THE WEEKLY PORTION SATURDAY, AUGUST 20 REEH

This portion contains a description of the various types of forbidden foods. The listing includes animals, fowl, and fish with indications for distinguishing between the prohibited and permissible species.

The portion also has an extensive section dealing with the festivals of Passover, Shavuoth, and Sukkoth. This section is read in the synagogue on each of these festivals.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 27 SHOFETIM

This portion deals primarily with civil and criminal law and the courts which must enforce the law. Included in the contents are rules pertaining to judges, witnesses, false testimony and manslaughter.

The portion also discusses a military draft in the event of war and the conduct of soldiers during a war.

STANLEY IRVING ORWASHER BAR MITZVAH

Heartiest Mazel Tov wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Orwaser on the Bar Mitzvah of their son Stanley, which will take place in our synagogue on Saturday, August 27th.

The Bar Mitzvah is a student in the seventh grade of Ramaz School. His favorite subjects are Mathematics, Science, Bible and Hebrew Literature. His sports interests include, swimming, ice-skating and fishing. The profession he seeks to enter is in the field of electronics.

Stanley will chant part of the Torah portion, as well as the Haftarah, as part of the regular services.

The entire congregation will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Orwaser at the Kiddush at the close of services.

CANTOR'S SON BAR MITZVAH

Congratulations to Cantor and Mrs. A. Joseph Cohen on the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Martin, in our synagogue last Saturday. Martin read the prophetic portion with the understanding tone of one who is descended from a family of great Jewish scholars and who has himself been a Yeshiva student throughout his educational life.

We know that the young Bar Mitzvah will be a source of pride to his family and to the congregation.
