BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE NOW IN PREPARATION

The 1967-68 volume of the Book of Remembrance is now in preparation and will be ready for use by our worshippers for the Shavuoth Festival.

This booklet, together with a special Yizkor order of service, has become a regular feature of our synagogue service. To our knowledge it is the first such volume of its kind in any synagogue.

Worshippers will recall the old days when Yizkor was invariably associated with an appeal for funds. In order to maintain the sanctity and dignity of the service we eliminated all such appeals.

In order, however, to fulfill the pledge for charity which is a regular part of the Yizkor service, we invite our worshippers to memorialize their dear departed ones by recording their names in our Book of Remembrance and by making a contribution in their memory once a year before Shavuoth.

We try to stress the purely religious character of the offering by limiting it to not more than ten dollars and not less than five dollars for each name to be memorialized.

You have already received correspondence concerning the 1967-68 Book of Remembrance. The task of preparing the volume is an exacting one. You are requested, to return the authorization card listing the names of those to be included in the Book, together with your token offering. Please do this without delay.

MEN'S CLUB TO CLOSE SEASON WITH SUNDAY MORNING MEETING,
MAY 21st

The final meeting of the year for the Kehilath Jeshurun Men's Club will be held on Sunday morning, May 21st. The meeting will take the form of a regular service of worship and a community breakfast with some pertinent matters of Men's Club business to be taken up at the close of the breakfast. The entire program will be over by 10:30 o'clock.

The major item of business for the meeting will be the election of officers for the 1967-68 season. The officers during the past year have planned and executed one of the most memorable series of programs in the Men's Club history. They deserve the plaudits of the members as well as their encouragement.

A cordial invitation is extended to all men to join us at services on Sunday morning, May 21st, at 9:00 o'clock — the regular service of the congregation will be held at 9:00, too, that Sunday — and to remain for the community breakfast and the brief meeting which will follow.

This will be a grand opportunity to conclude a wonderful season in the spirit of religion and good fellowship.

The Kehilath Jeshurun Young Marrieds group will hold its final meeting of the season on Sunday evening, June 4th, at 8:00 o'clock, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Richter, 145 West 86th Street.

K. J. AND RAMAZ YOUTH CONCLAVE AT MAYFLOWER HOTEL IN ATLANTIC CITY

The Kehilath Jeshurun Teen-age Group, Shachar, and the General Organization of Ramaz High School are co-sponsoring a conclave for teenagers, which will be held this week-end at the Mayflower Hotel in Atlantic City. Co-chairmen for the week-end are: Ronald Goldman, President of Shachar, and Alan Fagin, President of the Ramaz G. O. Martin Rosenberg is in charge of the program.

The week-end will include a full schedule of religious, educational and social activities. Rabbi and Mrs. Haskel Lookstein, together with Mr. and Mrs. Noam Shudofsky, will accompany the young people and contribute to the week-end's program.

As this Bulletin goes to press, the prospects are for an attendance of more than 60 young people at this week-end. A full report will be rendered in the next issue of the Bulletin.

KOSHER FOOD SPECIALTY SHOP OPENS IN OUR NEIGHBORHOOD

We are happy to announce that a new kosher food specialty shop, located at the corner of Lexington Avenue and 79th Street, has been endorsed by the Park East Kashruth Board.

The store, going under the name of "Operation Sino-Sinai," features a wide range of take-out foods for a kosher table. The store is operated on a Sabbath-observant basis and includes among its products, also, baked goods from a Sabbath-observant bakery.

We are pleased to add this specialty shop to our list of kosher stores under the supervision of the Park East Kashruth Board, a joint venture of the synagogues in the midtown, East side area.

LATE AFTERNOON CLASSES MEET ON THE SABBATH

During this spring season, there are two classes which will be meeting every Sabbath afternoon. Members and friends of the congregation — young and old, men and women — are invited to participate in these classes.

One hour before Mincha services, a Talmud class will meet to study the eighth chapter of the tractate, Berakhot. The subject matter concerns customs and ceremonies revolving about the table. The plan is to complete this chapter by Shavuoth time and to conduct a siyum on the first night of the festival at the tikkun ceremonies. In the absence of Rabbi Haskel Lookstein this week, the Talmud class will be conducted by Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein.

Each week, from now and throughout the summer, a selection from the third chapter of the "Ethics of the Fathers" will be discussed by one of the rabbis between Mincha and Ma'ariv. Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein will begin this study with the first passage from the third chapter this Saturday afternoon. An invitation is extended to all to attend Mincha services, listen to the lecture and remain for Ma'ariv thereafter.

A HEARTY THANKS

We extend a hearty thanks to the young men who read chapters from the Song of Songs at services in our Synagogue on Shabbat Chol ha-Moed. Their reading was a source of pride to all of us and was especially gratifying to their teacher, our Ritual Director, Israel D. Rosenberg.

OUR YOUTH AT VIGIL FOR SOVIET JEWRY

Readers of the Kehilath Jeshurun Bulletin will be pleased to hear that a very fine turnout of teen-agers from the congregation and Ramaz were present for the Vigil for Soviet Jewry held on Chol ha-Moed Pesach. Our young people were specifically involved in the Shacharis Service held on Sunday morning from 9:00 to 10:00.

We were especially proud of the three young men who served as cantors for that service: Martin Rosenberg, Steven Schacter and Alvin Smilow. Sarah Rosenberg, of Ramaz High School, prepared a Hebrew reading for the occasion which, unfortunately, had to be omitted because of the shortage of time. Rabbi Haskel Lookstein concluded this part of the Vigil program with a brief inspirational talk.
