FINAL PREPARATIONS FOR DINNER TO HONOR RABBI GOLDSTEIN
ON 45 YEARS IN RABBINATE — POSSESSORS OF BUILDING FUND
PROMISSORY NOTES MAY USE IT AS PAYMENT FOR DINNER TICKETS

The final preparations for one of the biggest events in the annals of our Synagogue are being made this week. This is the final week before the Dinner which is to take place on Sunday evening, April 19th, at the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf Astoria. The Dinner is in honor of our beloved Rabbi Herbert S. Goldstein who is celebrating this year his 45th anniversary in the Rabbinate.

The response, while encouraging, is not yet satisfactory. At the date this is written, we have about 500. We need 100 more to make good on our guarantee to the hotel. But we are not giving up hope. Human Nature being what it is, we realize that many of our members have put it off for the last minute.

This is, therefore, our final appeal to make your Dinner Reservations and be among those who will show our dear Rabbi and the whole Jewish world, not only in words but also in action, the high esteem we have for him.

ONEG SHABBAT FOR OUR YOUNGSTERS

In celebration of Ted William Gross' birthday, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gross will provide special refreshments at the Oneg Shabbat this Saturday at 4 P.M.

JOIN OUR BOYS CHOIR
NEXT REHEARSAL
SUNDAY, APRIL 12th, 5 P.M.

THE PRAYER BOOK

COMMENTS BY RABBI HERBERT S. GOLDSTEIN

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS FIFTH COMMANDMENT

HONOR THY FATHER AND THY MOTHER: THAT THY DAYS MAY BE LONG UPON THE LAND WHICH THE LORD, THY G-D, GIVETH THEE. Since the father is usually less popular with his children because he restrains them and the mother is usually more popular because she yields to their wishes, the Torah places here the father first, so that one should honor his father as well as his mother. On the other hand, since a child is apt to fear his father more than his mother because the former is the stricter of the two, the Torah in the Book of Leviticus, Chapter 19, verse 3 commands "Ye shall fear every man his mother and his father," making it obligatory to fear the mother as well as the father.

SIXTH COMMANDMENT

"THOU SHALT NOT KILL." We have in the Hebrew original two readings, one with an "ah" called "pahsach," and one with an "aw" called "kawmahtz." The first vowel is called "pahsach," meaning opening, because it is uttered by opening one's mouth, while the other is called "kawmahtz" because it is pronounced by closing the mouth. So one is apt to become an instrument of murder either by opening or by closing his mouth, as for instance: One who slanders and libels, is an instrument of murder by the opening of his mouth. On the other hand, if one is able to save somebody from trouble by telling the truth about him, yet remains silent, he is an instrument of murder, by the closing of his mouth.

SEVENTH COMMANDMENT

"THOU SHALT NOT COMMIT ADULTERY." The Rabbis say that these two commandments are placed next to each other because adultery is very often the cause of and incentive to murder.

GETTING PERSONAL

by Sanford Solarz

The exquisite artistry of our Men's Club quarters in our new building is due largely to the dedication, good-taste, and skill of our Mr. Joseph Friedman to whom our deepest appreciation is due. We strongly suggest that those of our men folk who have not already done so pay a visit to the new Men's Clubroom and see for themselves, and no doubt they will find added reason for joining up with this excellent group of men . . . Good to see at our last Sabbath morning services Mr. Isidore Stoll and Jack Verschleiser . . . and equally good to learn that Mrs. Siegfried Bendheim, Mrs. Annie Eisenberg, Jacob Isseks, and Mrs. Isidore Stoll are recuperating from their recent illnesses . . . Welcome back home from Florida to Director Jess E. Gross and his daughter Pamela and Director Jonas Leisten . . . And happy sojourning again in the land of eternal youth to Director Abraham M. Druckman . . . A refuah shlemoh to Director H. William Hirsch and Mrs. Tillie Meisel . . . The host of our weekly Sabbath afternoon Seudah Shlishis tomorrow will be Mr. Murry Cumsky . . . All best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wolf on the forthcoming marriage of their daughter Charlotte to Mr. Paul Chernis.
