SHAVUOS NOTES

On Thursday evening, May 15th, the fiftieth day following the second day of Passover, we usher in the Festival of Shavuos, the Feast of Weeks. This Holiday is of great significance in the Jewish calendar, for on this day we received the Torah on Mount Sinai. It is therefore known as "Zman Matan Toraseinu," the season of the giving of our Torah.

To commemorate this divine event we decorate our Synagogue with leaves and flowers reminiscent of the greenery atop Mt. Sinai. Our Women's League will again provide the floral decorations for our Shavuos services.

Another hallowed tradition is the "Mishmar," the all night vigil in the Synagogue and reciting "Tikun Shavuos," selections from the Bible and Mishnah and other sacred writings. Our readers are cordially invited to join us in the Synagogue beginning at 10:30 o'clock on Thursday night. Refreshments will be served.

It is a tradition to eat dairy foods on this festival. One reason given is that the Torah has been likened to "milk and honey."

During the morning services of the first day we read from the Torah the Ten Commandments and chant the "Akdamos," a beautiful poem in Aramaic, in adoration of the Almighty and the Torah.

On the second day, the idyllic story of Ruth is read. This is to commemorate the Yahrzeit of King David who was descended from Ruth.

SAYINGS OF THE FATHERS

On the Sabbaths during the summer season we recite Pirkei Avos (Sayings of the Fathers) in the afternoon. These chapters from the Mishnah contain some of the most pithy moral philosophy known to man. All are invited to listen to Rabbi Reichel's comments on the Pirkei Avos following the Sabbath Minchah services.

YOM YERUSHALAYIM — 28 IYAR — FRIDAY, MAY 9 ISRAELI CONSUL LEVIN GUEST SPEAKER AT SERVICES ON SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 10

We will celebrate the eighth anniversary of the unification of Jerusalem at our Sabbath services on May 10th. On this occasion we shall hear Honorable Dr. Shlomo Levin, Consul of Israel in New York. Our speaker was born in Jerusalem and has served on educational missions in Algeria, London and South Africa. He has been in the Israeli Foreign Service since 1973.

COLLEGIATES ORGANIZE IN OUR SYNAGOGUE

Oneg Shabbat - Seudah May 10

Stimulated by the success of the recent Shabbaton (Sabbath Convention) held in our Synagogue, a group of collegiates in our community has decided to arrange an encore and lay the groundwork for ongoing programs for collegiates in our Synagogue next year. The forthcoming program, scheduled for May 10th, is to be known as an "Oneg Shabbat—Seudah Sheniah" — a festive gathering centered around the second meal of the Sabbath day, following the Saturday morning services.

The Co-Chairpeople of the event are Fran Lunzer, the organizer of the recent Shabbaton, and Leni Wolpert, students at Touro College. Aaron Reichel is the Synagogue's liaison.

The scheduled speaker is our own Michael Widlanski, who will lead a discussion on his unique perspective on Jewish news as a member of the staff of the New York Times.

JUNIOR CONGREGATION FOR THE YOUNGER SET

Another in a series of Junior Congregations for our junior set (six and seven year olds) will be held on Saturday morning, May 10th, at 10:15 o'clock. A very interesting program has been planned. Parents and grandparents may call Bat-Sheva Joseph, the leader, at 873-0536 evenings for further details.

Dues are nominal. The spiritual rewards are great.

Eruv Tavshilin, Thursday, May 15

It is not permissible to cook, bake or prepare food on one day of Yom Tov for the next day or for the Sabbath. The "Eruv Tavshilin" set aside prior to the Festival, enables the housewife to cook on Friday Yom Tov for the Sabbath.

Challah, bread or matzah and some cooked food, such as fish or an egg are placed on a plate. The head of the house lifts the plate and recites the following: "Boruch ata a-do-elo-keinu me-lech ha-olam asher kidesha-nu bemitzvo-sav vetzi-vanu al mitzvas e-ruv . . . By virtue of this Eruv, be it permitted to us to bake, cook, keep food warm, light the candles, and do all that is necessary on the Festival for the Sabbath." On Saturday afternoon this food may be eaten.
