PRIME MINISTER
YITZHAK RABIN'S MESSAGE
TO WORLD JEWRY
(Excerpts)

Between last Rosh Hashana and this, the universal Jewish family was rocked by the cruel war of Yom Kippur. Every Jew worthy of the name will surely be moved to pause on this Yom Kippur and remember what happened on that day of fasting and prayer a year ago when the nation of Israel, confronted by a terrible threat to its very life, rushed from its synagogues to meet the invading enemy. Let the "Yizkor" solemnly recall the awesome sacrifice of the sons of our people who with their bodies stemmed the onslaught, turned the tide of battle and swept the enemy back. They were few against the many. They fought on behalf of the whole house of Israel and we are their legacy. For as we assemble now, each in his congregation, we testify afresh to our oneness as a great single congregation — the House of Israel — bound by the eternal ties of faith, heritage, history and common responsibility . . .

We shall win the peace providing we remain passionately loyal to our unique attachment. For this, ultimately, is our strength. It is a strength that has confounded every oppressor in every age.

Jews in the Soviet Union are demonstrating this truth day by day. They refuse to surrender their Jewish memory. Tens of thousands courageously demand their right to emigrate to the Jewish homeland . . . Israel, I know, speaks in the name of all Jews and in the name of decent people everywhere when it now reiterates afresh the appeal and the demand that the gates of Russia be opened to all Soviet Jews who wish to join their brethren in Israel, just as it calls upon Syria to let its remaining Jews go.

MR. & MRS. LEAGUE NEWS

The hosts at the Board meeting on Wednesday, October 16th, will be Mr. and Mrs. Joe Klein.

One half hour before the meeting, at 8 P.M., Rabbi Reichel will lead in a discussion on gems in the current Sedrah.

Rabin's Message (Cont'd)

Our history has demonstrated that while repression can take its toll of Jewish numbers, it cannot weaken the Jewish will to live as Jews, only loss of identity can do that. Jewishness means a constant replenishing of our cultural heritage. It means a perpetual battle against ignorance, apathy, non-commitment and escape. Our bastions against assimilation have always been the Jewish home and classroom. They must be protected and strengthened and the task is ours alone to tackle, Israel and the Diaspora together. This is a priority of our times, to strengthen Jewish education in every field so that all our youngsters will be exposed to the riches and beauty of our culture, history and faith. For in them they will find both their past and their future, and Jewry will guarantee its continuity and strength thereby.

Our strength and inner fortitude extend far beyond our own physical boundaries. They reach into every Jewish community and into every Jewish home where people are ready to give, to work and, if necessary, to sacrifice for Israel. At this time of enormous opportunity and challenge I call upon my fellow Jews: Continue in your great and generous enterprise, do not falter in giving of your best, spiritually and materially, for the sake of the welfare and peace of Israel which, ultimately, are the welfare and peace of Jews everywhere in need of Israel.
