SHAVUOS NOTES

On Saturday night, June 10th, the fiftieth day following the second day of Passover, we usher in the Festival of Shavuos, the Feast of Weeks. This holiday is of great significance in the Jewish calendar, for on this day we received the Torah on Mount Sinai. It is therefore known as "Zman Matan Toraseinu," the season of the giving of the Torah.

To commemorate this divine event we decorate our Synagogue with leaves and flowers reminiscent of the greenery atop Mt. Sinai. Our Women's League will again provide the floral decorations.

A hallowed tradition is the "Mishmar," the all night vigil and reciting "Tikun Shavuos," selections from the Bible, Mishnah and other sacred writings.

It is a custom to eat dairy foods on this festival. One reason given is that the Torah has been likened to "milk and honey."

This festival has three additional names:

"Chag Ha'asif" (The Festival of Reaping) — Exodus XXIII — refers to the reaping of wheat which is the last grain of the season to be harvested. Festivities are held over the new gift offering which is brought to the House of G-d.

"Yom Habikurim" (The Day of the First Fruit) — Numbers XXVIII — marks the "new gift offering" of two show-breads which renders permissible the bringing of gift offerings to the Sanctuary from the grain of the new season. This day initiates the period of the offering on the altar of first fruits from the seven species for which the Land of Israel is praised.

"Atzeres" is a designation not cited in the Torah but used by the Sages to connote the character of the festival as being a concluding eighth day to the seven days of Passover. The intervening Omer-count days are considered to be not an interruption but similar to a long "Chol Hamo'ed," which acts as a connecting link between the first part of the holiday and the last. Shavuos is therefore likened to Shemini Atzeres which follows Succos and is called the "Atzeres of Pesach." (It would have been appropriate for the "Atzeres" of Succos to fall fifty days after Succos as does the "Atzeres of Pesach." However, because of the difficulties of travel during the rainy season at that time of year, G-d did not burden the people of Israel to return to their homes from Jerusalem and to journey to Jerusalem a second time.)

During the morning services of the first day we read from the Torah the Ten Commandments and chant the "Akdamos," a beautiful poem in Aramaic, in adoration of the Almighty and the Torah. On the second day, the idyllic story of Ruth is read. This is to commemorate the Yahrzeit of King David who was descended from Ruth.

MEN'S CLUB NOTES

BREAKFAST MEETING ON SUNDAY, JUNE 4

Members and prospective members of the Men's Club are invited to the monthly Breakfast Meeting on Sunday morning, June 4th, at 10:00 o'clock.

On Saturday, June 3rd, the Men's Club will host a Kiddush following the morning service in celebration of Yom Yerushala'im.

RESERVE SEATS FOR HIGH HOLY DAYS BEFORE SUMMER

Rosh Hashanah begins Sunday night, October 1st. While we do not want to rush the summer by, now is the time to make reservations in our majestic Sanctuary (all seats $50) and spacious auditorium (all seats $25) for the coming High Holy Days. Both are air-conditioned.

Every worshipper receives a holiday prayerbook with an English translation. If unable to read Hebrew fluently, one may follow the services in English. Thus all can participate in the genuine, historical order of our hallowed prayers.

Invite your neighbors to join you at the services as well as at the first Selichos on Saturday night, Sept. 23rd, at 10:30 o'clock.

Lillian Goldstein, our Guest of Honor, is most deserving of this tribute. It would be most fitting for all our ladies to be at her side on Monday afternoon, June 5th.

The Co-Chairmen Lucy Gold and Maly Steinlauf, Honorary Chairman Sadie Balmuth and Luncheon Treasurer Jennie Yabrow have come up with many new ideas to make this Children's Village Luncheon different and the best ever. There is still time to make reservations for this luncheon for yourself and your friends. All the money raised from this function will be sent directly to the W.S.I.S. CHILDREN'S VILLAGE IN ISRAEL for the needs of 300 boys who are housed, fed and taught there. You will not only have a most enjoyable afternoon but you will earn a great "mitzvah."
