Three Bar Mitzvas This Sabbath

Our Synagogue will celebrate a trio of Bar Mitzvas this Saturday. - The congregation extends to EUGENE NIRES, BERNARD BARROW, CHARLES RIEDERS and their dear parents sincere congratulations. It is the earnest hope of the congregation that these newly-entered members of the Jewish fold will be frequent visitors to our synagogue and will find comfort and happiness there.

Knitting Group Completes First Shipment

Members of the Sisterhood should feel very much gratified in the knowledge that a large package of baby blankets and sweaters has already been sent to "Bundles For Britain, Inc." This is the result of the work of a group of conscientious women who meet every Monday afternoon from 1 - 5 o'clock, in the social hall of the synagogue. To witness the rapidity with which they knit—the anxiety to complete a particular article, the joy they evidence in participating in so worthwhile and essential a project, is, to say the least, stimulating. New recruits are seen each week, everyone imbued with a determination to complete as many blankets or sweaters as possible.

The Sisterhood is most appreciative to PYRAMID YARNS and to MAX ROTHMAN for their very generous contribution of wool, in answer to our request.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN WILL PREACH THIS SABBATH at 10:30 A. M. on "ETHICAL WILLS"

Rabbi Lookstein will discuss in his sermon this Sabbath some super-legal aspects of wills: why a will should be written, what to include in it and how it should be done. The Rabbi characterized this subject as one "which Rabbis generally dare not discuss, but should"

Ranya Rim and Gotham Trio to Entertain at Sisterhood Meeting

The Sisterhood has been extremely fortunate in procuring unusually fine talent for the meeting to be held MONDAY, JANUARY 13th, at the home of MRS. SAMUEL ROSEN, 1185 Park Avenue. The meeting will be preceded by a dessert-luncheon, which will be served at one o'clock.

RANYA RIM, renowned singer, and the GOTHAM TRIO, well-known violin, piano and cello ensemble, will entertain at this meeting. It should also be remembered that the induction of all new members, by RABBI JOSEPH H. LOOKSTEIN, will be an important part of the program.

Registration Open for Hebrew School

Now that the Chanukah festivities and celebrations are over, the boys and girls in the Central Jewish Institute Hebrew School are concentrating on a registration campaign for the new term, February 1st. Boys and girls from 4 to 7 years of age are invited to register in the "Circle of Jewish Children" class, meeting every Sunday from 10:30 to 12:30. Boys and girls above 7 are asked to join the regular Talmud Torah classes, meeting three times a week.

Friday evening and Saturday morning services are held for the children in the upper classes.

The office is open for registration daily from 3 to 7 and on Sunday morning from 9 to 1.

Bazaar News

Sisterhood members feel greatly encouraged at the very fine response to the letters requesting merchandise for the annual Bazaar and Rummage Sale. They are most appreciative to the following firms for their prompt and generous contributions: Schnur & Cohan, Inc., Raybrooke Sportswear, Tiny Town Togs, Goldy Novelty Mfg. Co., Mrs. Max Singer.
