AN EMERGENCY CALL FOR HELP

On Friday morning, November 4th, a fire destroyed the main building of the Yeshiva Torah Vodaath and Mesivta at 141 S. 3rd St., Brooklyn. The temporary rented quarters only for the High School of the Mesivta amount to more than $1,000 per month.

We prayerfully hope that our readers will respond generously to the following telegram which we received:

OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS AND SENIORS

Yeshiva College (for men) and Stern College for Women will hold their annual Open House on Sunday, December 25th.

It is the purpose of these Open House programs to bring prospective students to Yeshiva University and to afford them the opportunity of learning first-hand of the philosophy, educational opportunities, and facilities of Yeshiva. At the same time, the services of trained professional personnel are made available who can offer the students guidance and advice concerning future careers in their various fields of interest.

The Yeshiva University Jewish Studies Program now makes it possible to admit students who have had only a limited background in Hebrew and Jewish studies.

For tickets and further information you may contact Rabbi Reichel who is an alumnus of Yeshiva University, or call LO 8-8400, Office of Admissions.

A Message from the President of the Women's League

May I take this opportunity of expressing my deep gratitude to all the officers and members of our Women's League, whose untiring efforts helped to make our Annual Donor Luncheon at the Waldorf Astoria on December 5th, a phenomenal success.

To Mrs. William Wedeen, Chairman of the Luncheon Committee, her Co-Chairmen, Mrs. David Elkins and Mrs. Samuel Goldberg and the other officers and members who gave much of their time and effort, a vote of thanks for a job well done. I am certain that all those who graced this function will agree that it was a gala affair.

In conclusion, as we are in the midst of celebrating the Feast of Lights, I extend to our entire membership my best wishes for a very happy Chanukah.

(Mrs. Philip) Elsie Freeman

GETTING PERSONAL

by Sanford Solarz

Don't only take our word for it but here is what the New York Post Music Critic, Harriett Johnson, had to say about the debut performance at the Metropolitan on December 6th, on Eileen Farrell who will also star in the opera "La Gioconda", at our annual benefit performance at the Met on Sunday, January 15th: "The excitement generated by her debut was in evidence . . . By mid-afternoon the standee line was around the block on 39th Street. After the conclusion of the first act, the bravos for Miss Farrell were thunderous and the acclaim continued throughout the evening." So if you want seats for our performance you had better make your reservations now . . . Happy to welcome to our neighborhood Mr. and Mrs. Lipa Silberstein . . . Welcome home from Florida to Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Goodgold . . . Bon voyage on their trip to Europe to our Director and Mrs. Herman H. Cohen . . . Our prayers for a speedy recovery to our Women's League President, Mrs. Philip Freeman, Miss Bessie Cohen, Mr. Sol Jaye, Mrs. Frank L. Taks and Mrs. Zalmon Yavneh . . . Happy to hear that Mrs. Marcella Jaffe is off the sick list . . . Congratulations to Mrs. Albert Wald who was honored at a Religious Groups Israel Bond Luncheon . . . Our Congregation citation of merit to ye columnist's son, Stephen, upon his election as Editor-in-Chief of the Brandeis University weekly publication, "Justice."
