FORUM-TEA DISCUSSION GROUP

THIS SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Last Saturday, Rabbi Lookstein was to have delivered the last in his series of addresses on "Previewing the Jewish State." In fairness to those who have been coming consistently during the series, the Rabbi felt that the concluding address ought to be postponed, even though a large attendance did turn out last Saturday. For the same reason, the Forum-Tea was called off.

This Saturday, therefore, the Rabbi will speak on "The Jewish State and Jewry Outside of Palestine." Once again we urge our congregants not to miss this important sermon. All of us are eager to obtain adequate answers to some of the questions that have arisen in many minds. What will be the relation of American Jewish citizens to the Jewish state? In

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Neediest Cases Committee Meeting

The most recent activity undertaken by our Sisterhood, the Neediest Cases project, is on its way toward becoming a most successful undertaking. The Sisterhood has indeed taken this worthy endeavor to heart and is putting every effort behind making it a noteworthy and outstanding activity.

The proceeds of the Annual Donor Luncheon held two weeks ago, were earmarked for this project; the progress being made by the Neediest Cases Committee will undoubtedly assure the success of the venture.

An important meeting of the Neediest Cases Committee together with the Officers of the Sisterhood will take place Thursday, January 8th, at 11:00 a.m. at the home of the president of the Sisterhood, Mrs. Alexander Kommel, 25 East 86th Street. Members of the Committee and Officers of the Sisterhood are urged to attend.

Executive Committee Meets January 12th—

The Executive Committee of the Sisterhood will hold an important meeting on Monday, January 12th at 1:05 p.m. in the Domestic Science Room. All members of this Committee are asked to be present, as a number of urgent matters will be discussed and decided upon.

Next Open Meeting on January 19th—

The next Open Meeting of the Sisterhood will take place Monday, January 19th at the home of Mrs. Nathan B. Kogan, 1185 Park Avenue. An interesting program has been arranged, details of which will be announced in the next issues of the Bulletin. However, members are asked to set the date aside and plan to spend an enjoyable afternoon at this Open Meeting.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Birth—

A hearty Mazel Tov to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kohn on the arrival of a brand new grandson. To the parents and entire family go our best wishes that he grow up a pride to his family and a credit to his nation.

Birthdays—

We extend Happy Birthday greetings to the following members who celebrate their birthdays this week: Mrs. Myron M. Bogdonoff, Mrs. Frank Goodman, Mrs. David Joseph and Mrs. Morton Kamerman.

Anniversaries—

Our sincerest felicitations are extended to the following members on the wedding anniversaries to be celebrated this week: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob I. Goodstein, Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Gruen and Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Topkis. May we celebrate your Golden Wedding Anniversaries with you.

Marriage—

Hearty Mazel Tov to Dr. and Mrs. Nathan Rosenthal on the marriage of their daughter, Ann to Dr. Stanley L. Lee. To the newly-weds go our best wishes for many joyous years together.

Happy Vacation—

Our President, Max J. Etra, is leaving for Miami for the winter, along with his mother, Mrs. Aaron Etra. We wish them both a pleasant journey, a happy stay and a safe return.

Similar good wishes go to Hyman I. Bucher who is now vacationing in Florida.

Speedy Recovery—

We are happy to learn that Miss Minna Feinberg is recuperating and we wish her a speedy and complete return to good health and activity.

1947 YEARBOOK COMMITTEE APPOINTED

Mr. Max J. Etra, President of the congregation, announced the appointment of the following members to the 1947 Yearbook Committee. They will serve under the chairmanship of Elliott W. Siegel and other officers of the committee yet to be named. The list of the appointees follows:

Henry Astor, Alvin Austin, Murray Beckenstein, Thomas Bornstein, Jerry Coan, Julius Charnow, Max Cooper, Maurice Finkelstein, William B. Fischberg, Max Fisher, Alexander Garfein, Benjamin Gottfried, Alexander Gross, Benjamin Jacoby, David Joseph, Martin Klein, Louis Lipschutz, Harry Lowenthal, Harry Metzger, Frederick Margareten, Aaron H. Onish, Jules Podell, Murray M. Rosenberg, Aaron J. Simon, Isidore Silver, Hyman Weiss, Abraham R. Winer and Louis W. Yohann.

The quota set for income from advertisements, compliments and greetings for the 1947 Yearbook is $36,000, just double of last year's goal. Early reports from our veteran ad-getters indicate that we may even go beyond the quota. The Yearbook Committee will shortly meet to decide upon the plans as well as on the literary character of the volume.

FORUM-TEA DISCUSSION GROUP THIS SATURDAY AFTERNOON

what ways will the Jewish state affect our status, our religious and cultural life? What will be the nature of our service to that state? These and many other questions will be dealt with by the Rabbi in this Saturday's address.

In the afternoon, a Forum-Tea will be held in the auditorium. Mincha Services will take place at 4 p.m. and then tea will be served and a discussion will follow on the four addresses delivered by the Rabbi. The Forum-Tea will afford an opportunity to those who have given serious thought to the entire problem of the Jewish state to give their reactions
