FAREWELL TO THE SUMMER

As Labor Day approaches we feel a bit like the editorial writer who composes the closing editorial in every issue of the Sunday "Times". Like him, we too feel a bit depressed as the leaves begin to fall, as the wind increases in intensity, and as the thermometer begins its slow but sure decline to a more temperate level.

Despite all our complaints during the summer about the heat and the humidity, the prospect of fall and winter does not fill us with unbridled joy.

The Positive Side

To a religious institution, however, the end of summer and the beginning of fall presents special opportunities and attractions which more than dispel the gloom of the "last rose of summer". The High Holy Days are but a couple of weeks away with the opportunities which they offer us for religious elevation and spiritual activity. In our personal and family lives there is much to put in order, so that we might meet these holiest days of the year in the proper frame of mind.

In addition, this season of the year marks the beginning of all our congregational activities. The Park East Religious School will shortly resume sessions. The Junior Congregation and all youth activities will be convened during the coming weeks. The Sisterhood and The Men's Club, after a summer of intensive planning, are ready with a full program of activities for the season. And, of course, we look forward to the opening of our Adult Insti-

WELCOME BACK

As this bulletin goes to press, Rabbi and Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein are on the high seas en route to New York City. We expect the Rabbi to be with us at services this coming Sabbath morning.

While away, the Rabbi has been engaged in many activities on behalf of Bar-Ilan University and he has attended sessions of the World Council of Jewish Education to which he was appointed shortly before the summer.

During the course of the next few weeks we will no doubt hear reports from the Rabbi on conditions which prevail among Jews in the countries which he visited. His sermon title this Sabbath — appropriate to the penitential season — is: "Man Always Gets A Second Chance."

tute of Jewish Studies which, this year, will present an entirely new curriculum and schedule for prospective students.

On second thought, therefore, we do not feel at all like the "Times" editorial writer. We approach the coming season with anticipation and eagerness and we pray that the coming year will be a happy, healthy and inspiring one for the Kehilath Jeshurun family.

CORRECTION!

In our listing of the Sisterhood Committee Chairmen and co-Chairmen for the 1963-64 season, which appeared in the last issue of the Bulletin, Mrs. Alexander Gross was listed erroneously as co-Chairman of Neediest Cases. She is, in reality, the co-Chairman, together with Mrs. Joseph S. Gershman, of the United Jewish Appeal Committee of the Sisterhood.
