Trustees! Attention!

There will be a very important meeting of the Board of Trustees on Tuesday Evening, February 28th, at 8:30 promptly. Trustees, please note the date now! It is most essential that you attend.

An Appropriate Way to Honor Your Dear Departed One

Plans are being formulated to have a dedication ceremony and unveiling of those plaques which have been inscribed on the memorial tablet this year. There is no more fitting way to perpetuate the memory of a dear one than by inscribing the name on a plaque in a House of God. By so doing you are assured of the perpetual observance of the Yahrzeit of the deceased and of the name being mentioned at each Yizkor service.

There are several plaques available so that anyone desiring to purchase one may communicate with the synagogue office.

Bazaar News

It has been most gratifying to watch the packages of merchandise pour into the office. Of course, more packages are needed. Not all of the members of Kehilath Jeshurun have responded! However, we are not discouraged; we are confident our friends will stand by us and send us not only merchandise but the names of concerns from whom we may solicit donations.

Those who have contributed since the last printing are:

Julius Bernstein; J. Kanner; Joseph Adelson & Son; Paul Cohen; S. Liebovitz & Sons; Hund & Cohen; Knickerbocker Leather Co.; Dan Brechner; Wilbocher Leather Co.; Dan Brechner; William Shaland; Bernard Bernstein; Fabric Sales Co.; Reefer-Galler, Inc.; A. Melnikoff; Betty Worth Co.; San-I-Toy; Edward Rattinger.

Cultural Class Postponed

Because of Washington's birthday, the class on Jewish Culture Through The Ages will postpone its next meeting until March 1st. The meeting place will be announced in the next issue of the bulletin.

Young People's League

Dr. Samuel Schmulhausen was most interesting in his lecture on "Marriage and Neurosis" at the meeting of the Young People's League, which was held last Monday evening. Discussion, which always adds so much to the intellectual value of the evening, followed the lecture. Refreshments were served and a good time was had by all.

The next meeting, which will be purely social, will take place on Monday, February 27th. REMEMBER THE DATE, Young Folks, and plan to attend.

Request Granted!

Last week's bulletin containing a request for a piano to be used by the Kindergarten children of the Ramaz Academy was hardly off the press when we learned of the appeal being answered. Through the efforts of Mr. Thomas Bornstein, we received a solid mahogany piano from Miss Bertha Shapiro. We are grateful to Mr. Bornstein for his interest and deeply appreciative to Miss Shapiro for her generosity in donating the piano, a bench and a cabinet containing a great deal of music.

Sisterhood to Act as Hostesses

Kehilath Jeshurun Sisterhood will act as hostesses to the Greater New York Council of the Women's Branch of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America at their Purim meeting, to be held on Tuesday, February 28th, at 2 o'clock.

Sisterhood members are urged to attend. Show your responsibility as a hostess and help make our guests feel at home in our Synagogue.

Parent-Teacher Association Meeting

The next meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Ramaz Academy will be held TUESDAY, February 21st, at 8:30 P.M., in the library of the Synagogue.

Dr. Samuel Gross, well-known pediatrician, will address the meeting on "THE PHYSICAL CARE OF THE SCHOOL CHILD."

Come and discuss the welfare of your child. The experiences of others often helps in the solution of our own problems. Come to this meeting and feel free to talk about those things which are troubling you regarding the health or education of your child. A cordial invitation is extended to members and non-members alike.
