JEWRY DUTY CALL WINS APPROVAL

Complimentary sentiments were heard all around after the Bulletin carried the announcement of Jewry Duty. The idea was warmly received. Congregants are delighted with the opportunity to attend the daily services two weeks during the year as a means of preserving a sacred religious institution. Without further solicitation members volunteered to be assigned to this two week service.

Starting with Monday morning, March 1st, the first group of five members will begin to attend the two week session of daily services. Those in that contingent are: Benjamin D. Gold, George Jacobs, Saul J. Lance, Jacob J. Rosenblum and Aaron J. Simon.

RAMAZ AWARDED REGENTS CHARTER

The Ramaz School heard the happy tidings this week that the Board of Regents of the State of New York granted it a complete charter authorizing it to conduct a full twelve year school beginning with kindergarten and going through all the high school grades.

The school up to now, in accordance with procedures in such matters, was operating under a provisional charter which was issued in 1942. This is now replaced by the full and complete charter just granted.

A representative of the State Department of Education visited the institution several weeks ago, observed the instruction and examined all of

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Executive Board—

The Sisterhood Executive Board will next meet on Monday, March 1st, at 1:15 p.m. in room 202 of the Synagogue House. It is expected that all members of the Board will attend this meeting.

Open Meeting on Monday, March 8th—

The next Open Meeting of the Sisterhood will take place on Monday, March 8th, at the home of Mrs. Aaron H. Onish, 1016 Fifth Avenue. An interesting program has been arranged, and we are certain that our members will enjoy a most pleasant afternoon. We look forward to seeing our members and friends again.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Birthdays—

We extend our heartiest birthday wishes to the following members who celebrate their birthdays this week: Irving Angel, Leon Gronowitz and Mrs. Alfred Kahn.

Honors—

Our heartiest congratulations to our esteemed member, Nathan B. Kogan, upon his election as Treasurer of the National Lawyers Guild at the conference of that organization held in Chicago. The organization consists of some of the outstanding progressive lawyers throughout the country. Robert W. Kenny is the President and Bartley C. Crum is the Vice-President. We are happy to see a Kehilath Jeshurunite in such excellent company.

Good luck, Nat!

CONDOLENCE

It is with deep sorrow that we record the passing of the beloved mother of Dr. Jacob L. Rothstein, and we extend to him and his family our hope that they be spared further grief for many years to come.

PURIM COMMITTEE MEETS

The joint committee of the Sisterhood and Men's Club, in charge of the arrangements for the annual Purim Party, met Wednesday evening to lay plans for this year's affair.

Under the co-chairmanship of Ira Weisman and Mrs. Alexander Kommel, the committee agreed on the type of affair and program—details of which will be announced in subsequent issues of the Bulletin—and unanimously felt that the affair this year would measure up to the standard set by previous parties of similar nature.

The committee urges all members and friends of Kehilath Jeshurun to set Sunday evening, March 28th, aside, and plan to be with us at the Purim Party. A most enjoyable evening is assured.

The following have been appointed to the joint committee: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Adler, Hyman Bucher, Harry Etra, Misses Mildred and Minna Feinberg, Alex Garfein, Mrs. Emanuel Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs, Abe Kirshon, Alexander Kommel, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Leifert, Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein, Mrs. Aaron Onish, Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Wallach.

ATTENTION, TWIXTEENERS

The first meeting of the newly-organized Twixteeners group, directed by Samuel Goodside, will take place Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the Auditorium of the Synagogue House.

Rabbi Lookstein will discuss "Gentleman's Agreement", and we know you will enjoy both his talk and the club's program of activities.

the affairs of the school. He was greatly impressed by what he saw and spoke in praise of the nature of the institution, the calibre of the instruction, the composition of the student body, and the excellent condition of the present building and the one recently acquired.

Thus Ramaz has reached another milestone. It is appropriate on this occasion for Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun to lift its head in pride for having fathered this unique school and having continued to sponsor it and sustain it through the years. Congratulations to the school administration, to its teaching staff, to the parents who are fortunate to have their children in the school, and to all the many friends and well-wishers of the institution.
