Synagogue to Sponsor A. R. P. Course

A course in Air Raid Precaution, under the auspices of the congregation, will start Monday, January 19th, at 8 P.M., in the social hall of the synagogue. This course will be open to men and women, citizens and non-citizens. There will be six lectures, held every Monday evening, from 8-10 o'clock. Application for this course must be made not later than Monday, January 12th, in the office of the synagogue.

Service Record Begins

In answer to our request for the names of those people who are giving their services for the defense of our country we have received the following information: Alfred N. and Irving M. Kram, sons of Mr. William Kram, are lieutenants in the armed forces. Alfred is now serving in Panama and Irving is in the office of the Quartermaster General in Washington, D. C. We utter a sincere "Good Luck" to both boys.

Wanted . . . An American Flag

It is quite fitting and proper that the flag of our country be displayed on every public building. Kehilath Jeshurun is eager to have a flag which can be hung and is confident there are many congregants who would like to have a part in the purchase of one. Contributions may be sent to the office of the synagogue.

Rabbi On National Hook-up

"Tapping the Sources of Courage" will be the subject of Rabbi Lookstein's talk over a nation-wide hook-up, this Saturday evening, on station WJZ. The Rabbi will broadcast every Saturday evening during the month of January, from 7-7:30 o'clock, as part of the program called "The Message of Israel."

First Aid Course for Men

A First Aid Course is being organized exclusively for men, under the auspices of the synagogue. Dr. Berthold Casper has very kindly consented to lead this course. Registration should be made as soon as possible, in the office of the synagogue. Notice as to the time and place will be announced in the next issue of this Bulletin.

Our Benevolent Fund

Additional contributions to our benevolent fund have been made by Messrs. Jacob H. Alpert, Max J. Etra, Sam Rosen, Dr. A. D. Kaplan and Paul Lowin.

Chanukah is gone and undoubtedly forgotten. This is to act as a reminder to those who have not as yet responded in return for the candles sent to them.

Sisterhood Reminders

Regular meeting — Monday, January 5th, at 1 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Alfred Kahn, 19 East 88th Street. Bring a package!

First Aid Course — under Sisterhood auspices, to start Wednesday evening, January 7th, in the social hall, at 8:30 o'clock. Enroll now!

Sewing machines are needed before the group meets on January 12th, for the regular Red Cross sewing sessions. Can you lend us yours? We promise to take good care of it!

Bazaar News

Although many people are busy with some form of defense work, we must not, nor dare we, restrict our energies in carrying on local enterprises.

The Sisterhood is ready to launch its Annual Bazaar and Rummage Sale, which they plan to run at the end of January. This will be possible only if they receive the necessary cooperation and response.

Merchandise is needed — loads of it! It need not be new, although that is preferable. It may be damaged, soiled, old; but it should be saleable. Everyone can help in this project — for everyone knows someone in business who will gladly contribute what he can no longer use. Every household contains something useless — bric-a-brac, china, glassware, kitchen utensils, furniture, clothing. Rid your shelves and closets of all those surplus boxes, all those accumulated articles you know you will never utilize, yet are keeping. Send them to the Sisterhood. They will turn all your unwanted merchandise into cash, which will help some deserving child in the Ramaz Academy. Get your friends to contribute some merchandise! Send us the names of people whom we can contact. Mrs. Isadore Schlang, Bazaar Chairman, will gladly arrange to have packages picked up if they cannot be sent directly to the synagogue office.
