SPECIAL SERVICES THIS SABBATH

In accordance with the established tradition of our congregation, the services this Sabbath will carry a special festive character. To begin with, we start reading the first portion of the Five Books of Moses. In addition, Rosh Hodesh prayers are recited. And finally, it is the day on which the three Hasanim officiate in their respective capacities.

For all the above reasons we urge you to attend service this Sabbath. We hope that many of the ladies of the Sisterhood will be there if for no other reason than for the fact that the wives of the three Hasanim are very active members of the organization. The Men's Club too should be there for it is their members who are being honored.

As a final inducement, a catered Kiddush will be served and a reception held in the Social Hall of the synagogue at the close of services. Food for the spirit and food and drink for the body—is our promise to you for this coming Sabbath.

New Policy for Bulletin

Because of the shortage of paper supplies and in order to conserve our allotment, it has been decided that our heretofore weekly Bulletin be issued every other week.

We shall be very glad to receive notification of any events of interest to our members and seatholders. Change of addresses are particularly important.

Talmud Class

The Talmud Class, under the leadership of Rabbi Lookstein will resume its sessions Monday evening, November 3rd, at 8:00 o'clock, in the Library of the Synagogue.

Hebrew Classes

Two classes for women, one in Advanced Hebrew and one in Elementary, will soon be organized. Those desirous of joining either group are urged to register in the office.

Sisterhood News

LAST CALL for the Open Meeting to be held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, Monday, October 20th, at 1:30 o'clock. You and your friends are invited as the GUESTS of the Sisterhood.

REMEMBER the Annual Donor Luncheon at the Henry Hudson Hotel, Wednesday, November 12th. Have you sufficient AD blanks for earning your admission? And enough Victrola booklets? Do you need a few membership contracts? These are some of the ways of earning the admission charges for you and your guests. Mrs. George Jacobs, Chairman of the Luncheon, will be pleased to advise with you as to a combination of these ways and means. Call her at REgent 4-7039.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mesdames George Jacobs, J. D. Cohen, Leonard Franks and Edward Bernard and best wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Sisterhood Planning Bazaar

Sometime in December the Sisterhood will conduct its Annual Bazaar and Rummage Sale. In the interim it is essential to collect as much merchandise as possible. Seemingly useless articles of clothing, china, furniture can be turned into cash. The Committee will appreciate any contribution you can give and will be very grateful if you can have it sent to the synagogue office. There is expense entailed in calling for packages so that if it is possible for you to bring them, you will be performing a double Mitzvah.

Sisterhood President Honored

Mrs. Jacob Rudd, our charming and efficient President has been elected Vice-President of the Women's Branch of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America. We of Kehilath Jeshurun know how wise the Women's Branch was in their selection for Mrs. Rudd is a very definite asset in any organization.

Dinner Dance News Contracts Blanks for Souvenir Journal Distributed

The Seventh Annual Dinner Dance will be held this year on Saturday Night, December 13th, in the Italian Gardens of the Ambassador Hotel. A Souvenir Journal will again be issued. Contract blanks have been distributed and members and friends are urged to begin working on these ADS immediately. Do not wait until the last moment to approach your friends and associates. Talk to them now — tell them to reserve DECEMBER 13th, and remind them to assist you in soliciting ads.

Hakofoth Services Acclaimed

The enthusiasm with which the Hakofoth were received this year was most heartening for all those who had a share in arranging them. The flag-draped synagogue was well filled with men, women and children. Processions of the Torah were most impressively conducted. The carefully selected songs printed on a song sheet were melodiously sung by the entire congregation.

And at the climax, in honor of Columbus Day, the rafters rang with the singing of "God Bless America". We promised you in advance a remarkable service and we are confident that we did not disappoint you.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP

The Girl Scout Troop which meets every Wednesday at 3:30 in the social hall of the synagogue, will this year be given a course in First Aid and in planning menus and entertainment for groups.

Last Wednesday a cake sale was held, the proceeds of which will be used to purchase some much-needed equipment: a basket-ball, victrola, and a cabinet to store their supplies.

PARK EAST YOUTH GROUP TO RESUME MEETINGS

The first meeting of the season of the Park East Youth Group will take the form of a Post-Succoth Festival on Wednesday, October 22nd, at 8:30 o'clock in the social hall of the synagogue. There will be dancing, to the tunes of a Band, and refreshments. All young folks are cordially invited to attend.

DO NOT DELAY

If you were kind enough to pledge a contribution in answer to the appeal Kol Nidre Night, do not delay in sending your check. The response thus far has been excellent, but there are still some who have not mailed their checks. There is a moral satisfaction in acting quickly where charity is concerned. We urge those who have not as yet sent in their contribution to do so immediately. May we remind those who were not present that this year the appeal will be divided between the Synagogue, the United Jewish Appeal and the Yeshiva. If you did not pledge any amount on Kol Nidre and care to do so now, your contribution will be gratefully accepted.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN TO SPEAK AT HARTFORD

Rabbi Lookstein has been invited to lecture before an audience of the B'nai B'rith Organization at Hartford, Conn., on Monday, October 20th.

FORETHOUGHT

It is wise to give thought to the choice of a cemetery plot before the emergency arises.

Our Synagogue offers to its members and friends the private plots it owns in the Mt. Carmel and Union Field Cemeteries, at very attractive prices and upon convenient terms of payment.

Do not postpone action on this important matter. Be sure to write TODAY for additional information. Mr. George Jacobs, Chairman of the Cemetery Committee, will be pleased to give you full details without any obligation.
