THE BIBLE CURE FOR PLAGUES

TWENTY NEW MEMBERS TO BE INDUCTED AT ANNUAL MEETING

MEMBERSHIP ANNIVERSARIES WILL BE OBSERVED

The Annual Membership Meeting of the congregation will be held on Thursday evening, April 19th, in the Social Hall. The annual meetings of the last few years have really been gala affairs. There were occasions when the Social Hall could hardly accommodate the attendants.

The meeting this year, we expect, will surpass all previous ones. There are several outstanding features that our members will be delighted with. First we will have the pleasure of inducting twenty new members who have joined our congregational family in the course of the year. The induction address will be delivered by Mr. Samuel S. Schneierson, President of the Jewish Education Committee, and one of the foremost Jews in our community. That in itself is a highlight that no one should miss.

At this meeting, too, we will honor those who are observing important anniversaries of their affiliation with our congregation. One celebrant, Mr. Jacob J. Lubell, will mark the thirtieth anniversary of his membership. Our very esteemed Mr. Herman Goldman and Mr. Abraham Jacobs will celebrate their twenty-fifth membership anniversaries. Mr. Albert Sokolski and Mr. Aaron J. Simon will commemorate twenty years of membership, Mr. Harold I. Freedman and Dr. Isadore Givner ten years.

Dr. Nathan Rosenthal, one of our very distinguished members, will address a greeting to the celebrants on behalf of the congregation.

A buffet will be served after the meeting and the rest of the evening will be given to socializing and fraternizing in our usual congregational manner.

SABBATH ROSH CHODESH

This Saturday is Rosh Chodesh Iyar. There are, of course, special prayers recited on that day. Cantor Victor Gold will present for the first time a special rendition of the Rosh Chodesh prayer, "Ato Yozarto." Rabbi Lookstein's sermon topic will be "The Bible Cure for Plagues."

TO THE MEN'S CLUB

Our heartiest thanks to the Men's Club of the congregation for a generous contribution which was used to purchase holiday prayer books. If during the Passover holidays there were uniform prayer books for all our worshipers, then it was due to the thoughtfulness of the Men's Club.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

THE JEW AND THE SAN FRANCISCO CONFERENCE

Today all eyes are turned to the coming San Francisco conference. The fate of the world will in a large measure be determined there. On the American delegation, there is a woman member, a symbol as it were that women too will help in the fashioning of the world's destiny.

What place will the Jew have at the San Francisco conference? This question will be discussed by Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein at the next meeting of the Sisterhood on Monday, April 23, in the Social Hall. A desert luncheon will be served at one o'clock and the meeting will follow.

No woman ought to miss this opportunity to obtain a better knowledge of the issues that will come before this momentous and historic conference.

WELCOME, NEW MEMBERS

Membership Chairman Cel Silberman announces and welcomes new members, Mrs. Maurice Bergman and Mrs. Theodore R. Herman.

UNITED NATIONAL CLOTHING COLLECTION

Alex Garfein, Chairman of our Old Clothes Committee, reminds us that our synagogue has been designated as an official collection depot for United National Clothing collection (month of April). Please separate your old clothing into individual bundles containing men's, women's and children's apparel, and bring or send to the Synagogue. Every piece of clothing that you can assemble will go towards helping some destitute person on the other side. Thank you.

TALMUD CLASS

The Talmud Class will resume its sessions after the Passover vacation next Monday night at 8:30 in the library of the synagogue.

PERSONALS

Our very distinguished member, Judge Bernard L. Sheintag, will observe a birthday this week and we extend to him our heartiest good wishes for many happy returns and for many fruitful years of public service . . . Belatedly we heard that our President, Max J. Etra, observed a birthday during the Passover holiday. Belatedly, therefore, but very sincerely, we extend to him our warmest wishes . . . Heartiest congratulations to our trustee, Mr. J. D. Cohen and to Mrs. Cohen on the marriage of their youngest daughter, Helene, to Sgt. Henry Rosenblum . . . Mazeltov to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob J. Rosenbloom on the birth of a daughter. May they derive ever increasing joy from Helen Jane . . . Congratulations to our impressario, Mr. Louis J. Singer, on his production "The Glass Menagerie." The Kehilath Jeshurun bulletin join the press of the city in expressing its unrestrained praise of the production . . . The Samuel Fines celebrated their Fortieth Wedding Anniversary this week and we express to them our wishes that they may presently reach their Golden Anniversary and beyond . . . Our warmest birthday greetings to Mr. Henry Astor, Mr. Harry Bachrach, Mr. Alexander Feifer, Mrs. Harry Fischel, Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel and Mrs. Louis W. Yohann . . . Sincere anniversary greetings to the Albert Leveys, the Jacob Rudds, the Eli Goldsteins, the Henry Rafskys, the Harry Etras and to the Henry Astors.

RAMAZ NOTES

The art work of Ramaz children constituted a good part of the exhibition sponsored by the Jewish Education Committee held in Education Hall at the Museum of Natural History last week.

* * *

The children of Ramaz contributed $17.97 for Maos Chitim, the Passover donation for the needy.

Professor Salo Baron

Speak on

"JEWS AND THE POST WAR WORLD"

Professor Baron is one of the outstanding Jewish historians of our day. He is the author of a three volume work on the religious and social history of the Jews. He is editor of the quarterly "Jewish Social Studies" and is president of the Conference on Jewish Relations. The professor is not only a profound scholar but a keen observer of the current scene. His interpretation of events especially as they affect Jewish people is nothing short of masterly.
