

EUGENE HOLLANDER HONORED

On Sunday, December 19th our very esteemed trustee, Mr. Eugene Hollander received the Synagogue Statesman Award at a testimonial dinner of the Synagogue Council of America held at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

The toastmaster at the dinner was Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein and the guest speaker was Minister Abba Eban. Mr. Hollander was presented by Rabbi Lookstein who read an appropriate citation, outlining the public career of the awardee. Mr. Hollander received a beautiful piece of sculpture on the occasion and his response to the award was extremely moving.

Many of the trustees and members of our congregation attended the function and joined Eugene and Monica Hollander in the deserved tribute paid to them.

PLEASE NOTE

This is a three-week Bulletin. Please hold on to it for the period that it covers. The next issue of the Bulletin will reach our congregants on January 21, 1972.

COUPLES CLUB TO MEET IN RABBI'S HOME

The next meeting of the Couples Club of the Congregation will be held on January 15, 1972 in the home of Rabbi and Mrs. Haskel Lookstein, 993 Park Avenue. The topic of the meeting will be "Sex and the Married Jew." The discussion will begin with a dialogue between the Rabbi and Dr. Eugene Borowitz on the latter's book, "Choosing a Sex Ethic."

Dr. Borowitz' book, available in paperback, is a general exploration of Jewish ideas on sex in the light of the new morality and situation ethics. It is well worth reading and discussing.

Theater Party Scheduled

The Couples Club has taken a bloc of tickets for the new Israeli musical "Only Fools Are Sad", the English version of the great success in Israel: "Ish Hassid Haya." The performance will be on Sunday evening, February 27th. Arrangements are being made for cocktails and hors d'oeuvres to be served at the synagogue first, following which the group will be transported to the theater.

Letters have been sent to the members of the Couples Club concerning the Couples Club meeting and Theater Party. Those who may not be on our mailing list and would like to join in our activities are urged to get in touch with the synagogue office so that they can be invited to all the activities of the club.

FIVE RAMAZ SENIORS ADMITTED TO BARNARD ON EARLY ADMISSION PLAN

A group of five Ramaz Seniors applied to Barnard College on the early-decision plan of that institution. They were all admitted.

This is a fine compliment to the Seniors involved and to Ramaz School from which they will be graduated.

OF COMMUNITY INTEREST

Looking happy but rather frightened at the size of the welcome accorded her, a shy Ruth Aleksandrovich Averbuch arrived last night at Kennedy International Airport to be engulfed by cheers and freedom chants from more than 100 well-wishers. They included rabbis, leaders and members of activist groups, teen-agers and two small girls bearing bouquets.

Mrs. Averbuch, the 24-year-old Riga nurse who recently migrated to Israel after serving a year in prison for alleged anti-Soviet activities, told the Jewish Telegraphic Agency that she had felt "anguish" and "sorrow" about leaving the Soviet Union, but that Israel was "wonderful." She said that if free emigration were allowed, there would be a "chain reaction" and a "majority" of Jews would leave. Mrs. Averbuch accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Rivka Aleksandrovich, and her husband, Isaiah Averbuch, told a press conference at the airport that "being anti-Semitic is a state policy of Russia."

Engagement—

A hearty mazel tov to "Sandy" Ward, the son of our esteemed members, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ward, on the engagement of "Sandy" to Ellen Jane Horowitz, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Horowitz of Rockville Center. Blessings to the young couple and to the happy parents.

Speedy Recovery—

A speedy recovery to Mr. Ben Mandelker who underwent surgery. May he be restored speedily to enduring good health.

Condolences—

We mourn the loss of Morris B. Newman, the dear father of our devoted member, Melvin D. Newman.

The deceased was one of the leading Jews in the community. He was known as an outstanding Hebraist and an extremely cultured Jew. He helped to found many Jewish cultural institutions here and in Israel.

We extend our heartfelt sympathies to his entire family and especially to his son Melvin D. Newman, who is one of the most active young members of Kehilath Jeshurun and of the Ramaz School.

Condolences to our dear member, Dr. Ralph Sussman, on the loss of his beloved wife. May the family be spared all further sorrow for many years.

THE SAME GROUPS BUT WITH A NEW NAME

We are happy to announce that two groups which meet as part of the Youth Activities of the Congregation have chosen Hebrew names by which they would like to be known.

The pre-school service for children through Grade 1 will be known as G'delim — the "Growing Up Group." The Shabbat afternoon group for girls in Grades 4 through 6 will be known as Ha-Panim Ha-S'mechot — the "Smiling Faces."

Henceforth, you will read of these groups by their chosen names.

THE FALL SEASON AT KEHILATH JESHURUN

Now that the winter season is upon us it is appropriate to make a brief review of the congregational season which began with the High Holidays celebrated so auspiciously at Kehilath Jeshurun.

Our High Holiday services were as always beautiful and impressive. The rendition of prayers by Cantor A. Joseph Cohen, the sermons and the interpolations of both rabbis and the sounding of the Shofar by Mr. Israel D. Rosenberg were all performed on the highest possible plane.

Thanks are Due to Many

The officers of the congregation and those who were appointed by them to preside at the Auxiliary Services performed their tasks with grace and effectiveness. Rabbi Maier Moskowitz deserves our appreciation for serving as cantor at the Auxiliary Services. Our esteemed member, Dr. William Herzig, an eminent physician, led the Shacharit service and in addition sounded the Shofar most impressively. Young Samuel Friedman performed several ritual functions and performed them well.

Sukkoth in our Synagogue

Over 400 meals were served in our congregational sukkoh this year. The attendance exceeded all expectations on Friday night and at Saturday lunch.

Our thanks to Mrs. Martin R. Rochlin and a fine group of women who worked diligently to decorate the sukkoh.

We are also grateful to P. Robert Wassner, to Martin Rochlin and to Milton Medwin for helping to manage and direct the sukkoh meals to the satisfaction of all who attended.

Simchat Torah

The climax of the holiday festival was reached at Simchat Torah time. The singing, the dancing and in particular the lusty participation of the youngsters made this year's Simchat Torah memorable.

Special Events During the Fall

A Couples Club Sabbath was conducted on Saturday, November 13th. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Burak and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eisenstadt were in charge of that Sabbath and all the arrangements were perfectly made and the attendance at the services and at the luncheon which followed was unprecedented.

On Saturday, December 18th, we conducted a Young Adults Sabbath. The attendance that Sabbath was most gratifying and the reading of the service and Torah by the young cantors was most impressive.

A luncheon for the Young Adults followed the services in the Kamber Auditorium and Carl Gershman spoke to the Young Adults on "The New Face of Anti-Israel Propaganda."

In the afternoon, after Minchah services, a Seudah Shlishit was held and the guest speakers were Steven Gross and Gilbert N. Kahn. They spoke on the forthcoming centennial of the congregation.

The Adult Institute

More than 200 students are taking courses in the Kehilath Jeshurun Adult Institute and the attendance at the various courses is continually growing. We have reason to feel proud of the successful season in the realm of adult education.

This is a brief review of what transpired during the fall season at Kehilath Jeshurun. The winter and spring seasons will have even more to offer.

KIDDUSH SPONSORS

Our thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Maks Birnbach who sponsored the Kiddush on Shabbat morning, December 18th, in honor of the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Jonathan, scheduled to take place on Shabbat, December 25th, in Yeshurun Synagogue, Jerusalem.

NEEDIEST CASES FUND

Our thanks to Mrs. Benjamin Perlman, Mrs. Stella Rosenberg, Mrs. Robert Wallach and Mrs. Leon Spilky for their contributions to the Sisterhood Neediest Cases Fund. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Joseph Roth, 891 Park Avenue.
