GALA YOUTH SABBATH WILL BE CELEBRATED IN SYNAGOGUE Home Coming Collegiates Special Guests

The college men and women of Kehilath Jeshurun who are home for the winter vacation will be the guests at a special service that will be held in our synagogue this Saturday morning.

The young men will receive Torah honors to the extent that the weekly portion will permit. The young ladies will be remembered with floral corsages in honor of the occasion. A special buffet kiddush will be served in the Social Hall at the close of services with the Men's Club and Sisterhood acting as hosts.

Young People to Officiate —

Haskel Lookstein, a rabbinic student at Yeshiva College, will act as Cantor for the Musaf Service. Franklin Holzer, a Junior at Ramaz High School will chant the Shacharith Service. The weekly portion of the Torah will be read by the following: George Gruen and Ari Ickovic, both Juniors at Columbia College; and Morton Schatzman, a Senior at Ramaz.

Those who have seen these young men grow up in our midst and who have on occasion heard them read, especially the Purim Megillah, know that they may expect an expert and intelligent rendition of the Scriptural portion.

Panel Discussion After Services —

At the close of services in the Main Synagogue, the congregation will proceed to the Auditorium of the Synagogue House to listen to a panel of three collegiates who will speak on the subject: "A Jew at College — Problems and Opportunities." Frederick Zuckerman, a medical student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Frances Holzer, a Senior at Oberlin College who has but recently been informed of her admission to the Long Island University Medical School, and Ida Westerman, a Senior at Hunter College who is preparing for a teaching career will be the panelists.

These three young people were brought up in Kehilath Jeshurun from their earliest childhood. They have made their mark at college and have won scholastic honors. It would prove enlightening to hear their impressions gained through experience as to what a young Jew or Jewess may encounter on an American college campus.

Congregation Urged to Attend —

This is an unusual Sabbath. Parents plan all forms of recreation and entertainment for their children returning from school. Why not also provide religious recreation, so necessary for young people who are away from home a good part of the year.

It is therefore extremely desirable for all parents whether they have children at college or not to be in synagogue this Saturday. Their presence

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

Children and Parents To Attend Play —

Our afternoon Religious School has made arrangements to attend a play produced by the Jewish Education Committee, on Sunday afternoon, February 7, at 2:30 p.m.

Although this affair is sponsored by the Afternoon School we extend an invitation to all the children and parents among our friends to join with us. The play, "To Wake The King", is a dramatization of a beautiful legend about King David. It appeals to adults as well as children, and marks another successful dramatic venture by the Jewish Education Committee.

The cost of tickets is very nominal. The price is $.50 for children, and $1.00 for adults. Since the demand is much greater than the number of seats available, reservations must be made well in advance.

We urge all our members and friends to make this a family affair by coming with their children and by making their reservations as soon as possible with the Synagogue office.

Classes In The Morning —

During this coming week of Public School vacation, Religious School classes will be held in the morning from 10 to 12 o'clock on Monday and Tuesday, December 28 and 29.

Visit To The Jewish Museum —

On Tuesday and Wednesday, December 30 and 31, the Religious School students will meet at the Synagogue at 2:30 P.M. and then proceed to the Jewish Museum where they will be treated to a guided tour.

CONDOLENCE

We record with sorrow the passing of Sarah Rosenbluth, mother of our devoted member, Mr. J. William Rosenbluth. We extend our heartfelt sympathies to Mr. Rosenbluth and to the other members of the bereaved family. May the Almighty spare them further grief for many years to come.

JUNIOR CONGREGATION FORMS TRAINING GROUP

A plan is now underway whereby selected members of the Jr. Congregation will be invited to attend a special group that will prepare them to be Jr. Congregation cantors and leaders, it was announced by Mr. Manfred Rechtschaffen, director. Any boy or girl who attends the service is eligible.

The services are completely run now by the members and their elected officers. The officers this month are: Toby Holzer and Martha Neuman, president and vice-president of the girls, and Ronnie Etra, Benjamin Brown and Nathan Jablon, president, vice-president and gabbai for the boys.

Every week one member renders a beautiful sermonette on the Sedrah. On Shabbas Mikez we heard from Ronnie Etra, Shabbas Vayigash, Naomi Lebowitz and last week, Shabbas Vayehi, George Baumgarten. Next week, Shabbas Shemoth, we will hear from Susan Gittelsohn. The Jr. Congregation Golden Award Club welcomes these new members.

For the next two weeks only there will be a special treat. Anyone who brings a new person to services will receive a very shiny reward. Those who attend services receive each time a tag with a number on it. At the end of the year gifts and prizes are given according to the number of tags possessed. It is still not too late to begin.

The Jr. Congregation cordially invites all boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 13 to join in its weekly Sabbath Service.

HOMECOMING SABBATH

will serve not alone as an example of synagogue attendance but as an encouragement to the youth of the congregation. Kehilath Jeshurun offers all an opportunity to spend an inspirational Sabbath. Come and take advantage of it. A hearty welcome is extended to all our congregants and to their friends. •
