MEMORIAL PLACQUES AND TABLETS TO BE UNVEILED

For the last few years it has become an annual custom in the synagogue to unveil the plaques which have been inscribed during the year on our memorial tablets. This year, in addition, we will unveil several plaques which have been placed upon the special tablet on the rear wall of the synagogue.

A fitting memorial service will be held on Wednesday evening, May 3rd, in the main synagogue. With appropriate ceremonies and in the presence of their relatives and friends, we will on that evening honor those whose names were intimately identified with the life of the congregation.

Official notices will shortly be in the mail and we ask our members and friends to reserve that evening for tribute to those who have passed on.

In the meantime, there are about ten spaces left on the Memorial Tablet. Those who wish to inscribe names of departed ones must make reservations without delay. Plaques ordered within the next few days will also be dedicated at these unveiling ceremonies.

Congratulations

Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun extends sincere congratulations to Harry C. Werner, who will be Bar Mitzvah this Saturday. We trust he and his dear parents will celebrate many happy events for many years to come.

Synagogue Receives Gift

The Men's Club and the Sisterhood of Kehilath Jeshurun were kind enough to donate three dozen beautiful bridge chairs to the synagogue. We are deeply grateful to both organizations for their generosity and thoughtfulness. The synagogue was in dire need of chairs and this addition will help a great deal.

To the Treasurer

The congregation has just learned of the death on erev Pesach of Mr. Jacob Bornstein, brother of our treasurer, Mr. Thomas Bornstein. Inasmuch as the Passover Holiday caused the dispensation of shiva, we take this means of expressing to him our heartfelt condolences and hope that he and his dear ones from now on enjoy uninterrupted happiness.

Condolences

The Congregation extends heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Samuel Baum upon the death of her brother, Mr. Joseph Brown. We fervently pray that she be spared all further sorrow for many years to come.
