MEN'S CLUB HOLDS 28th ANNUAL DINNER

A fine gathering of more than one hundred men attended the 28th Annual Dinner of the K. J. Men's Club on Tuesday evening, January 10th. The dinner was chaired by Milton Eletz.

Greetings were presented to the Club by its President, Abraham R. Kirshon, Max J. Etra, President of the Congregation and Mrs. William Lebowitz, President of the Sisterhood.

Scholarship Grants Pledged

The President of the Men's Club announced that the Club would continue to give its financial support to the Ramaz School Scholarship Fund and to the Park East Religious School. The actual presentation of the gifts will be made at a later date.

The atmosphere throughout the dinner program was warm and spirited. The wonderful turnout added impetus to the sociability and camaraderie that is always part of our Men's Club programs.

The entertainment for the evening was presented by the noted humorist, Gene Baylis. We are grateful to the Vice President of the Men's Club, Abe Newborn, for arranging for Mr. Baylis' appearance.

The evening came to a close with a few remarks by Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein. He traced the evolution and the development of the Men's Club and expressed the hope that the Club and its members would continue to serve the synagogue and the community with the same steadfastness as it has shown during the past twenty-eight years.

Our thanks to the dinner chairman, Milton Eletz, and to his committee consisting of Abraham R. Kirshon, Edward Lebowitz, William Lebowitz and Ira F. Weisman for making this year's dinner one of the best ever held.

"SURVIVING AND THRIVING IN A WILDERNESS"

THE WEEKLY PORTION

BESHALACH

"This Is My God and I will Glorify Him"

In the Song of the Sea we read the words: "This is my God and I will glorify him." There are various methods commonly used to glorify God. Some do it through building magnificent sanctuaries for His worship. Others do it by carving statues and painting glorious canvasses in His honor. The Talmud presents two different methods for glorifying God.

The first method concerns ritual. It calls upon the Jew to beautify himself before God by constructing a beautiful sukkah, by purchasing a lovely lulav and by donning "tsitsith" of special quality. This accounts for the great pride which a Jewish family takes in its sukkah on the festival of Tabernacles. It explains the great care exercised in selecting a beautiful ethrog and lulav. It also explains the traditional importance ascribed to a fine Talith.

It is noteworthy that these mitzvot are all personal ones which must be performed by each individual for himself, rather than by the community or a representative. By exercising special care in this performance we are personally glorifying God by the importance which we ascribe to the performance of His commands.

The glorification, however, is not restricted to ritual alone. It extends to the sphere of human relations. One sage in the Talmud asserts that the ultimate in glorification is emulation—a conclusion which has been borne out by modern studies in human psychology. "Just as He is gracious and merciful, so are we to be gracious and merciful," says the Talmud. Honor to the Creator is thus reflected in respect for his creation; homage to the Almighty is expressed by righteous behavior toward humanity.

The glorification of God, therefore, is not a matter of words or objects; it is rather a result of the action of subjects. The personal performance of God's will is the beginning of the glorification. The personification of his ethical qualities, as it were, is the culmination of it.

BOY SCOUT TROOP #613

Men's Club Project —

A Successful Venture

We are pleased to report that the Boy Scout Troop, sponsored by the Men's Club of the congregation, is continuing to grow in number and in activities.

It is heartening to see some 25 to 30 youngsters who gather each Thursday evening to enjoy an interesting program of games, instruction and scout lore.

The youngsters, who are students at Ramaz School, in most cases come from our immediate vicinity.

It has been reported to us that a recent hike was held by the group to Camp Alpine, New Jersey. Other interesting and surprising events are in store for youngsters of the group. There are still openings for new members in the scout troop. Those interested may contact the synagogue office.

KEHILATH JESHURUN TO HOST
YESHIVA UNIVERSITY LECTURE ON MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 20

The Community Service Division of Yeshiva University, in conjunction with Yeshiva's Rabbinic Alumni Association, is sponsoring a Colloquium for Synagogue Leaders during the months of January, February and March of 1967. Each month a special lecture will be delivered at three centers in the metropolitan area.

Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun has been chosen as the host congregation for the second lecture for the Manhattan-Bronx sector. The lecture will be held on Monday evening, February 20, in the auditorium of the synagogue house. The guest speaker will be Dr. Norman Frimer, Metropolitan Regional Director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation. His topic will be: "Campus Youth — a Challenge."

The evening will consist of two parts. It will begin with a cocktail reception at 8:00 o'clock, at which members of our congregation will serve as hosts. The lecture itself will begin at 9:00 o'clock. Members of the Kehilath Jeshurun family are familiar with the guest speaker, Dr. Frimer, who lectured frequently before our Adult Institute a number of years ago. He is a fascinating man to listen to and he has much to say on this subject which is so closely related to his area of professional specialization.

We ask the members of our congregation and their friends to reserve Monday evening, February 20. We know you will want to participate in the evening.
