The next Open Meeting of the Sisterhood will take place Monday, December 8th at 1:30 p.m. in the Mandarin Room of the Savoy-Plaza, 58th Street and Fifth Avenue.

As the Guest Speaker for the afternoon, we have invited Gertrude Lytle Friedman, who will discuss current books and plays. Mrs. Friedman, a gifted speaker and keen analyst of the theatre and general literature, has fascinated audiences here and abroad with her remarks. It was our pleasure to have Mrs. Friedman speak at one of our open meetings of last year, and she was acclaimed by all who attended.

The hostesses for this afternoon are Mmes. Samuel A. Marcus, Jacob Rudd and Louis W. Yohann, who have made arrangements to render this Open Meeting a most interesting occasion. We extend a cordial invitation to our members and friends to be with us on the 8th.

WITHIN OUR FAMILYBirthdays—

Our heartiest Birthday Greetings are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Gottesman and to Seppy I. Silberman, who celebrate their birthdays this week.

Anniversaries—

We congratulate the following members who celebrate wedding anniversaries this week: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bornstein, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schimel, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Weiss. To all we express our wish for many more happy years together.

Congratulations—

Heartiest felicitations to Dr. and Mrs. Myron M. Bogdonoff on the occasion of the appointment of their son, Morton, to internship at New York Hospital.

We are happy to learn that Elliott Messing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Messing, has fully recovered from the recent injury sustained while playing football for his Alma Mater.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NOTES

The children in the upper grades of the Afternoon Religious School attended a showing of the Palestinian motion-picture "My Father's House" last week. Escorted by their teachers, the children enjoyed this first full-length picture to emanate from Palestine. Plans are now being formulated to take the children to other points of Jewish interest in the city, to enable them to experience at first hand what they are taught in their classrooms.

In conjunction with the current campaign of the Jewish National Fund, the pupils of the Religious School are serving as volunteers in raising funds for this worthy endeavor. We expect that the results this year will surpass those of previous years; the children, too, realize that the need this year surpasses that of previous years.

The Dramatic Club is rounding out its rehearsals for the Chanukah Play, to be presented on Sunday, December 14th. The play to be presented is entitled "Into the Frying Pan," and is an operetta which includes many popular Gilbert-and-Sullivan numbers.

RAMAZ NOTESThanks, Form I—

High School Form I is to be congratulated on its excellent performance at the Armistice Day Assembly. The play, "Things to Remember," an adaptation from Norman Corwin's play, was under the direction of Mr. Irving Astrachan.

Social Service—

Social Service contributions are now being donated to the Jewish National Fund. In connection with the Fund drive now going on, the school is accepting orders beginning December 5th for trees to be planted in Palestine. The cost for a tree is $1.50.

Random Items—

The annual G. O. Ping Pong Contest is now in progress. The name of the school champion will be announced as soon as the tournament is completed.

In keeping with their part in the life of the community, the children of Grade 2 visited the Fire House on East 85th Street last week. Additional visits to points of community interest are being planned.
