Chief Rabbi Herzog

Together with all American Israel Kehilath Jeshurun welcomes Rabbi Dr. Isaac Herzog, Chief Rabbi of Palestine, who arrived here on an important mission. It is pleasant to recall on this occasion that when the predecessor of Rabbi Herzog, Chief Rabbi Cook, visited this country he was the guest of our congregation. Because of the nature of the mission, we could not enjoy this privilege in the case of Rabbi Cook's successor.

Rabbi Lookstein, however, will commemorate the Chief Rabbi's visit by a special sermon entitled, "Chief Rabbi Herzog — An Appraisal of the Uncrowned Head of Religious Jewry." There are many who might recall Rabbi Lookstein's sermon about four years ago on the occasion of Rabbi Herzog's appointment to the Chief Rabbinate of Palestine. We are confident that all should be interested in the Rabbi's appraisal this Saturday.

One Hundred Prayer Books Donated to Synagogue

Our Synagogue has been the recipient of one hundred prayer books, donated by Mrs. S. Herbert Golden, in memory of her beloved husband. This is a truly noble deed—for these books will serve as a memento of an honored gentleman in Israel, for many years to come.
