Max J. Etra Re-elected President at 91st Annual Meeting Joseph Roth and Elgin Shulsky re-elected Vice-President and Treasurer; Dr. H. Harold Gelfand elected Secretary

The auditorium of the synagogue house was filled with more than 250 members of the congregation for the 91st Annual Meeting of Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun. The membership, by unanimous vote, re-elected Max J. Etra for a 25th consecutive term in office. Re-elected with him were Joseph Roth, Vice President, and Elgin Shulsky, Treasurer. All these returning officers were given warm ovations by the membership, indicative of the confidence which the members of Kehilath Jeshurun exhibit toward these dedicated men.

Joseph S. Gershman Retires as Secretary

Our esteemed Secretary, Joseph S. Gershman, retired from that office and was elevated to the status of a full Trustee of the Congregation. Mr. Gershman, who has been most active in the building activity of the congregation, has served for many years as a Trustee of Ramaz School.

Elected to serve as the new Secretary of the congregation was Dr. H. Harold Gelfand, an esteemed member of the medical profession and an ardent supporter of all the activities of the congregation. He has been an active student in our Adult Institute and is a regular participant in the daily minyan at the congregation.

Twenty Nine New Members Inducted

Hyman I. Bucher, on behalf of the Membership Committee, presented the names of the following twenty-nine members for election to the ranks of Kehilath Jeshurun.

Anniversarians Presented

In accordance with our accepted practice, four members of the congregation were honored on the occasion of important anniversaries of their affiliation with Kehilath Jeshurun. Dr. Leo Edelman and Mr. Louis Etra were present to receive their scrolls on the occasion of their 25th anniversary celebrations. Not present, but announced as celebrants, were Morris S. Galler who is celebrating his 30th anniversary and Murray M. Rosenberg, celebrating his 25th.

President Reports on Building Progress

In his annual report to the congregation, Max J. Etra, President, called attention to the plans for our new building and to the beginnings of the construction process. He cited the fact that the adjoining structure is now being demolished and that this step in the plans should be completed within about a week. He told of the plans for a magnificent and improved synagogue house, a splendid and modern Ramaz School building, a fully air-conditioned main synagogue and a renovated and impressive social hall, chapel and auditorium.

He expressed the collective gratitude of the congregation to Elgin Shulsky, the devoted Chairman of the Building Committee, and to the members of that committee for the investment of time, effort, skill and dedication in discharging this important responsibility.

Memorial to the Departed

A brief memorial service was held for those of the congregation who were called to their eternal reward during the past year. Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein delivered touching eulogies for: Arthur T. Bernstein, Dr. Ira I. Kaplan, Marion Gold Lewis, Philip Salzman, Max Scheidt, Rae Sokolski, Jacob P. Shulman, and Dinah Tenenbaum. Cantor A. Joseph Cohen chanted the memorial prayer while the entire assemblage rose in reverence and tribute to the memory of the departed.

Trustees Elected

The following trustees were re-elected for a term of three years: Harry W. Baumgarten, A. Milton Brown, Israel Cummings, Oscar Perlberger, Joseph Roth, and Elliot W. Siegel. In addition, as mentioned previously, Joseph S. Gershman was elected for a first term as a full trustee of the congregation.

The Ramaz membership corporation then held a brief meeting to elect trustees for its Board. The following were elected: Elias M. Black, Morris S. Geller, Joseph S. Gershman, Alexander Gross, Eugene Hollander, Morton Kamerman, Oscar Perlberger, Joseph Roth, Elgin Shulsky and Ira F. Weisman.

Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein Concludes Meeting

The 91st annual meeting closed with the traditional remarks of Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein. The Rabbi spoke of the family character of the congregation and took the opportunity to welcome the new members, to cite the president for his devoted service to the congregation and to the community, and to compliment the officers and the synagogue officials on the past years work.

The Rabbi announced that well over a half a million dollars have already been contributed in pledges to the 90th anniversary fund of the congregation and to the Ramaz building fund. He spoke about the structure which is soon to rise alongside the present synagogue house. He praised the membership for the gratifying way it has participated in this special effort and for the unusual generosity displayed toward this singular project.

While he promised that this present campaign was a one-time effort, he

HENRY M. REM
HONORED BY UOJCA

The Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America, at its 40th Anniversary Dinner, held last week, paid tribute to our esteemed Trustee, Henry M. Rem. Mr. Rem was presented with the President's Award. A goodly representation of our membership was on hand to witness the presentation.

The President's Award is presented to outstanding laymen in recognition of their generosity and labors on behalf of the Jewish Community.

Mr. Rem's leadership and devotion in our congregation, and in the Ramaz School, were cited as some of the examples of his successful efforts on behalf of the community.

SAMUEL ROSEN HONORED AT FEDERATION

Our esteemed Trustee, Samuel Rosen, was the recipient of the Tzedakah Award of the Commission on Synagogue Relations of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies. Mr. Rosen, who is a Vice-President of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies, received the tribute as an outstanding communal leader in the Jewish Community.

Mr. Rosen spoke movingly at the Annual Dinner marking the 10th Anniversary of Federation's Religious Affairs Department. He expressed his personal feelings on the meaning of the Tzedakah Award and explained how traditional Judaism fosters the spirit of charity which Federation represents.

nevertheless also promised that when, please God, the congregation will celebrate its one hundredth anniversary, there will be, no doubt another campaign of this type. He expressed the hope and prayer that he would be privileged to launch such an appeal and that all the members present would be with us in good health and in happiness to participate in it.

Following the conclusion of the meeting, the membership proceeded to the social hall where a splendid collation was waiting. New members had an opportunity to meet veteran members and all were able to gather in fellowship and in brotherhood in a warm and cordial atmosphere.
