ABRAHAM M. DRUCKMAN NAMED UJA CHAIRMAN;
 HERMAN H. COHEN TO BE BRUNCH CHAIRMAN

Rabbi Dr. and Mrs. O. Asher Reichel

In the troubled world in which we live today, the precarious situation of the State of Israel and that of our brethren in the scattered communities on the face of the globe pose a tremendous challenge for us. We trust that our congregants will respond to the emergency call of the hour through our annual Congregational Appeal for the U.J.A. by attending the Brunch on Sunday, May 5th.

We are pleased to announce that the guests of honor at the Brunch will be our own Rabbi and Mrs. O. Asher Reichel. They need no introduction to all our members, congregants, and the community at large whom they have served with whole-hearted devotion for the past twenty-one years. We trust that there will be an unprecedented attendance at the Brunch which will pay homage to our Rabbi and Rebbetzin and at the same time will bring great benefit to the most vital work of the United Jewish Appeal. Please send in your reservations without delay to the Synagogue office. The nominal cost is only two dollars per couple (one dollar per person).

Sincerely yours,

Isaiah O. Zucker
 Honorary Chairman

Abraham M. Druckman

PURIM NOTESReading of Megillah*Wednesday Night, March 13th*and Thursday Morning, March 14th

Purim celebrates the deliverance of the Jews of Persia from extermination by the plot of Haman, Prime Minister of King Ahasuerus of Persia, 2,441 years ago. He chose the 13th day of Adar by casting lots or pur from which the name Purim is derived. By the vigilance of Mordecai, who exposed a conspiracy against the king's life, and the intervention of his cousin, Esther the Queen, the Jews were saved. The crafty Haman was hung on his own gallows which he had prepared for Mordecai and the King appointed Mordecai Prime Minister in Haman's place.

Jewish law requires that the Megillah, the book of Esther, containing the story of Purim, be heard both on Wednesday evening and on Thursday. It is obligatory upon men, women and children to listen to the reading of the entire Megillah at night and day because all were included in this evil decree of Haman. Please note our two services on Thursday morning, 6:15 and 7:20.

Parshas Zachor

The Purim theme starts on the Saturday before Purim when we read in an additional Scroll of the Torah, "Zachor — Remember what Amalek did to you" (Deut. XXV:17-19), the description of the cowardly attack of the Amalekites against the Israelites in the desert. According to tradition, Haman was a descendant of the Amalekites.

Fast of Esther Wednesday, Mar. 13th

The day before Purim is ordinarily observed as a minor fast day — the Fast of Esther — in commemoration of the fasting of the Jews who had come under the evil decrees of Haman before their deliverance through Mordecai and Esther.

Children Welcome

Our parents are urged to come with their children to the Purim services, Wednesday no later than 6:15 P.M. and Thursday morning. The children will receive the traditional greggers and hamantashan with the compliments of our Women's League.

Mishloach Manos

The Book of Esther also enjoins us to make Purim a special occasion for giving gifts, known as "Mishloach Manos," consisting of two portions of prepared food. In addition, we are to give charity that day.

The Purim Seudah

On Purim afternoon the festive meal is begun before sundown.

Shushan Purim

The day after Purim is called Shushan Purim, in commemoration of the Jews of Shushan who defended themselves for two days.

Tachanun is omitted on that day.

GETTING PERSONAL

By Sanford Solarz

As we admire the new look of our Synagogue office, we should like to take this means of thanking our member, Mr. Albert Schmeidler, for the donation of the impressive office furniture . . . Mazel Tov to our member, Mr. Abraham Krumbein, upon the marriage of his granddaughter, Deborah Gitel Segal, to Joseph Saul Steinberg . . . For the record, ye columnist was host at the Seudah Shlishis last Saturday afternoon in memory of his late beloved mother

. . . Welcome home from the Holy Land to Cantor and Mrs. Irving Silver, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Tilem, Trustee and Mrs. Bernhard Spira, and Trustee Harry Ward; from points South to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Glucker and Mr. and Mrs. Max Schwartz; and from points West to Mr. and Mrs. Abe Glaser.

Opera Honor Roll

The shouts of "Bravo" at the final curtain of both Cavalleria Rusticana and Pagliacci were an indication that the 2,700 persons plus standees who crowded into the N. Y. State Theater on February 24 were witnesses to a great operatic performance by the N. Y. City Opera Company.

The success of our benefit was due to the tireless effort of both the Opera Committee and members of the WSIS and their friends.

Heading the list of sales are Alexander Rauchman who sold $7,500 and Herman H. Cohen who sold over $3,000 of tickets in the orchestra, first and second ring. Mr. Abe Glaser is now a member of the $1,000 sales club, followed by Fred Heiser with $800 and Max Selsky with $582. Other large sales were scored by Samuel K. Beier, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goldstein, Carl Grossberg, H. William Hirsch, Dr. Godel I. Hunter, Murray Rosenberg and Bernhard Spira.

Members of the Men's Club who volunteered their services in mailing notices were Bruno Bayer, Gerard Benjamin, Louis Rothberg and Julius Wiesel.

Immediately after the performance Mr. Rauchman received many ticket reservations for next year's opera.

WSIS PUBLIC LECTURE

on

"The Hunt for Nazi Criminals and Their Trials in Germany Today"

GUEST SPEAKER

Tuviah Friedman

The man who tracked Adolf Eichmann down after spending fifteen years on his trail before he found the first clue, will be our guest speaker on Monday evening, March 18th at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Tuviah Friedman, who managed to survive the concentration camps, vowed never to rest until he would see the day when his brethren would be avenged. After the war, he began what at first was a one-man vendetta against the Nazi criminals. When he arrived in Israel in 1948, he did not give up his efforts to see justice triumph. In his talk he will also discuss the statute of limitations in West Germany—a subject of timely interest. Our speaker is the author of "The Hunter" in which he recalls his role in the Eichmann hunt. We are fortunate to have Mr. Friedman address us before he returns to the Holy Land.

Many of our congregants may recognize Mr. Friedman's picture since he preys with us on the weekends when he is in the City.

Co-sponsored by our:—

Men's Club, Women's League, Mr. & Mrs. League.

These lectures are made possible by a grant from the
