PURIM CELEBRATION — MARCH 5th
KEEP THE DATE OPEN

A Hearty Welcome!

Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun extends a hearty welcome to Mr. Alexander Garfein, newly elected member.
We sincerely trust his association with the synagogue will be a long and happy one.

Congratulations!

Heartiest congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bornstein upon the engagement of their son Morris to Miss Jane Stulsaft. The Congregation expresses the hope that the young couple will be blessed with many years of health and happiness, and that their parents will continue to celebrate many more such joyous events.

Rabbi Lookstein Guest At Detroit Meeting

Rabbi Lookstein was invited to be the guest speaker at the Annual Dinner of the Detroit chapter of Mizrahi, last Sunday. While in Detroit the Rabbi also addressed a conference of representatives of Orthodox Synagogues throughout Michigan.

Young People's League Plans Interesting Meeting

"MARRIAGE AND NEUROSIS" is the title of the lecture to be delivered by DR. SAMUEL SCHMALHAUSEN, Monday, February 13th, under the auspices of the Young People's League. Dr.
Schmalhausen, author of "A New Road To Progress," "Why We Misbehave" and many other books, is a noted specialist in psychology, mental hygiene, and social analysis.

This lecture will be open to all members and friends of all affiliated Synagogue organizations. So — come to the Social Hall of the Synagogue, MON-DAY, FEBRUARY 13th, at 8:30 P.M., prepared to listen to a brilliant speaker on a subject of interest to young and old.

Sisterhood News

One of the most pleasant meetings of the Kehilath Jeshurun Sisterhood was held last Monday, at the home of Mrs. William Goodman. In the absence of the President, Mrs. David Krawitz presided, opening the meeting with a vote of thanks to the gracious hostess for her very splendid hospitality. Amongst the large group which gathered was Miss Millicent Baum, who spoke briefly of her duties as Educational Advisor to Mayor La Guardia. Mrs. Bernard Fischman and Mrs. Erna Brunis were also welcomed as guests of the afternoon.

Plans for a PURIM PARTY to be held March 5th, were discussed and a committee appointed to arrange details. The BAZAAR was also a topic of discussion and several more volunteers agreed to call for merchandise.

The piece de resistance, however, was a most delightful rendition of songs and readings by Mr. James Phillips of the Playwright's Producing Co. Mr. Phillips will be remembered as a participant in the current play "Knickerbocker Holiday," in which he portrays the part of a Councilman. Mr. Phillips is a most versatile artist. Beginning with a Negro Spiritual, he took us to many lands, singing the songs of the Welch, Czecho-Slovakian, Russian, Irish, Scotch, German, American and even Yiddish. Mr. Phillips was enthusiastically received and reluctantly permitted to leave. The memory of an afternoon well spent will linger for a long time.

Condolences

It is with deep regret we record the death of Miss Lena Lipsitz, beloved sister of our dear members, Mrs. Jacob Alpert, President of Kehilath Jeshurun Sisterhood and Mrs. Louis Alpert. It is our fervent hope that they will be spared all future sorrow.

Wanted and Needed

The Ramaz Academy is very much in need of an upright piano for their Kindergarten Class. Will anyone volunteer to donate one? There are many upright pianos available, we feel sure, and we will greatly appreciate receiving one. Please communicate with the Synagogue office — ATwater 9-5760.

Bazaar News

Merchandise for the Bazaar has been coming in beautifully. But — we certainly need more if we are to achieve the success we hope to. Who else will contribute? Remember, friends, anything will be gratefully received; old, new, damaged, soiled, discarded. Let us help you get rid of all the merchandise you no longer can use; in that way you will be helping us.

Contributors this week are: Ma-Ro Hosiery Co., Harry Shill Co., Brown & Lester, Gordon-Levy Corp., Harry Horowitz, S. Pofsher, R. Tausky, Mrs. S. Gross, L. Robbins & Sons, I. Greenman, Friedlander & Co., Albert Eisenberg, Princely Mills, S. Lamport Co., A. Kommel & Co., M. Asinof & Sons. To all of these kind people we extend sincere thanks.
