SISTERHOOD NEWS

New Members —

We are happy to welcome the following new members, and we wish them a long, active and happy stay with us: Mrs. Harry W. Baumgarten, Mrs. Herman Greenberg, Mrs. Alexander Gross, Mrs. Isaac Okun, Mrs. Joseph Schlang, Miss Vera Sundelson and Mrs. David Warshavsky.

First Meeting Well Received —

The first meeting of the season, which was held in the Social Hall this past Monday afternoon, was unusually well attended and well received. The meeting, a Dessert Luncheon, also attracted many of the wives of the new members of the congregation, who were the guests of the Sisterhood that afternoon.

Among the items on the agenda was an unscheduled talk by Rabbi Lookstein, who spoke briefly on the responsibilities of Sisterhood members, individually and collectively toward the American Jewish community and toward Israel. As if to substantiate the Rabbi's words, a message was heard from Mrs. Sidney Bachrach, of Federation, who spoke of the work of that organization, its needs and the problems it faces.

County Fair Set for November 13th —

The notice that appears on the first page of this Bulletin should give our readers an idea of what the Sisterhood has planned for Sunday evening, November 13th. Arrangements for this affair, however, are so detailed, that a full appreciation of this "Evening of Fun" can be had only by attending.

Mrs. Samuel A. Marcus, Chairman of the Fair, and Mrs. Nathan B. Kogan, Co-Chairman, number among their plans a complete redecoration job of the Social Hall, so that even the physical make-up of the "Fair grounds" will conform with the spirit of the evening.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

New Member —

A hearty welcome is extended to Mr. Frederick M. Beck, whose membership application was received last week.

Congratulations —

A hearty Mazel Tov to Mrs. Louis Robbins who recently became the great-grandmother of a baby girl.

Birthdays —

Happy Birthday wishes to Secretary A. Milton Brown, Mrs. Gedeon Heller, Mrs. Jack A. Kaplan, Mrs. Paul Lehman, and Benedict I. Lubell.

Bar Mitzvahs —

Congratulations to Walter Berkowitz, a pupil at Ramaz, and to Jonathan Perlow, attending our religious School, on their Bar Mitzvah this Saturday.

Anniversaries —

Greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph J. Elkeles and to Mr. and Mrs. Hyman J. Messeloff who celebrate wedding anniversaries this week.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

The Synagogue office has received numerous calls for the new address of Cantor Hyman Gertler. We are happy to furnish this information for the benefit of our members. Cantor and Mrs. Hyman Gertler may be reached at 155 East 93rd Street, ATwater 9-7679.

This is one function to which husbands and men friends are also cordially invited. This departure from Sisterhood custom gives another indication that fun is in store for everyone — men and ladies alike. Food and drinks will be dispensed at cost price.

So gather ye 'round, everybody! An evening of fun and hilarity is in store for you — Sunday evening, November 13th.

SAM LEVENSON TO ENTERTAIN AT MEN'S CLUB DINNER

Hyman I. Bucher, Chairman of the Tenth Anniversary Dinner Committee, has announced the engagement of Sam Levenson, well known young Jewish humorist, to provide the entertainment for the affair, to be held Tuesday evening, November 15th. The popularity of Mr. Levenson has reached such proportions, that it was only through great effort on the part of Mr. Bucher and members of his committee that we were successful in procuring the laugh-provoking services of this noted artist.

The dinner, our readers will recall, will mark the tenth anniversary of the re-organization of our Men's Club. It is being tendered in honor of its incumbent president, who has served as the group's president for the past ten years, Ira F. Weisman. It is noteworthy to point out that Sam

Levenson's high regard and feeling of close friendship for Mr. Weisman prompted his decision to cancel a previous engagement in order to be with us on the 15th.

Members Urged to Make Reservations —

Members of the Men's Club, as well as members of the Congregation, are urged to place their reservations NOW. Subscription has been set at $10.00 per cover, which will include hors d'oeuvres, drinks and, of course, a full-course dinner. You can make the work of the Dinner Committee easier and at the same time assure yourself of an evening of enjoyment and good fellowship, by calling the Synagogue office (SAcramento 2-0800) and placing your reservations.

RAMAZ PARENTS COUNCIL SPONSORS THEATRE PARTY

The Parents Council of Ramaz School has concluded arrangements for a Theatre Party to be held Tuesday evening, December 13th, 1949, at the Empire Theatre, it was announced last week by Mrs. Saul Schwartz, Council president. While the complete committee is at present in formation, Mrs. Schwartz has named Mr. Milton Lukashok as chairman of the affair and Moses Torczyner as co-chairman.

The name of the play to be shown that evening is "The Closing Door", a psychological drama starring Alexander Knox. The play is scheduled to open in New York about the beginning of December.

Ramaz parents and other members of the Kehilath Jeshurun family are urged to set the date aside and plan to attend. The Parents Council has taken the entire orchestra and mezzanine sections, as well as the first few rows of the balcony. A call to the Ramaz School office (SAcramento 2-2272) will assure choice seats.

SAMUEL GRAND SPEAKS AT PARENTS' CLUB MEETING

In spite of the inclement weather, a large attendance — among them, we were happy to note, quite a number of new parents — was on hand Tuesday evening at the first Open Meeting of the Parent's Club.

The guest speaker at the meeting was Mr. Samuel Grand, district consultant of the Jewish Education Committee, who spoke on "What Shall I Say to my Child". In a stimulating talk, delivered in the most novel manner, Mr. Grand posed certain questions relevant to the relationship of the Hebrew school and the home, and then asked his audience for their personal reactions and solutions.

Rabbi Lookstein followed the speaker with brief remarks, elaborating on some of the questions raised by Mr. Grand. Mr. Myer Appleman, Principal of the Religious School, reported on the progress of the school and introduced the members of the faculty to the parents present.
