Preparing For Passover

In connection with the forthcoming Passover festival, there are a number of items for your consideration.

The most important factor about Passover is a negative one — the prohibition of eating chametz during the holidays. Chametz is defined as one of the five principal varieties of grain which has come in contact with water and been allowed to ferment. Typical examples of chametz are, of course, breads, wheat cereals, alcohol and other substances which have grain in them.

In addition, on Passover we are not permitted to eat even the most minute quantity of chametz. Consequently, we avoid using any processed food whatsoever which does not have reliable rabbinical endorsement as being kosher for Passover.

In this connection, a word of caution is advisable. Not every "kosher for Passover" seal can be accepted as reliable. The fact that a store has a Passover section does not mean that we can rely upon the appropriateness for Passover use of every item sold in that section. It is best to rely on the products of the reputable matzoh firms, or on foods which bear the special Passover seal of approval of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations.

In the event that our readers have questions about a particular product endorsed by an individual rabbi, please call one of our rabbis at the synagogue office. The rabbis are also available to answer questions about preparing the home for Passover. Do not hesitate to call upon them for this purpose.

Sale of Chametz

In addition to not eating chametz on Passover, Jewish law forbids us to have any chametz in our possession. Whatever we cannot dispose of before the holidays may be sold in accordance with Jewish law. Such sale, however, requires authorization. Those who wish to do so may see our rabbis personally to authorize them to sell their chametz. Those who cannot do so may use the form below, which will serve the same purpose.

Honored with Mr. Weiler will be one of the congregations with which he is affiliated — Kehilath Jeshurun — by virtue of its having established a record of close to 100% participation in the U.J.A.

The Inaugural Dinner will thus be a doubly significant occasion for KJ and its distinguished member.

FRESHMEN SHABBATON THIS WEEKEND

A major religious experience is in store for an expected group of sixty high school freshmen (and their friends) from the Congregation and Ramaz this week-end. The occasion is the first Shabbaton ever conducted under the auspices of this congregation.

The teenagers will be housed in neighborhood homes. They will lead the services in the synagogue throughout the Sabbath. They will have three Shabbat meals in the social hall with z'mirot and dancing and with discussion sessions on several compelling subjects.

The program is being led by several Kehilath Jeshurun junior members, including: Andrew Abraham, Steven Berkowitz, Allan Friedman, Dina Markson, Robert Riederman and Binyamin Shudofsky, among others.

On Saturday night the group will go ice-skating while on Sunday the program will end with the Father and Son Minyan and the basketball session—for the boys only.

This is a pilot project designed to produce several desired goals for the youngsters. We hope that its success will warrant further programs of this nature during the centennial year and thereafter.

When a congregation reaches 100 years of age, it is great to think young!

PASSOVER RELIEF CONTRIBUTIONS PASS $5,000

As this Bulletin goes to press, the proceeds from the Passover Relief Appeal have reached $5,194. This represents an unprecedented display of both generosity and promptness on the part of the community. The total comes thus far from 298 contributors.

In our next issue of the Bulletin—which will go to press on Monday, March 20th—we plan to list all donors. Please respond by then so that your contribution can do the most good and you can also serve as an example for others.

When we sit down to the seder we say: "Let all who are hungry come and eat." May this statement have special meaning for you this year as a result of your own goodness and thoughtfulness.

March Sisterhood Luncheon

The Spring luncheon meeting of the KJ Sisterhood was attended by a banner crowd of women. The feature of the meeting was a movie, showing the work of the Joint Distribution Committee, which gave the women an insight into JDC's world-wide efforts.

Mrs. Phyllis Siegel, former Chairman of the Women's Division, Manhattan Chapter of UJA, presented the story of UJA's need for funds and the necessity of reaching out to every Jewish family throughout the U.S. She also mentioned that even though husbands give generously, it is up to the Women's Division to get the wives to give as well. Her talk was followed by a raffle in which $70 was raised for UJA.

Luncheon was prepared and served under the guidance of Mrs. Irma Clark, who also made the beautiful table decorations.

In Memoriam

We mourn the passing of Mary Lipschutz, the beloved wife of our esteemed senior member, Louis Lipschutz. Mrs. Lipschutz was associated with our congregation for over forty-five years. She was one of the founders of the Kehilath Jeshurun Sisterhood and was for many years one of its active leaders. In recent years, for reasons of health, she could not be with us as often as she would have wanted, yet an entire generation of Kehilath Jeshurunites remembers her and will cherish her memory.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Special thanks are due the following young men, who were the substitutes for the reading of the Megillah on Purim: Oren Cohen, Mitchel Coven, David Ferstendig, Ethan Heisler, Leslie Helprin, Jonathan Kissel, Robert Kornitzer, Ira Smith, Michael Weintraub and Douglas Zippel.
