Festival Notes

THE "FOUR SPECIES"

The essence of mitzvas lulav is to take the four species and hold them in the hand. Nevertheless, the preferred manner of performing the mitzvah is to wave the lulav in all six directions: the four horizontal ones, and upwards and downwards; with each waving of the lulav consisting of three movements to and fro.

The meaning of these na'anu'im (wavings) is given in the Talmud: "One waves them to and fro to Him who owns the four directions; up and down, to Him who owns

ABE HIRSCHFELD TO OPEN LECTURE SERIES

TOPIC: "THE FORTHCOMING ELECTIONS"

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 16, AT 11:15 AM.

Abraham Hirschfeld was born in Poland, emigrated to Israel, was a member of Haganah and fought for Israel's independence. A self-made man who started as an orange grove and auto assembly plant worker, he became a building renovator, metal trader, and finally one of New York's most successful builders. After settling in New York City in 1954, he later served as Treasurer of the New York State Democratic Committee.

Our distinguished speaker has been making headlines in the news media during the course of his running in the primary races for the United States Senate and the City Council Presidency. His views regarding the forthcoming elections therefore should be of special interest.

heaven and earth. That is to say: the four species are an allusion to G-d's having created all of existence, and that there is naught besides Him."

The Talmud continues: "One waves them to and fro in order to restrain harmful winds; up and down, in order to restrain harmful dew." For Succos is the time of judgment for water and rain for the entire year and the four species give symbolic expression to our prayers for the blessing of water (the esrog needs more water than other fruits of the tree; palm branches grow in valleys which have an abundance of water; myrtles and willows grow near water).

The Sages have decreed that the mitzvah of the four species should not be performed on the Sabbath, even if the first day of the festival falls on the Sabbath, lest one come thereby to violate the prohibition of carrying in a public domain on the Sabbath.

The mitzvah of lulav applies only by day and not by night.

Hoshana

After Hallel is said during the days of Succos or after musaf, depending on local custom, a Torah scroll is taken out of the Ark and brought to the bimah (pulpit). The cantor and the congregation say aloud: "Hoshana" four times as indicated in the prayer books. Afterwards a prescribed prayer is said each day; each of these prayers follows the alphabetical order. Simultaneously the entire congregation circles the bimah with esrog and lulav in hand. During the first six festival days, there is one hakafah (circling) while on Hoshana Rabbah (the last day of Succos) there are seven hakafos.

This custom recalls the Sanctuary where the Cohanim encircled the altar with praise and joy once each day and seven times on Hoshana Rabbah.

Hoshana Rabbah

Hoshana Rabbah is the last day for the observance of the four species and succah

(in the Diaspora customs vary with reference to the mitzvah of Succah also on Shmini Atzeres). It is called Hoshana Rabbah ("rabbah" — numerous), since more hoshanos are said on this day than on all the previous days of the festival.

It was a custom of the Prophets (Chagai, Zechariah and Malachi) to take an aravah, to recite a special prayer over it, and then beat it on the ground. Unlike other Rabbinic commandments over which a blessing is recited, no blessing is recited over the aravah.

The aravah which is taken on that day after the esrog and lulav are set aside also alludes to prayer. As we put aside the four species we say: We possess neither the taste of Torah, nor the fragrance of mitzvah, neither the esrog nor the lulav, nor the hadas—we are all like this aravah. What then do we have? Only mouths with which to pray like this aravah similar to a mouth.

It is customary to stay awake all night and to say Tikun from the book of Dvarim, the Tehilim, and to "unite" the night and the day through Torah and prayer.

The Prayer For Rain

"During the Succos Festival there is judgement over water." Thus it would have been proper to mention rain [Mashiv haruach umorid hagashem] on the first day of the Festival. Nevertheless we do not explicitly pray for rain before Shmini Atzeres.

The Sages explain that the fall of rain during the Festival would prevent the fulfillment of the mitzvah of Succah. For this reason rain is not mentioned until the people of Israel have left their Succos and reentered their homes. It is then that they pray to G-d that He open the treasure of His heavens in order to fructify the earth and bless its produce.

DO YOU BELONG?

Paraphrasing President Kennedy, the time has come to ask ourselves: What are we doing to enhance the growth of our Synagogue and our membership?

If you are "not yet" a member, please do not delay any longer and let us hear from you.

We also urge our congregants to take advantage of our dynamic auxiliary organizations. May we suggest that this autumn our readers resolve to attend the functions as guests—we believe that if they "will taste they will like."
