THE WEEKLY PORTION

TERUMAH

"The Tabernacle as a Democratic Institution"

The central theme of this week's portion from the Torah is the building of the Tabernacle. This sanctuary was to serve as the central place of worship and Divine service until such time as a permanent Temple would be built in Jerusalem.

It might be assumed that, inasmuch as the priests were the main functionaries in the Tabernacle, they would have complete control over its activities. The fact is, however, that the sanctuary was a democratic institution.

This state of affairs was insured by granting to each individual Jew the "power of the purse" in the affairs of the Tabernacle. The opening verse of this week's portion states "speak unto the children of Israel that they may take for me an offering from every man whose heart prompts him to give." In this way, each citizen had a share in the building of the Tabernacle and in the sacrifices which were brought therein.

There was a time in Jewish history when the priests tried to preempt control in the sanctuary by bringing the sacrifices from their own funds. This practice, however, was rejected by Jewish Law. Public worship was ordained to be a democratic institution in which each member of the community had a share and which was therefore to be controlled by the general public. Such a system entails an obligation upon the public. Each citizen had to make his own contribution in accordance with his means and financial ability. Only in this way could each individual be a partner in public worship.

HON. OGDEN REID TO ADDRESS MEN'S CLUB ON FEBRUARY 18th

Mr. William Lebowitz, President of the Men's Club, has announced that the Hon. Odgen Reid will be the guest speaker at the Men's Club meeting on Thursday evening, February 18th. The meeting will be held in the social hall and will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. Reid, who is currently a Congressman from Westchester County, served for a number of years as United States Ambassador to Israel. In both his present position and his Ambassadorial post he has achieved great distinction. Prior to his Government posts, he served as editor, publisher and president of the Herald Tribune.

With such a distinguished background, we are certain that Mr. Reid's address will be informative, educational and stimulating.

A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the congregational family to be with us at what promises to be a highlight in the Men's Club calendar for this season.
