Judge Bordsky Addresses Men's Club

The well-attended Dinner-Meeting of the Men's Club was addressed by Judge Louis D. Brodsky last night at Reichman's Restaurant. This meeting was the first of a series of Dinner-Meetings which the organization will hold during the season. Judge Katz, President of the Organization, and all the members of the Club are determined to make their organization a vital factor in the life and growth of the Congregation. The policy, at the present time, seems to be to stress quality rather than quantity of membership. Bulletin readers will definitely hear more from the Men's Club.

Young People's League Busy at Work

The Young People's League of our Congregation is making strong and rapid strides. Nat Kogan, President of the Organization, seems to have fired the enthusiasm of the membership so that all are busy at work to gain new friends and to increase activity.

At the moment, the Young People's League is disposing of the tickets to the DANCE and RECEPTION for the night of December 18, at the Plaza Hotel. From all indications, there will be a very fine representation of young people at the affair that night.

The next meeting of the organization will be held on Monday, December 5, at 8:30 P.M., in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. Miss Barbara Berger, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, is arranging the program for the evening.

Our Busy Cantor

On Thanksgiving Day, Cantor Finger-oth was the guest soloist on Station WBNX for the Bronx Council's Thanksgiving program. On Tuesday, November 29, he was the guest of Congregation Shaare Zedek of Edgemere, and this Saturday he has been invited to officiate in one of the large synagogues of the Bronx. In his absence, of course, Reverend Joseph Adler will officiate at our services.

Entertainment Program Being Assembled

Mr. Daniel Eberstein, Chairman of the Program Committee, is assembling a program of high class entertainers for the Dinner-Dance. If he succeeds in getting only several of the stars whose names he mentioned, then our program this year will be a memorable one.

Dinner Tickets Going Rapidly

Close to twenty tables have already been sold for the affair. We are anxious to dispose of at least thirty tables, or three hundred tickets. Some of our leading members have made their reservations. The finest families of the community will be there. Well-known personalities who are friends of our members will also be with us. We are especially anxious to have our own members, seat-holders, and their families at this affair. This is the one occasion of the year when fathers, sons, mothers, daughters, sons-in-law, and daughters-in-law can meet in a true family spirit for a fine social evening under synagogue auspices. Do not delay! Make your reservations at once! The price for the grandest evening of the year is only fifteen dollars per couple.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Sisterhood Luncheon-Meeting

The next meeting of the Sisterhood will be held at the house of Mrs. Benjamin Wohl, 9 East 96th Street, Monday, December 4th. This meeting will take the form of a Luncheon-Meeting. Mrs. Wohl, the hostess, extends a cordial invitation to all members and their friends to be her guests. Reports of the Bridge and the forthcoming Dinner-Dance will be given. An enjoyable afternoon is in store for you. Don't miss this meeting! And please be prompt! Lunch will be served at 12:30.

Sisterhood Bridge Social a Financial Success

The Bridge and Tea sponsored by the Sisterhood and held at the Croyden Hotel was a fine success, socially and financially. Everyone enjoyed the afternoon tremendously. Mrs. D. Krawitz, Chairman of the Bridge, and Mrs. I. Givner, Co-Chairman, were responsible for the affair, and thanks are extended to them for their efforts. Candy was donated, in liberal quantity, by Flora Mir and Richardi. Donations for the raffle and door-prizes were supplied by

Best and Co.—Suede purse.

Merzon—Order for $7.50 brassiere.

Chesterfield—4 Passes for a Broadcast.

Mrs. Alpert—Bathrobe.

Mrs. Krawitz—Three-strand Pearls and Bracelet.

The door-prizes were won by Mesdames Jacobs and Rosenback. The lucky winners of the raffle were Mesdames Graut, Sokoski, Silberman, and Margareten.

Class in "JEWISH CULTURE THROUGH THE AGES" Grows

Rabbi Lookstein's class in "Jewish Culture Through The Ages" is growing in size and interest. The last meeting, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. Schlang, was an intensely interesting one. After the lecture everyone participated in the discussions which arose relative to the lecture. Refreshments were served and all left having spent a most enjoyable evening. The next meeting of the class will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fischel, 910 Park Avenue, Wednesday, December 14th. All are welcome.

APPEAL FOR OLD CLOTHES

We wish to thank all those who answered our appeal for discarded clothes. Each day we are confronted with the problem of clothing for men and women, so that we will welcome any donations sent in.

ADDING MACHINE NEEDED

The Synagogue office is very much in need of an adding machine, and will be very grateful to any one who can donate one.

CHANUKAH CANDLES TO BE DISTRIBUTED SOON

In a few days Chanukah Candles will be sent to members and seatholders of the Synagogue, with the compliments of the Benevolent Fund of the Congregation. It is hoped that every one will respond with his usual generosity.

RECORD SOUVENIR JOURNAL TO BE FEATURE OF DINNER-DANCE THIS YEAR

Murray M. Rosenberg leads all AD-getters with Ben Gottfried and Fred Margareten in close pursuit.

A very spirited rally of the workers of the Dinner-Dance was held on Tuesday Night, at the home of Mr. Fred Margareten. The reports of the progress of the affair were most encouraging. The meeting was informed that Mr. Murray M. Rosenberg, newly-acquired member of the Congregation, was about to reach an all-time high in procuring ADS for the Souvenir Journal. When the announcement of his quota was made, the meeting burst into vociferous applause, and speeches of admiration were made in his absence by the President, the Rabbi, and the Chairman of the Journal Committee.

Mr. Fred Margareten has already reached his quota of last year and is still going strong, and Mr. Ben Gottfried has gone far ahead of his last year's quota, and promised to continue working. Mr. Samuel Levy, as Chairman of the Dinner Committee, has proved himself a champion Ad-getter in his own right.

A number of new AD-getters are active this year, notably Mrs. Henry A. Rafsky, Mr. Benjamin Jacoby, Mrs. I. E. Harris, Mr. Nathan B. Kogan, and Mrs. Harry Fischel. Of course, the standbys of last year and previous years, whose names will appear in the final report, are continuing their efforts of the past.

Every member can do something. He can get at least one Ad. He can insert an "In Memoriam" for a dear departed one. He can inscribe the name of a child on the "Kiddie" page, and all of that will total up to a bigger-than-ever journal and, of course, richer-than-ever proceeds.
