Junior Members Saluted; New Members and Anniversarian Feted

The 86th Annual Membership Meeting of the Congregation held Tuesday evening, May 6th, in the Auditorium of the Synagogue House witnessed the election of Mr. Max J. Etra to his twentieth term as president of Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun. Mr. A. Philip Goldsmith was elected vice-president, Mr. Samuel A. Marcus, treasurer and Mr. Joseph Roth, secretary.

The meeting which filled the Auditorium of the Synagogue House was highlighted by a feeling of good fellowship and sociability and was considered to be one of the finest of its kind in many a year.

Following the singing of the National Anthem led by Cantor Sherwood Plitnick and the invocation given by Rabbi Albert Hollander, Mr. Saul J. Lance, chairman of the membership committee presented the new members for official induction. The congregation is happy to welcome these new members into the Kehilath Jeshurun family. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Amin, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Binstock, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Davidowitz, Jacob Davidowitz, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Horwitz, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. David Morganstern, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Milton S. Nathanson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rem, David Rosen, Mrs. Tillie F. Shapiro, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sigall, Mr. and Mrs. David Spiegel, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wald, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Witkin and Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Zuckerman.

Dr. Edelman Cited —

A highlight of the Meeting was the presentation of a scroll to Dr. Leo Edelman upon his celebration of twenty years of affiliation with the congregation. In presenting Dr. Edelman, Mr. Joseph Roth, secretary of the congregation, said, "I have the honor to present Dr. Leo Edelman, a dedicated physician, a skilled surgeon, an exemplary gentleman and a splendid and devoted son of Kehilath Jeshurun."

Mr. Etra then read his annual report. In it he noted with great pride the accomplishments of the year as reflected in the reports of the various committees which were printed and distributed to those present.

Retiring Trustees Lauded —

Tribute was paid to three retiring trustees of the Congregation. Mr. Etra lauded the efforts and devotion of Messrs. George Jacobs, Saul J. Lance and Abraham R. Winer, who over the period of the last twenty years had given of their time, of their substance and of themselves to the growth of Kehilath Jeshurun. A thirteen volume set of the Soncino Bible was presented to each of them as a token of appreciation.

A new feature of the Annual Meeting which was received with much pleasure was the salute to Junior Members of the Congregation. Rabbi Lookstein in recognizing the Junior Members said that too frequently we do not pay enough attention to those who will be the future leaders of the congregation, and in saluting them he wished to convey to them the Congregation's desire for their continued affiliation and interest.

RAMAZ SENIOR ATTAINS COVETED SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Rhoda Kreinen, a Ramaz High School senior student, has won the Grolier-Americana Teacher Education Scholarship sponsored by the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools. As one of 1,097,000 participants in the competition, Rhoda was one of 49 scholarship winners. In so doing she ranks in the 99.97 percentile, or only 3/10 of one percent of those who vied for scholarships were brighter than she.

The $500 award was based on scores received in a general aptitude test and the National Merit Scholarship Corporation exam, total school rating, school activity, service record and need.

Miss Kreinen's mother is Dr. Fannie Kreinen, music teacher at the Ramaz Schools.

We are happy and proud of her achievement.

FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION

We would like you to consider a matter that is often called "touchy". For various reasons many people shy away from it. And yet it is one of the necessities of life that are best taken care of before tragedy strikes. We are referring, of course, to the arranging for one's cemetery needs.

Why a Family Plot?

—It is in keeping with the Jewish tradition, a tradition that originated with our first Patriarch, Abraham, to provide a common burial ground for one's family. The first purchase of property of which there is a Biblical record is associated with a family plot.

—There is gratification in meeting with one's kin in life; there is consolation to be found at the ancestral resting place where one may visit and perform his devotions in reverence to all who passed on before him.

...The acquisition of a family plot is economically more practical than the purchase of individual graves.

Why on Kehilath Jeshurun Grounds?

—The final resting place is a religious sanctuary. When located on the grounds of an old and established congregation such as Kehilath Jeshurun it will be maintained with dignity and cared for with tenderness.

—Sordid commercialism, unesthetic environment, indelicate practices should never be associated with a Bet Olam, the place of eternal rest. Kehilath Jeshurun with a record of eight decades of spiritual ministration can be relied upon for good taste, propriety and integrity.

Our New Cemetery —

A beautiful, completely modern Jewish cemetery, Beth El is only seventeen minutes from the George Washington Bridge and easily accessible by automobile and bus.

—Beth El rolls gently over land that is high and dry; that is uniformly graded to minimize the hazards of inclement weather and that is esthetically landscaped to be pleasing to the eye.
