Condolences

It is with deep sorrow we learned of the death of Mr. Harris Mayer, beloved father of Mrs. Jacob Perlman. We extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

A New Questionnaire

Let's start the year 1940 with a Bang! Let's see how many of the following questions we can answer which would assure us of a "Clean Slate," so to speak!

- 1—Have I paid my annual dues to the Synagogue?
- 2—Have I fulfilled my Kol Nidre pledge?
- 3—Have I paid my Sisterhood dues?
- 4—Have I joined the newly organized Men's Club and paid my dues?
- 5—Have I paid for the AD I inserted in the Souvenir Journal?
- 6—Have I collected for those ADS I solicited?
- 7—Have I sent a package to the Sisterhood for their Bazaar?
- 8—Have I procured merchandise from my friends for the Bazaar?
- 9—Have I sent a list of names to the office of those people who would gladly contribute a package to the Bazaar?
- 10—Have I sent a contribution to the Benevolent Fund for the Hanukkah candles I received?
- 11—Have I the benefits of the Ramaz Academy clearly in my mind so that I can recommend all eligible children?
- 12—Have I and my family been regular attendants at Sabbath Services?

Check these items faithfully. Figure your percentage. Are you a 100 percent? If not — "Let your conscience be your guide."

Sisterhood Meeting

The next Sisterhood meeting will be held MONDAY, JANUARY 8th, at the home of Mrs. William Goodman, 38 E. 85th Street. This will be an open meeting, at which your friends will be welcome guests. There will be a discussion of a current play, details of which will be found in next week's bulletin. This is merely a reminder to keep the date open.

ABOUT THE BAZAAR

HAVE YOU ANSWERED OUR LETTER? Last week we wrote to you telling you about our BAZAAR and asking you to send in your contribution of merchandise—new, old, damaged, soiled; misfits, samples, seconds, discarded numbers, discontinued lots.

HOW ABOUT IT? Have you sent your package yet? YOU HAVE NOTHING? Oh, but you have! Up there on a shelf is a huge carton full of remnants—over there in that closet is a shelf full of old samples—and in the stock-room there are many corners cluttered with merchandise that just is not saleable for some reason or other.

THEREFORE—get that package ready TODAY! Send it to the Synagogue office. Or, if you prefer, let the office know when to call for it. Our Chairman, MRS. BESSIE GOODMAN, and her group of assistants are always ready to call for merchandise. Just let us know WHEN and WHERE.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the following firms who have already answered our appeal:

Lubell Bros., Mayfair Blouse, Little Folks Knitwear, Universal Brassiere, Harmony Bag Co., Artistic Foundations, Inc., Wrigley Jr. Co., Morris Co., Raybrooke Sportswear Co., Tiny Town Togs, Reefer-Galler, Lever Bros., B. Fischer & Co., Beech-Nut Packing Co., Block-Guggenheim Co., Kirkman's,

Cultural Class News

Mrs. Charles Garfeil, one of our regular cultural class attendants was the very charming hostess at the last meeting. Because of the conflict in World Jewry Rabbi Lookstein was asked to talk on current Jewish news rather than the prescribed lecture. The evening proved an intensely interesting one for the Rabbi enlightened his audience with news and explanation of news not found in the daily English papers. To add to the delight of the lecture, the hostess served delicious refreshments and the guests lingered a long time, informally continuing the discussions of the evening. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Polstein, 12 East 87th Street, Wednesday, January 3rd, promptly at 8:30 P.M. The subject that night will be "The life of Samuel Mohilever."

Men's Club News

Mr. Ira F. Weisman, President of the Men's Club reported that at a very recent meeting of the Executive Board, several new members were enrolled. Mr. Samuel Sacks and Mr. Alvin Austin were appointed members of the Executive Board. Plans for a very interesting meeting to be held TUESDAY, JANUARY 9th, were discussed. The name of the guest speaker and the subject will be announced later.
