Purim In Our Synagogue

Services and Festivities

The holiday of Purim which has always been observed by our congregation in a gay and festive manner will be celebrated this year on Saturday night, March 16th and Sunday, March 17th.

The festival will be ushered in Saturday night at 7 o'clock with the traditional reading of the Megillah in the main synagogue. A special section of seats will be reserved for children who are always the principal guests at this joyous celebration. They will of course, be provided with the usual holiday souvenirs.

At the close of the services, coffee and "hamantaschen" will be served in the Social Hall. Purim goodies will be served to the children in the gymnasium of the Synagogue House.

Sunday Morning Services

On Sunday morning, Purim services will begin at 8:30 followed by the reading of the Megillah. At the conclusion of the service, a community breakfast will be served.

Purim Party for Children

We have arranged a special Purim Party for our children on Sunday morning at 10:30 in the auditorium of the Synagogue House.

The program of entertainment will feature Peter Pan the Magic Man and Norbet's Musical Puppet Show.

There will, of course, be music, songs and refreshments. Bring your children to the synagogue for a most delightful Purim.

Men's Club Purim Celebration

On Tuesday night, March 19th, the Men's Club, acting as host to the Congregation and Sisterhood, will devote its monthly forum to a Purim celebration.

The program will begin promptly at 8:30 with the showing of the latest March of Time film on Palestine. This will be followed by an address on the subject, "American Jewry and Post War Settlement" by the outstanding historian and scholar, Professor Salo Baron of Columbia University.

After the forum a Purim collation will be served in the Social Hall.

"Shalach Monos" Benevolences

May we again remind you that no Purim celebration is complete without the traditional "Shalach Monos" to the poor and needy. Your holiday contribution to our Benevolent Fund will enable us to provide for the needy of our community so that they too may have a happy Purim.
