterhood News

Those who did not attend the meeting held at the home of Mrs Lookstein on Monday, missed an intensely interesting and enjoyable afternoon. After a stirring appeal for cooperation by the President, Mrs. Jacob Alpert, the ladies responded beautifully when "AD" blanks for the DINNER DANCE JOURNAL were distributed. Great enthusiasm was shown regarding the Dinner Dance and the following Chairmen were elected:

Mrs. Fred Margareten
Chairman of Dinner Committee

Mrs. Harvey Gardner
Chairman of Journal

Mrs. Samuel Gross
Chairman of Kiddie Page

With such efficient assistance, the success of the affair is assured.

Plans for a BRIDGE and TEA, to be held MONDAY, November 28th, at the Hotel Croyden, were formulated. Tickets will soon be in the mail and every Sisterhood member is expected to do her best to dispose of as many tickets as possible.

The piece de resistance of the afternoon was the discussion on "Current Plays of the Federal Theatre" by Dr. J. L. Razey, who spoke brilliantly and inspired everyone with a desire to see the Federal Theatre Plays.

Delicious refreshments were served and a vote of thanks extended to the hostess for her fine hospitality.

TEMPUS FUGIT

—And the date of the DINNER DANCE, to be held Sunday, December 18th, at the HOTEL PLAZA, is fast approaching! There is much to be done to make this affair the outstanding success it is to be.

The Hon. Samuel Levy, Chairman of the Dinner Dance is very much encouraged by the outlook — but urges everyone to keep on working!

Mr. Ben Gottfried, Chairman of the Journal, reports nice progress and requests continued cooperation.

Are you doing your bit by procuring "ADS" for the Journal? Send them in to the office as quickly as you get them.

New Study Class To Be Formed

On WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16th, Rabbi Lookstein will initiate a new study group, having as its subject "JEWISH CULTURE THROUGH THE AGES." This class will meet at the home of the Rabbi, 106 East 85th Street, at 8:30 P.M.

Here is an opportunity for those who feel the need of intellectual stimulation. Everyone who has attended Rabbi Lookstein's classes know how interestingly he expounds his subject. A cordial invitation is extended to all members and their friends.

Membership Meeting

A very important membership meeting will be held WEDNESDAY, November 9th, at 8:30 P.M., in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. The need for a full attendance is most urgent. Many important matters will be discussed and the advice and counsel of every member will be welcomed. REMEMBER THE DATE: WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9th.

Are You Interested In the Future of Israel?

November 2nd marked the Twenty-first anniversary of the issuance of the Balfour Declaration. By way of commemorating this event, Rabbi Lookstein will discuss the meaning of the Declaration in the Life of Israel and in the Building of Palestine. In view of the threatened annulment of the Declaration, this subject should be of special interest to everyone.

If you want to be enlightened,—and who does not need enlightenment in these dark days? — attend Synagogue Services Saturday morning.

Change of Date

The date of the meeting of the PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION of the RAMAZ ACADEMY has been changed to TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15th, at 8 P.M., in the Social Hall of the Synagogue.

PARENTS AND FRIENDS OF THE RAMAZ ACADEMY, please note!

Congregation Captures Charity Championship

We have been informed that the collection taken on Yom Kippur Eve at Mincha time, for European and Palestinian Institutions is the highest sent in by any congregation in the city. Even the densely populated Jewish neighborhoods did not beat our record. This is something, indeed, to be proud of and we congratulate our worshippers for their generosity.

An Apology

To the members of the Talmud Class, Rabbi Lookstein wishes to extend his deep regret and sincere apologies for his inability to conduct his class last Monday evening. The urgency of the American Jewish Congress Convention demanded his attendance and he was unable to leave the session in time to meet the class. The class will be resumed this Monday, however, at the usual time.

American Jewish Congress Convenes

Rabbi Joseph Lookstein and Mr. Frederick Margareten, two important members of the American Jewish Congress, attended the sessions of the Convention, held at the Hotel Biltmore, last Sunday and Monday. Rabbi Lookstein, who was on the Nominations Committee was elected to the ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD of the Congress and Mr. Margareten, an important member of the Finance Committee was appointed on the EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the Congress.

Succoth Is Over — but

The Sisterhood has a deficit in its Succoth Fund! Unfortunately, there were fewer donations than usual and the expenses were high. If you neglected to send your contribution before, won't you do so now and help defray the expenses? Anything you send will be greatly appreciated.

What About Your Rummage?

Call ATwater 9-5760, and we will gladly send for anything you wish to dispose of. We are gathering merchandise for our Rummage Sale and we will appreciate whatever you can spare.

Let Kehilath Jeshurun Get the Credit!

If you are asked to contribute to the Red Cross Fund, won't you send your contribution to the Synagogue office—or designate your desire to have Kehilath Jeshurun get credit for it? Let the records show we, as an Orthodox Congregation, have given generously to this worthy cause.

Parent's Attention!

An invitation is extended to all Junior members of the Congregation and their friends to attend the Children's Services this Saturday morning, November 5th, at 10:30 sharp. Congregational singing, prayers, Bible stories and a "Kiddush" will be part of the program.

Send your children to us for religious inspiration.
