DR. MENDES OCCUPIES PULPIT

The congregation had a delightful surprise last Saturday morning when Dr. Pereira Mendes, Rabbi Emeritus of the Spanish and Portuguese Synagogue, occupied the pulpit.

After delivering a fine sermon on "Youth," the Rabbi and Mrs. Mendes were the guests of Rabbi and Mrs. Herbert S. Goldstein.

BAZAAR WORKERS ARE VERY ACTIVE

The Bazaar Committee wishes to extend special thanks to the Junior bazaar worker, Miss Marian Goldstein, who so ably solicited merchandise during the week. How about some of the other Juniors?

Amongst those workers who have been exceptionally active during the last week are: Mrs. Leah Siegel, Mrs. Isaac Siegel, Mrs. Annie R. Morris, Mrs. Cooperstein, Mrs. Z. Kapner, Mrs. Max Stavish, Mrs. Isadore Brody, Mrs. Moe Goldstein and Mrs. J. Dvorkin. Cars were secured through the graces of Mrs. L. Tuchman, Mrs. Moe Goodman and Mrs. Aaron Wartels. Miss Pansy Horowitz and Miss Janet Goodman also ably assisted.

If you have an afternoon to spare in which to secure merchandise or if you can secure the loan of a car for that purpose, please call Mrs. Goldstein immediately at Cathedral 8531.

ELDORADO CLUB SEEKS MEMBERS

The Eldorado Social and Athletic Club opened for the season November 11, 1924. They plan to have a very busy winter, and anticipate having some wonderful times together.

Among their various activities will be HIKING, SWIMMING, SKATING, BASKETBALL and a score of others. Of course, besides all these, there will be the regular social functions.

Do you want to join? Well, we guess you do.

For further information apply at the desk.

PARENTS' ASSOCIATION OF THE INSTITUTIONAL SYNAGOGUE

Mrs. I. Stein, President of the Parents' Association of the Institutional Synagogue, will hold a Theatre Party on Thursday evening, December 4th. We hope that all our friends will co-operate with the Parents' Association and help make this affair a huge success.

Preparations are now under way for an immense Chanuka Party to excel even the Succoth Party which was held by the Parents' Association together with the Talmud Torah for the 700 children of our school.

SIGN UP FOR GYM AND POOL

THE JEW IN AMERICA

Editor's Note—The INSTITUTIONAL will print, each week, a brief synopsis of contributions that Jews have made to the making of America. Your comments on these articles, which are taken from the writings of various Hebrew scholars in America are invited.

EARLY JEWISH SETTLERS

Mention of Jews in Pennsylvania occurs for the first time in 1657, but there were no Jews in considerable numbers until the following century. The first Jewish name met with in the annals of Philadelphia is that of Jonas Aaron, 1703. Jews assembled for religious service in Philadelphia about 1745. There were Jewish settlements elsewhere also in Pennsylvania; Joseph Simon arrived in Lancaster in 1740; Meyer Hart was one of the founders of the town of Easton in 1747, and Aaron Levy arrived in Northumberland County in 1760; he became a large landowner, and the town of Aaronsburg, which he assisted in laying out, was named for him.

The interesting character, Dr. Jacob Lombrozo, "ye Jew doctor," is first mentioned in Maryland archives in 1657; he was one of the earliest medical practitioners in Maryland; letters of denization were issued to him investing him with all the privileges of a native or a naturalized subject; he owned a plantation in Charles County along Nau-gemy Creek.

The first Virginia settler to be identified as a Jew is Elias Legardo, who has been located as a resident of the colony in 1624-5; he arrived on the "Abigail" in 1621. Notice of another Jew has been discovered in the "York Records" of 1658.

A Jew is mentioned in the Colonial records of Connecticut of 1659. Other references to Jews are found in the records of that colony dating from the seventeenth century. For example, an entry of the date September 2, 1661, states "the same day ye Jews which at present live in John March his house have liberty to sojourn in ye town seven months."

Occasional mention dating from the close of the seventeenth century is made of Jews in South Carolina (Simon Valentine, in 1695), but they did not arrive in numbers till after 1740. The first congregation dates from 1750.

The Colony of Georgia was settled in the year 1733. In July of that same year a company of forty Jews arrived. Jews may therefore be considered in the light of original settlers of the colony; in truth they constituted one-third of the inhabitants of the colony. The first native Georgian is said to have been Philip Minis, the first Jewish child born in the colony. In the general conveyance of town lots, gardens, and farms, excuted December 21, 1733, we find among the grantees the names of seven Jews. These original settlers demeaned themselves in such fashion that Georgia's authoritative historian, Charles J. Jones, says of them, in his History of Georgia: "In the record of the Jews of the Colony of Georgia, there is no stain."

THE REVOLUTIONARY PERIOD

In all the wars of the country, Jews have taken prominent and honorable part. How great this participation was, has been made clear by Mr. Simon Wolf, of Washington, in his book, "The American Jew as Patriot, Citizen and Soldier," the immediate occasion of whose compilation was the slanderous charge made by a writer in the North American Review of December, 1891, that no Jews had served in the Civil War.

Beginning with the Revolutionary struggle, Jews have fought on all the battlefields where patriots gave their lives that the country might live. A brief resume of this record will prove of interest.

The first step which led eventually to the war of the Revolution was the signing of the Non-Importation Resolutions of 1765 by merchants of the Colonies. Among these signers were nine Jews. Citizens of the Colony of Georgia issued a protest against the blockade of Boston Harbor and taxation without representation; this was signed by the prominent citizens of the Colony; among the signatures appear the names of two Jews.

THE JEWISH CEMETERY AT NEWPORT

By H. W. Longfellow, 1858

How strange it seems! These Hebrews in their graves,

Close by the street of this fair seaport
town,
Silent beside the never-silent waves,
At rest in all this moving up and down.

How came they here? What burst of Christian hate,

What persecution, merciless and blind,
Drove o'er the sea—that desert desolate—
These Ishmaels and Hagars of mankind?

Pride and humiliation hand in hand
Walked with them through the world
where'er they went;
Trampled and beaten were they as the sand,
And yet unshaken as the continent.

For in the background figures vague and vast

Of patriarchs and prophets rose sublime,
And all the great traditions of the Past
They saw reflected in the coming time.

And thus forever with reverted look
The mystic volume of the world they read,
Spelling it backward, like a Hebrew book,
Till life became a Legend of the Dead.
