RABBI ON VACATION

Rabbi and Mrs. Lookstein are in Atlantic City where they expect to stay until early next week. The Rabbi was finally able to get away for a much needed rest. We hear that in Atlantic City he is visiting Army stations in the area and conferring with the Jewish chaplains there. Apparently he is incapable of a complete divorcement from work.

The Rabbi extends to all our congregants his best wishes for a happy Purim and prays that we may soon commemorate the defeat of the modern Haman.

RAMAZ SCHOOL NEWS

KEHILATH JESHURUN AND RED CROSS WAR FUND

Dear Readers:

This year officials of the Red Cross War Fund did not permit any house of worship to make its appeal until now. Undoubtedly each of you has received a request prior to this one and perhaps have already answered the appeal. As Chairman of this drive for Kehilath Jeshurun and all its affiliates, I beg of you to help maintain the unexcelled reputation to hear

LEO LANIA

speaking on

"EUROPEAN UNDERGROUND"

This world traveler was born in Kharkov, Russia, went to Vienna, Austria and finally settled in Germany. Shortly thereafter he represented Mussolini in some of the most important decisions taken by the Fascists. The reasons and circumstances for this he discloses in his talk. He was caught in occupied France when that country surrendered to the Nazis. After many trials he escaped to Marseilles and made his way to America. His life story is more fantastic than the adventures in the "Arabian Nights." Perhaps when you hear him speak you will get an idea of why he survived.

The Rabbi will open the meeting with a short address.

Collation will be served.
