

PARK EAST RELIGIOUS SCHOOL GRADUATES TEN

Students Gain Recognition in Contest

A SPECIAL MESSAGE

With this issue we suspend publication of the weekly bulletin for the year. This final issue covers the next two weeks. For the convenience of our members we will publish a bi-weekly summer edition during July and August.

While many of our congregants will depart for summer vacations, a large number will remain with us for all, or part of, the summer season. Daily and Sabbath services will be held as usual during this period.

Beginning with Saturday, July 2, Sabbath services will be held in our air-conditioned auditorium, while the main synagogue is being painted. Kiddush will be served as usual after every Sabbath service. Daily services will, of course, be held in the air-conditioned chapel.

Throughout the summer one of our rabbis will always be on hand and the Ethics of the Fathers class will continue without interruption on Sabbath afternoons, fifty minutes before Mincha.

To those who will remain in the city, as well as to those who will leave for vacations, we wish a very pleasant and healthful summer.

The Park East Religious School, a community school of which our congregation is one of the sponsors, has just completed its second year of existence. The school has made substantial progress and now occupies a distinguished position in the area of Talmud Torah education.

This year the Park East Religious School graduated a group of ten youngsters who completed six years of intensive Jewish study. At the graduation, Rabbi Simon Langer, of Congregation Orach Chaim, and Rabbis Joseph H. Lookstein and Haskel Lookstein addressed the graduates and their parents and praised the students for their academic accomplishments. The names of the graduates are:

Richard Anscher
Perry Bernstein
Fany Fox
Norman Hellman
Florence Kalischer
Victoria Kruger
Robert Krulwich
Judith Mipass
Scott Schwartz
Jordon Wouk

PARK EAST RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

The school distinguished itself recently in a contest sponsored by the Manhattan Association of Talmud Torahs. The contest was on the subject of the prayer book and students from 13 congregations competed for prizes. The following were winners from the Park East Religious School: Jordan Wouk won first prize on the Grade 6 level; Pearl Moskowitz won first prize on the Grade 5 level; and Geraldine Fischer received honorable mention on the Grade 1 level. This showing gave the Park East Religious School second place among all the other school which were represented.

We are very proud of our school and we would like to call attention to its facilities for the children of this neighborhood. There are a good many children in our community who are not receiving a religious education and for whom the school would serve a very important need. If you know of such a child, please encourage the parents to get in touch with Mr. Joseph Fuchs, the principal, at SA 2-0800, or send the parents to see one of our rabbis. You will be doing a service to the child, to the parents, and to the cause of Jewish education. Registration is now in progress for next season. Let us all work together to increase the enrollment of this splendid school.

NORMAN EZRA HELLMAN BAR MITZVAH

We extend heartiest Mazel Tov greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hellman on the occasion of the Bar Mitzvah of their son Norman.

The Bar Mitzvah boy has been a student at the Park East Religious School since its founding and prior to that he attended the Kehilath Jeshurun Religious School. He will continue his religious education at the Manhattan Hebrew High School.

Norman is in the seventh grade of the Robert F. Wagner Jr. High School. His favorite subjects are Science and English. His favorite sports are Baseball and Basketball.

Norman will be Bar Mitzvah in our synagogue this Saturday and will chant the Haftorah as part of the regular service.

SISTERHOOD HAPPY DAY FUND

We acknowledge with many thanks contributions to our Happy Day Fund from Mrs. Abraham L. Marcus, Mrs. Frederick Margaretten and Mrs. Robert Wallach.

Members are urged to share their joyous occasions with others, by making a gift to the Happy Day Fund.

Contributions should be sent to Mrs. Robert H. Zessman, 12 East 87th Street, the Happy Day Fund Chairman.

WITHIN OUR FAMILYBirths —

We extend a hearty Mazel Tov to our esteemed Vice-President, Joseph Roth and Mrs. Roth upon the birth of a granddaughter, their seventh grandchild. We wish the proud grandparents and the parents much "nachas" from this new addition to the family.

Heartiest Mazel Tov wishes to our new members Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Portnoy on the birth of a daughter, their first child. The happy occasion occurred last week.

Birthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Mrs. A. Milton Brown, Hyman I. Bucher, Benjamin Cooper, Fred H. Diamond, Mrs. Joseph S. Gershman, Herman Goldman, Mrs. Milton Herman, Mrs. Marion Gold Lewis, and Mrs. Jack Lieberman.

Anniversaries —

Warmest greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Gershman, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice N. Jaffe, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Podell, Mr. and Mrs. J. William Rosenbluth, and Dr. and Mrs. Nathan Wachtel.

Bon Voyage —

Once again we anticipate a large eastward movement in our congregation, as many of our members prepare for a summer of "globetrotting" in Europe and Israel. Space does not allow us to wish them a bon voyage individually. We take this opportunity, therefore, to wish all a collective bon voyage and we hope that when the call of "westward ho!" is sounded in late August, they will return safe and sound from their travels.

Academic News:

We congratulate heartily our devoted member, Abbott Simon, upon his graduation cum laude from the New York University Law School, and Mrs. Elaine Brody, who received her Master of Arts degree in Musicology from Columbia University.

OUR THANKS TO THE BOARD OF JUNIOR USHERS

For the past eight months a group of dedicated boys has been serving as ushers in the House of God at every Sabbath and Holiday service. They have helped to maintain the standards of decorum which have marked the services of Kehilath Jeshurun through the years.

Their names are:

George Baumgarten
Joel Eichler
Marshall Etra
Steven Klein
Stanley Kurzweil
Robert Leifert
Jon Mills
Sandy Perlman
Stuart Schlang
Alan Shapiro
Marvin Shulsky
Michael Sigall
Stephen Texon

We would like to express our gratitude to these boys for their efforts in contributing to the beauty of our services in the synagogue.
