PREPARING FOR PASSOVER

One of the most beautiful and meaningful ceremonies associated with Passover is "bedikat chametz" — the search for chametz. The ceremony is composed of three parts.

1. Reciting of a special blessing over the mitzvah of the removal of chametz.
2. The search for the house by the light of a candle to find vestiges of chametz.
3. The reciting of the formula of nullification of the chametz.

The ceremony this year will be observed on Thursday night, April 8th. Children especially will be impressed by the ceremony. It should, therefore, be performed with enthusiasm and dedication.

The children should be asked to place the pieces of chametz in the various rooms — a practice which ensures that the search will not be in vain. They can hold the candle and the feather; they should examine their own possessions, dressers and desks, for long forgotten relics of chametz.

Passover is a beautiful festival. It is a serious one too. Both these aspects can be captured twenty-four hours in advance of the festival by a careful observance of the ritual of bedikat chametz.

Disposal of Chametz

No Chametz may be eaten on Friday, April 9 after 9:40 A.M. All chametz must be completely disposed of by 10:40 A.M.

Sale of Chametz

The ritual sale of chametz must be completed by early Friday morning, April 9th. There are those who prefer to perform this ritual in person. The Rabbis and the Ritual Director are available for that purpose. For those who cannot attend to this matter in

OF COMMUNAL INTEREST

At a dinner for Israel Bonds which was held on Saturday night, March 20th, and which was addressed by Hon. Menachem Begin, several members of the congregational family were exceptionally in evidence. The dinner was in honor of our esteemed member, Dr. Maurice S. Sage. Among those receiving special awards at the dinner were Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein, Rabbi Haskel Lookstein and our esteemed member, Joseph S. Gruss. Arnold Neustadter was similarly cited for his exceptional work in behalf of Israel Bonds. Our Honorary President, Max J. Etra, was responsible for calling the cards that evening and his expertise in this role helped to make the dinner a great success.

We are happy to congratulate Mrs. Usher Doppelt upon her honor at the Yeshiva University Women's Organization Luncheon held last Tuesday. She received a citation at that luncheon. Mrs. Albert H. Bernstein, and Mrs. David Scheinfeld were Co-Chairmen of the function and Mrs. Haskel Lookstein delivered the invocation prior to the lunch.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE ROSENBERGS

Congratulations and all good wishes to our esteemed Ritual Director, Mr. Israel D. Rosenberg and to Mrs. Rosenberg on the birth of their first grandchild, a son born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rosenberg in Los Angeles, California. As we express our warm Mazel Tov to the Rosenberg family we pray that the new born baby will grow up in the finest tradition of Torah, Chupah and Ma'asim Tovim.

THAT THE JEWS OF THE SOVIET UNION MAY KNOW THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN FORGOTTEN . . .

At the Seder table one should have four matzot, the three traditional ones and an additional matzah which will not be eaten and which will symbolize the plight of our brethren in the Soviet Union, most of whom will be unable to obtain matzah for Passover this year.

In Jewish households throughout America, this year, the following formula will be recited at the Seder immediately prior to "Ma Nishtanah", after completing the recitation of "Ha Lachma Anya."

THIS IS THE MATZAH OF OPPRESSION

We set aside this "lechem oni" — this matzah of oppression — to remember the three million Jews of the Soviet Union. Most of them cannot have matzah on their Seder tables tonight. Conceive of Passover without matzah — without that visible reminder of our flight from slavery.

Think of Soviet Jews! They cannot learn of their Jewish past and hand it down to their children. They cannot learn the languages of their fathers and hand them down to their children. They cannot teach their children to be their teachers, their rabbis. They can only sit in silence and become invisible.

We shall be their voice, and our voices shall be joined by thousands of men of conscience aroused by the injustice imposed on Soviet Jews. Then shall they know that they have not been forgotten, and they that sit in darkness shall yet see a great light.

"KOSHER" LETTUCE AT THE SEDER

Several weeks ago, I called to the attention of our readers the struggle of the United Farm Workers under the leadership of Cesar Chavez. The purpose of the struggle is to obtain decent working conditions for migrant farm workers who work in the lettuce industry of California.

Statistics from the United States Departments of Labor and Agriculture as well as other public sources of information indicate that migrant farm workers suffer infant mortality, maternal mortality, tuberculosis, infectious disease and accidents at rates between 125% and 300% higher than the national average. Over 1,000 farm workers die each year directly from pesticide poisoning and another 80,000 are poisoned to varying degrees. The life expectancy of migrant farm workers is 49 years.

At the present time, the struggle to improve the life conditions of these workers is focused on the lettuce industry. The lettuce growers are resisting attempts at organizing the workers. To date, 20% of the lettuce grown is harvested by the Farm Worker's Union and can be identified by the Aztec Eagle imprinted on the wrapping.

Might I suggest that each of our families consider using lettuce with a Union label for Karpas — the spring vegetable dipped in salt water — at the Passover Seder. How fitting it would be to translate that symbol into vivid reality by supporting through that symbol the struggle of the poor for freedom, ease and a fair chance.

The great sage, Rabbi Israel Salanter, was once unable to accompany his students to the annual baking of Shmura Matzoh before Passover. His students asked him what special thoughts they should have in mind during the baking of this special Matzoh. He answered: Have in mind to pay the workers immediately after the baking is done. Remember that the Matzoh not only has to be kosher for Passover, but also kosher in terms of man's relation with his fellow man.

Here, then, is an opportunity to join the great Passover experience to the struggle of one of the poorest segments of our population; a segment that desperately needs redemption from slavery to freedom.

Besides the purely human element, there is a self serving element in this suggestion. Cesar Chavez has always been a great friend of the Jewish people and the State of Israel. As a leader in third world circles, his support is most welcome just as our support will surely be welcome to him.

SHABBAT ha-GADOL DISCOURSE

Rabbi Haskel Lookstein will deliver the traditional Shabbat ha-Gadol discourse this Saturday afternoon between Mincha and Ma'ariv. We are scheduling Mincha services a little earlier in order to provide ample time for that discourse.

A cordial invitation is extended to men and to women, young and old, to participate in the Sabbath afternoon services and to listen to this traditional discourse. Mincha will be at 5:40.

Ask for "kosher" lettuce, with the Union label wherever you buy; use it for karpas at the Seder table; and tell your children and your entire family what you are doing and why.

A happy and "kosher" Passover to you all.

YOUNG MEN TO READ
"SONG OF SONGS"

A highlight of the Passover season is the reading of the "Song of Songs," the Book of the Bible which Rabbi Akiba once called "The Holy of Holies." The Book will be read at services on Saturday, April 17th, the final day of the Festival.

In accordance with our tradition of long standing, the book will be read by 8 young men of our congregational family. They are: Andrew Abraham, Kenneth Barany, Steven Berkowitz, George Blumenthal, Alan Friedman, Alain Hyman, Barry Meislin, and Binyamin Shudofsky. The boys are being prepared for this reading by the Ritual Director of our congregation, Israel D. Rosenberg.

The reading is scheduled to begin at 10:00 o'clock. Please plan to arrive early on the final day of Passover. You will then be able to enjoy the entire reading and you will also be giving these young men the encouragement and the recognition which they deserve.
