Reservations For Centennial Accumulating Rapidly

It is just a week since the invitations to the Centennial Convocation of Kehilath Jeshurun were received in the mail but the returns indicate a great interest on the part of the congregational family. Close to one-third of the 1,000 reservations which we can accept have already been received in the synagogue office.

May we urge the members of the congregation not to delay in sending in their reservation forms. We are most anxious to accommodate everyone who would like to be part of this historic occasion but once we have filled the main synagogue to capacity we will not be able to accept further reservations.

At this point in the preparations for the Centennial it is proper to single out the men and women who have worked to make this event possible. We refer first to the Centennial Committee headed by Hyman I. Bucher as Chairman. The Committee includes the following members of the congregation:

Our very special thanks to Mr. Morris Wyshogrod, a parent of two outstanding students in Ramaz, who has contributed much talent and time to the preparation of our invitation and to other artwork associated with the Centennial. All of what he does is done as a labor of love.

Our special thanks, too, to the indefatigable and highly gifted Mrs. Nathan Goldsmith who is responsible for the elegant addressing and individualizing of the Centennial invitations. Her hours and days of work have won her the commendation and gratitude of the entire congregation.

Please Do Not Delay!

May we urge our members and friends to please send in their reservation forms without any delay.

DO YOU WANT TO SELL A CO-OP? OR RENT AN APARTMENT?

If you are in the market for selling a co-operative apartment, the synagogue office may be able to help you. We frequently get requests from members and outsiders who would like to live in the community concerning co-op purchases as well as rentals.

So, if you would like to sell or buy, or rent, why not call us? We may be able to help.

RABBI HASKEL LOOKSTEIN'S SERMON TO BE PUBLISHED

The Sermon delivered by Rabbi Haskel Lookstein last Saturday, entitled "Kashruth 1972 — Why?" seems to have made a special impression on many of the congregants. One of them generously offered to have the sermon printed, in order to make it available to larger numbers.

We are, therefore, pleased to inform our congregants that within a reasonably short time the sermon will be available in print so that many who have asked for a copy will be able to have one.

Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun Annual Brunch For Yeshiva University April 23rd

Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun's Annual Brunch for Yeshiva University will be held on Sunday, April 23rd, 10:00 A.M., at the Congregation, announces Irwin Shapiro, Chairman of the traditional event.

Now in its 86th year, Yeshiva University recently launched its Decade of Dedication, a period in which special emphasis will be placed upon the development of the Jewish Studies Program, entailing establishment of professorial chairs, the expansion of courses, and an increase in fellowship and scholarship opportunities. Long associated with the history of the University, Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun is especially distinguished for the number of members honored as Master Builders, Science Fellows, and donors of facilities and scholarships.

Chairman Shapiro urges a maximum attendance at the Brunch in keeping with Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun's traditional leadership role in the support of America's oldest and largest center of higher learning founded under Jewish auspices.

Two Men's Club Seudot Scheduled For The Next Two Sabbaths

The Men's Club of the congregation will present two Seudah Shlishit programs on Saturday, April 15th and 22nd. Both will deal with European Jewish communities of special interest to the congregation.

This Shabbat afternoon, following Mincha services at 5:40, we will greet Mr. and Mrs. Noam Shudofsky upon their return from the Soviet Union. They spent the entire Passover festival in Moscow and in Leningrad. Noam and Nechi will report some of the details and impressions of "an unbelievable experience."

We hope that the entire congregation will turn out to hear the Shudofskys tell their tale and to give them an official welcome home from a most important visit.

Nex week, Ted Comet

On the following Shabbat afternoon, April 22nd, we will hear Ted Comet present his own reflections on a personal visit to the Polish-Jewish community in Copenhagen. The title of his talk will be: "Jews in Limbo — the Identity Crisis of Polish Jewry in Denmark."

Mr. Comet travels throughout the world for the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, developing an educational program uniting American-Jewish communities with their counterparts in Europe, Asia, Africa and South America. His message will be an extremely important one for our membership.

Both programs will be chaired by Dr. Charles I. Cohen, President of the Men's Club. We extend a cordial invitation to the community to participate in these two events.

A Reminder About National Solidarity Day

Across the country American Jews will observe National Solidarity Day with Soviet Jewry on April 30th. The New York Conference on Soviet Jewry will sponsor a mass march beginning at 1:00 P.M. on that day. The march will begin on Fifth Avenue and conclude at the United Nations for a brief rally.

Kehilath Jeshurun for Soviet Jewry, under the leadership of Harry Greene and Gil Kahn, will form a special contingent in that march. We ask the entire Kehilath Jeshurun family and the Ramaz family — including children —

Jack D. Weiler Honored Together With The Congregation

It was a very proud moment for Kehilath Jeshurun when at the Inaugural Dinner for the New York UJA the congregation was honored for its outstanding record of participation in UJA and one of its most distinguished members, Jack D. Weiler, was cited as the guest of honor at this outstanding affair. We are happy to print a few of the beautiful sentiments expressed about Mr. Weiler in the program.

"We do not remember when the title Mr. UJA was conferred on Jack D. Weiler. There was never any formal ceremony nor is there any entry in the archives. It is an altogether spontaneous designation and it may date from the late forties and early fifties when Jack was attending as many as four and five UJA meetings every day and night.

"Jack would walk into a room where men were gathered in support of UJA and the whispers began to reverberate — 'Here comes Mr. UJA'. That is exactly what Jack has been as long as most of us can recall and that is what he is today.

"The Herbert J. Lehman Memorial Award which Jack receives this evening gives concrete recognition to his years of dynamic leadership and extraordinary generosity. In accepting this honor he joins the select company of such men as David Ben-Gurion, Sir Isaac Wolfson, Edward M. M. Warburg and William Rosenwald.

"Nevertheless, Jack is unique. Some call him the guiding light of UJA; others describe him as a dynamo, a one-man campaign. But everyone recognizes him as 'Mr. UJA'."

to assemble in front of the main synagogue at 11:30 on Sunday, April 30th.

Let no-one be missing from this demonstration of solidarity with our beleaguered brethren in the Soviet Union.

Members To Be Honored

Congratulations to Mrs. Joseph Greenberg who will be the guest of honor at the annual luncheon of the American Women for Bar-Ilan University which is scheduled for April 25th at the Plaza Hotel. Reservations may be obtained through the Bar-Ilan office at 751-6366. The Chairman of the Luncheon is our own member, Mrs. Estelle Goldman.

Similar congratulations to Mrs. Richard Kolb, who will be the guest of honor at the annual spring luncheon of the Midtown Mizrahi Women's Organization, which will take place on May 3rd at the Fifth Avenue Synagogue.

We applaud the honors which are deservedly coming to these two leading women in the congregation.

In Memoriam

ANN FEINGOLD

On the eve of the Passover festival one of the outstanding Jewish ladies in this community was called to her eternal reward.

Ann Feingold was a beloved wife and an unusual public servant. One of those who helped to develop the Women's Division of the UJA into a vibrant and effective philanthropic force, she had the capacity not only to do but also to enlist others in this sacred effort.

Her warmth, her charm, her wit, her love of people and her boundless energy will serve as an example for her many friends and colleagues and will help to inscribe her indelibly on the consciousness of all of us who work in behalf of the UJA.

We extend our fullest expressions of condolence to her dear husband, our esteemed member Sam Feingold, himself a powerful force in the UJA. We pray that God will grant him strength and health in the years ahead.
