Ramaz Academy Receives Donation of Supplies

Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs, interested parents of the Ramaz Academy, have generously donated a goodly supply of text books for use in the Academy. We are deeply grateful to the Jacobs for their kindness and we sincerely trust we may warrant their further support.

Many Thanks, Tudor Storage Co.

The Tudor Moving and Storage Co., of 205 East 76th Street, has very kindly consented to house our rummage until the sale starts. We are indeed grateful to them for their consideration and want to assure them of our deep appreciation. We shall make every effort to reciprocate whenever possible.

Parent-Teacher Association Meeting

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy will hold its next meeting on Tuesday, January 10th, in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. Matters of utmost importance will be discussed and a general discussion, led by Mr. Benjamin Brickman, will follow the business meeting.

Parents—and Friends of the Ramaz Academy—come to this meeting and help with your suggestions and criticism!

Sisterhood News

The next meeting of the Sisterhood, which will take the form of a luncheon-meeting, will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Margareten, 20 West 86th Street, Monday, January 9th.

Final plans for the Bazaar and Rummage Sale, of which Mrs. William Goodman is Chairman, will be made. Mrs. Alpert, President of the Sisterhood, urges every member to attend, as this is a most important meeting. The hostess, Mrs. Margareten, extends a cordial invitation to all members to be her guests and asks that everyone come promptly at 12:30.

Talmud Class to be Resumed

The Talmud Class, led by Rabbi Lookstein, will be resumed after a two week vacation, this Monday evening. This class meets every Monday, at 8:30 P.M., in the Library of the Synagogue. All are welcome.

Congratulations!

In a beautiful setting at the Hotel Pierre, Joseph Wohl, son of our beloved members, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wohl, was married to Miss Gretna Parrel, on January 2nd. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein, who was assisted by Rabbi Leo Jung and Rabbi Klein. Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun extends hearty congratulations to the young couple and expresses the hope and prayer that their life together will be one of unalloyed happiness. To the parents, we extend felicitations and the wish that they will continue to enjoy ever-increasing happiness.

It was with great pleasure we learned that the young groom announced to Rabbi Lookstein and Mr. Fred Margareten, President of the Congregation, his intentions of joining the Kehilath Jeshurun Family, when he returns from his trip. We are certain his association with the Synagogue will prove mutually agreeable.

* * *

Kehilath Jeshurun extends heartiest congratulations to Mr. Abbot Simon, whose marriage to Miss Helen Levi, took place January 3rd, at the home of the bride. Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein officiated at the ceremony. The Congregation sincerely hopes the young couple and their parents will always enjoy the fullest measure of happiness.

Men's Club

The Men's Club will meet on Thursday, January 12th, at Reichman's Restaurant, 248 East 82nd Street, at 6:30 o'clock. This meeting will be addressed by Rabbi J. X. Cohen, of the Free Synagogue, who will talk on "Economic Discrimination Against the Jews." Hon. Samuel Katz, President of the Men's Club is eager for a large attendance and urges all members and their friends to be prompt.

Information, Please!

The urge and desire for a more comprehensive understanding of the life and culture of the Jewish people manifests itself by the ever-increasing group which meets every other Wednesday, under the very able leadership of Rabbi Lookstein. The last meeting, what with such perfect hosts as Mr. and Mrs. Jacob D. Cohen, proved to be a social as well as an intellectual treat. All members and friends of Kehilath Jeshurun are invited to "Join the Crowd."

The next meeting will be held on January 11th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Atpert, 1327 Lexington Avenue, at 8:30 promptly.

Rabbi Lookstein Invited to Speak

By special invitation of the Louisville Community, and at the suggestion of Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Rabbi Lookstein was asked to address the opening of the United Palestine Appeal and the Joint Distribution Committee campaign in Louisville, Kentucky, on January 17th. This meeting will mark the opening of the 1939 campaign and leaders throughout the country are watching anxiously for its results as an indication of the trend of the times.

For February 5th, the Rabbi has been invited to address the Annual Dinner of the Mizrahi Organization in Detroit, Michigan. On March 6th, the Rabbi will address the Annual Purim Affair of the Baltimore Mizrahi Organization.

Can You Help?

Do you know of an Orthodox home where a German Refugee, cultured and educated, may act as a companion to an elderly lady or couple? And do you know where a young girl of 19, who is a graduate of the Jewish School for Kindergarten and Nursery in Berlin, can be placed? If so, please communicate with the Synagogue office, ATwater 9-5760.
