I. S. FRIENDS PLEDGE SUPPORT AT KOL-NIDRE AND YISKOR SERVICES

In harmony with the sombre strains of Kol Nidre and in concord with the solemn spirit of the Yom Kippur, the I. S. friends and seat holders again pledged their moral and financial support of the projects of the Institutional Synagogue.

Our Talmud Torah, our Social-Educational Department, our numerous Social Welfare enterprises, are recipients of the donations pledged at the Kol Nidre and the Yiskor services at the West Side and Harlem Branches.

Many thanks are due the Congregation Ohab Zedak of Harlem for permitting us to conduct an appeal at their services for the support of the Talmud Torah.

We mourn the loss of our esteemed benefactress,

Mrs. FANNY HENNING.

She retained at all times an appreciative interest in the worthy objectives and projects of the Institutional Synagogue. Her loss is felt with profound sorrow by our Directors and Members.

The Jesters held an installation of their officers and a reception at the West Side Branch last Saturday. Invitations were extended to the Hon. Isaac Siegel, our President; Rabbi Herbert S. Goldstein, and Executive Director, Abraham Bernstein. Mr. Maxwell T. Cohen inducted the officers. The Jesters plan to make History in the I. S.

WEST SIDE TALMUD TORAH WILL HAVE MOVING PICTURE ENTERTAINMENT AT 81st STREET THEATRE

Refreshments at W. S. Succah after Theatre Party

The Institutional Synagogue will be the host of a large gathering of the children of the West Side and their parents. Many hundreds will enjoy a perfect morning at the 81st Street Theatre, Broadway at 81st Street on Sunday morning, October 12th, at 9:30 A.M.

BIBLE TALKIES A FEATURE

The indefatigable Dr. Datt and his associates have secured a first rate Biblical Talking Picture. This excellent picture will cause the audience great delight and give them a real thrill. It will also be a fine way to celebrate the Succoth holiday.

All the children of the neighborhood are invited. Besides the celebration of Succoth there is another purpose to this rally. The Institutional Synagogue aims to popularize Jewish education on the West Side.

YOUR YOUNG FRIENDS ARE INVITED

Members and Seat-Holders of the Institutional Synagogue are requested to extend an invitation to all their young friends and to urge them to attend.

Children may go accompanied by their parents.

Besides the Biblical pictures and excellent comedies famous speakers will be heard among them our president, Hon. Isaac Siegel and Rabbi Herbert S. Goldstein.

Following the theatre performance our guests will be invited to the W. S. Succah where refreshments and further entertainment will help make this "the Succah Celebration unforgettable."

Appreciation is here expressed for the fine assistance and co-operation rendered us by the W. S. Branch of the "Ivriah" and the Jewish Education Association.

Please detach the invitation found in this issue and use as admittance ticket.

I. S. PLANS JEWISH SCOUT CENTER

The Institutional Synagogue now offers a Scout program for your boy which will train him in character and citizenship. Scout training is absolutely non-military, seeking only to develop the boy and bring out the best that is in him.

The Institutional Synagogue will be a Jewish Scout Center with a large number of scout troops, in all of which we hope to have every Jewish boy of the neighborhood enrolled.

I earnestly hope that every Parent will cooperate in this truly American program and urge all their sons 12 years and over to join.

There will be some troop meeting each night of the week, except Friday. Boys wishing to join or parents making inquiries see the undersigned in Room 307 any Saturday night, or register at the Information Desk. —Elliott J. Hyman, S.M.

CLUBS PLAN ACTIVE SEASON OF DANCES, CARNIVALS AND NOVELTIES

JESHURUN DANCE INTRODUCES THE SOCIAL SEASON

J-joy, E-enthusiasm, S-spice, H-hilarity, U-you, R-rarity, U-urbanity, N-novelties, S-spells all that which will feature the Jeshurun Dance, Saturday, October 11th. This is the first dance this season. We predict that the frivolity, the gay carnival spirit, the fraternal atmosphere will set a high standard and precedent for other club dances to follow. Will we be there? Yes—and so will you, you, and even you.

A number of the Intermediate and Senior Clubs have booked Saturday Nights for Club Dances. Splendid programs of novelties have been arranged by the respective club social committees. We urge you now to make that Saturday Night Date here. Circle these dates on your Social Calendar, because you and your friends will be down at the I. S. for fun, frolic and friendship.

Oct. 11th—Jeshurun Dance.
Oct. 25th—Rambler Dance (Bronx).
Nov. 1st—Variety Masquerade.
Nov. 8th—Tranquility Dance.
Nov. 15th—Pawnee Dance.
Nov. 22nd—Buddies Dance.
Nov. 29th—Kaweco Dance.
Dec. 6th—Jesters Dance.
Dec. 13th—Arista Dance.
Dec. 20th—Omaha Dance.
Dec. 27th—THE BIGGEST NIGHT OF THE YEAR.

Clubs and Groups are urged to see Mr. Cohen for available booking dates. There are many advantages and benefits accruing to those clubs planning their dances now, for some future time. The S-E Staff will be most happy to assist clubs to plan their big Dance Nights.

The Pawnees invite their friends to attend their Open Meeting, Sunday Evening, October 12th, in the I. S. Social Rooms. Mr. Coleman, their leader, and their Social Committee have arranged a program of snap and pep.

The Kawecos with much mystery and suppressed excitement plan to throw a surprise at their dance, November 29th. And when the Kawecos plan both a dance and a surprise—there will be something doing. Come down that night and participate in the fun.

The Buddies under the able leadership of Mr. J. W. Bookbinder and their president, Charlie (The Great Lawyer) Cohen, make their social debut in the I. S. with a well planned Basket-Ball Game and Dance, November 22nd. A fast-moving Basketball Game and a Fast-Stepping orchestra will make you step fast in order to buy your tickets now so that you will not be deprived of the pleasure of an outstanding Carnival Dance.

The Institutional Synagogue Aims to Give a Religious Education to Every Child.

JOY AND MIRTH MARKS END OF HOLIDAY SEASON

Hashanah Rabbah

The 7th day of Succos is called Hoshanah Rabbah. On that day a cluster made up of five willow twigs is used at the morning prayers. This cluster is called Hoshannah, and is tied together with strips of willow bark or palm leaf. It is used in the Synagogue on the morning of Hoshanah Rabbah.

Shemini Atzeres

The eighth day of Succos as mentioned previously, is called Shemini Atzeres, the Eighth day of Solemn Assembly. During the services in the Synagogue, before the reading of the portion of Law, the extremely interesting Book of Ecclesiastes (Kohes) is read. In this book King Solomon discusses human life, freedom, the curse of tyranny, the folly of mere earthly pleasures, etc., and at the end of it is found the famous sentence: "All being said, fear God and observe His laws, for that is the whole duty and glory of man." After reading of the Law memorial services for the departed

Simchas Torah (Rejoicing in the Law)

The ninth day of the festival marks the conclusion of Succos and of all the festivals, and is called "Simchas Torah," since the reading of Torah (of which a portion is read every Sabbath in the Synagogue) is concluded and commenced. It is a day of great rejoicing for the men, women and children, who usually come in great numbers on this day. The reading of the Torah is observed with great solemnity, by singing, carrying flags with pictures of the Torah are carried. This procession is repeated at least seven times, and is carefully carried out both on the evening and morning of Simchas Torah. During the day in the homes as well as in the Synagogue there is general rejoicing which assumes various forms. All this is done to show that we cherish the Torah and rejoice with it.

We sincerely thank the Misses Mildred Silverman and Eva Silverman, Trustees of the Estate of our late Director, for their donation of One Thousand Dollars from the Charity Fund of the Estate.

The Hon. SAMSON FRIEDLANDER,

THE I. S. WILL MERIT THIS WORTHY SUPPORT.

Athletics

On Sunday September 21st, your Editor had the pleasure of broadcasting over station W.P.C.H. on the time allotted to our esteemed Rabbi.

The event was an outstanding one in the way of personal achievements because of its newness and because of the other features sent over the air by the boys and girls of the Jesters Club and their guests.

These members ably took care of the cultural side of our program and the editor himself briefly outlined the aims and objectives of his department.

The following is a resume of our Radio talk. We repeat it as a guide to all our Physical Education Members. Here, in short, is what we are trying to accomplish in the Gym.

Our own program is prepared along the broader lines of the objectives of a good program of Physical Education and will include the phases of development as outlined in our first issue.

To make it all very simple and not technical—

The program in the Gym. will consist of activities that have a carry over value. That is, some value will be derived from everything you do to serve you in later life.

As planned on a time schedule the Handball Courts, the Basketball goals, and the apparatus on the balcony will be used from 7 to 8:30.

At 8:30 and for fifteen minutes thereafter there will be free hand exercise group consisting of exercises for correct posture and heart and lung development.

Following the drill basketball games will be organized for the remaining time until 9:30 p.m.

To successfully carry out this program the editor asks the co-operation of all members—Please be fair with the use of the handball courts, and other equipment.

At the conclusion of the evening program interesting activities will take place in the pool.

The program for the Juniors and the clubs will consist of tournaments and tests.

The House this season will be asked to support House Teams in Basketball, Swimming, Track, Handball, etc.

These teams will be entered in the Metropolitan League and will also play a schedule arranged to meet outside houses.

Consult the Institutional and Bulletin boards for announcements.

We will also follow our usual custom—A physical examination for each member.

Along with these activities proper consultation for training will be given, and proper habits of cleanliness will be emphasized.

—Jack Silbert.
