CLASSES IN ADULT INSTITUTE BEGIN MONDAY, OCTOBER 27

Classes in our Institute for Jewish Studies, open to members and friends of Kehilath Jeshurun interested in taking courses in Jewish subjects, will start Monday, October 27th.

Given in the evening, these courses are offered in a variety of subjects including Hebrew—Elementary, Intermediate and Advanced; Yiddish; History; Cantillations; and Hebrew Songs and Melodies. Classes are limited in number, and are under the guidance of experienced teachers, fully qualified by virtue of their training and background to serve an adult clientele.

Registration has been going on all week, and will continue until the first week in November. There is a one dollar registration fee per student.

Interested parties are asked to contact the synagogue office (Sacramento 2-2272) for further details, or return the enclosed Registration Form. Announcement of days and hours will be sent directly to those who register, as soon as the application is received.

THE PARENTS ROLE IN BRINGING UP THE CHILD AS A JEW

The Ramaz Parents Council is sponsoring a series of three lectures on the general theme: THE ROLE OF THE PARENTS IN BRINGING UP THE CHILD AS A JEW. The lectures will be delivered by Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein at three Parents Council meetings. The first of these meetings will be held in the auditorium of the Synagogue House next Tuesday evening, October 28. The subject that night will be: "How to Further the Cultural Interests of the Child."

The second lecture on the subject: "How to Further the Observance of Jewish Religious Life," will be delivered on December 10; the third in the series on the subject: "How to Integrate the Child in the Larger Community of Israel," will be delivered on February 10.

An explanatory pamphlet is in print describing in fuller detail this important series and setting forth also the other particulars of the program of the Ramaz Parents Council

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Ushering in a season of activity which promises to be unequalled, the Sisterhood held its first Open Meeting last Monday, at the Beekman Hotel. Taking the form of a reception to the wives of new members of the congregation, the affair was attended by a large number of guests, including many of the wives in whose honor the reception was tendered, and was highlighted by an address by Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein, the guest speaker.

Rabbi Lookstein's topic was "Palestine Before the United Nations—its Prospects and Perils," and his talk provided a most interesting and enjoyable interlude to those present. While the outlook is hopeful, said the Rabbi, Palestine is not yet ours, and much remains to be accomplished before it is a Jewish land. The major danger, which can indeed be lethal to Jewish aspirations, is over-optimism, and we should all guide our thinking and actions accordingly.

Those present at this Meeting also heard a representative of Federation present a brief but enlightening talk on the work of Federation and the outlook for the coming year. In keeping with Sisterhood participation in this endeavor, incidentally, it was announced that Mrs. Samuel Rosen would head the Special Gifts Committee of Federation.

Annual Luncheon—

The Annual Luncheon of the Sisterhood has been arranged for December 16th in the Wedgwood Room of the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria. The committee in charge of this affair is headed by Mrs. Jacob Rudd and Co-chairman Mrs. Harry S. Bonat. Tickets to the Luncheon are in the mails. We are confident that all the women of the Sisterhood will participate in this gala event and make it the success it deserves to be.

PARENTS' ROLE

this year. This pamphlet will shortly be in the mails.

Parents of Ramaz children in the elementary as well as in the high school departments, are cordially invited to these meetings. The experience of the Rabbi as Educator and Teacher of Religion should be the best assurance that these lectures will be instructive, useful and inspiring.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Happy Birthday—

We extend our Happy Birthday greetings to our members listed below who celebrate their birthdays this week: Dr. Elmer Alpert, Mrs. Alfred S. Casner, Jacob D. Cohen, Max Scheidt and Mrs. Abris Silberman.

Anniversaries—

Felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Adolf J. Elkeles and to Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kommel, on their wedding anniversaries this week. May we rejoice with you on your Golden Wedding anniversaries.

As in the past, this affair will be tied in with the publication of the synagogue Year Book. Members may earn a ticket to the Luncheon by procuring ads for the publication. Ad blanks may be had by contacting Mrs. Harry S. Bonat.

Happy Day Fund—

It is truly inspiring to note how cooperative our members are in providing a Happy Day for some less fortunate persons. Among recent contributions to this Fund were Mrs. Fannie Bernard; Mrs. George Jacobs; Mrs. Isadore Schlang, in honor of her grandchild; and Mrs. Abraham Weinberg. Many thanks for your generosity, and may you always be in a position to help those in need of help.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

The next Forum Meeting of the Men's Club will be held on Tuesday, November 18th, at 8:30 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Synagogue House. This meeting will take the form of a Symposium on a topic of major current interest, with our own members participating. The topic and names of the participants will be announced in a subsequent issue of the Bulletin.

In past years, the Men's Club has sponsored the Sunday morning Father and Son Morning Minyan and Breakfast, an activity that was highly successful and very well received. Unfortunately, this activity has not as yet been re-instituted for this year, owing to the lack of adequate facilities occasioned by the alteration now going on in our buildings. We know our members look forward to the resumption of the Minyan and Breakfast, and we assure them that the project will continue as soon as alteration conditions permit. We hope you will bear with us.

At the last meeting of the Men's Club, held Tuesday, October 14th, it was announced that our Chanukah party, sponsored jointly by the Men's Club and Sisterhood will be held Sunday night, December 14th. Details of the affair are now being worked out, but we make this advance announcement of the date to enable you to mark it off on your calendar and plan to be with us on that evening. We know it will be a most enjoyable party.

Welcome—

We welcome as a new member of the Men's Club, George V. Delson, and we extend to Mr. Delson our wishes for a long and happy stay with us.

Welfare Fund

The Men's Club is grateful to Messrs. Joseph E. Adler, Abbott Bernard and Louis W. Yohann for their generous contributions to the Welfare Fund.

RAMAZ NOTES

The pupils of Ramaz School are embarking on a program of extra-curricular activities which promises to benefit the general student body, worthy causes, and themselves as well.

On Monday, October 13th, Grade 4 presented a very enlightening play on Columbus. A highlight of the assembly program in which this play was presented, was the description and relation of the part the Jews played during the momentous voyage of America's discoverer.

A very successful Social Service drive has just been completed for the United Jewish Appeal. Beginning with this week, our pupils will donate their Social Service money to the Greater New York Fund.

Pupils of Grades 7 and 8 are making plans to visit the Palestine Exhibit at the Museum of Science and Industry in Radio City.

The Ramaz Chorus, which has already established a fine reputation, is now being organized for the coming year. A special Chanukah program is being arranged by the chorus. The names of the officers of the Chorus are: President, Naomi Sacks, grade 8; Vice-President, Ruth Jacobs, grade 7; Secretaries, Vivian Jacobson, grade 7, and Franklin Holzer, grade 5.

The Ramaz Alumni Society will hold its opening meeting of the new school year on Saturday, November 15th, at 7:30 p.m. Members are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

The G. O. election campaign assembly will be held on Friday, October 31st at 10:00 a.m. This campaign, culminating a period of electioneering in which our students showed their prowess as politicians and diplomats, is open to parents who wish to attend.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NOTES

The afternoon Religious School, now in full swing, is making marked progress in both the scholastic and extra-curricular directions. The classes are meeting on regular schedule, including Sundays, and are getting into the term's work with a conscientiousness and zeal that presages a highly successful year.

The Junior Congregation resumed its weekly Sabbath service this past Saturday, with a large number of the children attending. The service was under the supervision of Mr. Leon Kosofsky, a member of the Religious School staff, and heard Lothar Frank, a pupil in the graduating class of the school, officiate as Cantor. Haskel Lookstein, a student in the Ramaz High School, read the weekly portion in the Torah. The Junior Congregation meets at 10:00 a.m. each Saturday in Room 202 of the Synagogue House.
