SEAT-HOLDERS CONTRIBUTE TO DIAMOND JUBILEE FUND

In response to a letter sent out by Rabbi Lookstein to the seat-holders of the congregation, more than one hundred responses came in with contributions to the Diamond Jubilee Fund. The generosity of these non-members is very heart-warming. It is an indication that the worshippers of the congregation have developed an affection and regard for the synagogue.

To those who have not yet responded, we direct our appeal. All those who avail themselves of the facilities of our synagogue would like to see it more beautiful and more impressive. They would love to see the improvements that are planned as soon as possible. They undoubtedly would like to see new facilities added to accommodate the increased activities. The Diamond Jubilee Fund offers them the opportunity to have all these things done.

Please, therefore, do not delay your response to the Rabbi's letter. Send in your contribution as soon as possible and try to be as generous as you possibly can.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE

In accordance with the tradition of our congregation, the annual Thanksgiving Service will be held on Thursday morning, November 28th, at 11 o'clock in the main synagogue. The complete program for the day, as well as the name of the guest speaker will be announced in the forthcoming issue of the Bulletin. Our Thanksgiving service is one of the most impressive of its kind and each year it attracts larger numbers. We know that you will again arrange to be in our synagogue on Thanksgiving Day, together with your family, to celebrate this holiday in a fitting manner.

HAVE YOU ENROLLED IN OUR INSTITUTE FOR JEWISH STUDIES?

We again call your attention to the series of courses in Hebrew, Bible, Jewish History and Yiddish that are being offered by our Institute for Jewish Studies. These adult courses are given in the evenings and sessions are held once a week. This should make it possible for every man and woman to enroll in one or more of these courses. If you have not as yet enrolled, please do so at once. It is not too late. Do not miss this wonderful opportunity for cultural enrichment.

Rabbi Lookstein will preach this Sabbath at 10:45 A.M. on:
"PEACE IN OUR TIME—IS IT POSSIBLE?"
An Armistice Day Sermon

POST-BAR MITZVAH MINYAN WELL ATTENDED

Last Sunday morning, November 3rd, our newly organized Post-Bar Mitzvah Group inaugurated its own Minyan in the chapel of the synagogue. The attendance was very satisfactory and many Bar Mitzvah boys of the afternoon Religious School, as well as of the Ramaz School took part. This service is of particular significance to the boys. It offers them an opportunity to participate in a Minyan at least once a week. It also enables them to learn the order of the morning service and to become familiar with synagogue practices. Again, we invite the sons of our congregants and other post-Bar Mitzvah boys in our neighborhood to join this group and take part in its activities.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lentz whose son Alan will become Bar Mitzvah this Saturday in our synagogue. Alan is a pupil of our afternoon Religious School.

MEMORIAL WINDOWS TO BE DEDICATED DURING JUBILEE YEAR

Some of our generous members decided to utilize the beautiful stained-glass windows of our synagogue for a holy and reverent purpose. They arranged to have these windows dedicated as memorials to departed members of their families. Six such memorials have already been established and additional ones are being contemplated.

We can think of no finer tribute to a parent or to any dear soul than by perpetuating his or her name in the House of God. Memorial windows have for generations been used for just that purpose. All religious denominations regard them as integral parts of their Houses of Worship. They add grace and reverence to synagogue, temple or cathedral.

Those who are interested may communicate with the synagogue office for further information.
