TO HOST A SABBATH KIDDUSH
OR A SEUDAH SHLISHIS
PLEASE CALL OUR OFFICE

"TAL UMATAR"
IN SHMONEH ESREY
AS OF MONDAY NIGHT, DEC. 4

In the land of Israel a prayer for rain (Tal Umatar) is included in the ninth benediction of the shmoneh esrey amidah prayer (Bareych aleynu), beginning with the seventh day of Cheshvan. By this date "the last of the pilgrims had already managed to reach the Euphrates" in Jerusalem Temple days. From Shmini Atzeres until the seventh of Cheshvan we do not pray for rain, but we mention in the second benediction gevuros geshamim (the revelation of G-d's power through rain) by way of praise to G-d "Who causes the wind to blow and the rain to fall" (Mashiv haru'ach umorid hagashem).

In the diaspora where water is plentiful and there is not so great a need for rain, she'elat geshamin (the prayer for rain) is begun sixty days after the beginning of the "Tishrey-season." Since we calculate our tekufos (seasons) by the solar year, she'elat geshamin in the diaspora has no fixed day in our calendar which is based on the lunar months. It does however have a fixed date in the solar calendar; it being December 4th or December 5th, depending on the number of days in the month of February.

We pray for rain until Erev Pesach both in the land of Israel and in the diaspora.

YOMIM TOVIM AT THE WSIS

Congregational Citations of Merit and Thanks to our members who assisted at our High Holy Day services in so many ways. Highlighting the services were the shofar notes sounded by Nash Aussenberg; services chanted by Alfred Florsheim and Max Hecht; and ushering by Bennett Carter, Dr. Frank E. Fink, Alfred Florsheim, Irving Marks and Mrs. Estelle L. Pierce.

The annual Yom Tov Season reception for our Congregational Family at the home of our Rabbi Dr. & Mrs. O. Asher Reichel was indeed a festive interlude.

Our Succah again this year rated among the finest in our community for its inspiring beauty. Our Congregational gratitude to the Mr. & Mrs. League Succah Committee under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Maurice Goodgold and Mrs. Max Schwarz, and to their dedicated co-workers: Mr. & Mrs. Leon Bitner, Alan Brown, Mr. & Mrs. Gerard Benjamin, Mr. & Mrs. Alfred Florsheim, Mr. & Mrs. Samuel Gursky, Mr. & Mrs. Otto Heitlinger, Ned and Alexander Kirsh, Esther Ravia, Rabbi & Mrs. O. Asher Reichel, Rabbi Hillel M. Reichel, Mr. & Mrs. Herbert Rudnick, Max Schwarz, Mr. & Mrs. Jules Sheppard, Mrs. Cecelia Siegel and Mr. & Mrs. Eugene Ten Brink. Our thanks to the Women's League for supplying the wherewithal for the decorations as well as the refreshments for kiddush and to Lou G. Siegel's Restaurant for the kiddush rolls.

A special vote of appreciation to Mrs. Sidney Krampf who took personal charge of the kiddush during the entire Yom Tov, assisted by Mrs. Samuel Gursky, Mrs. O. Asher Reichel and Mrs. Abraham Schneider. Also helping were Bennett Carter, Mr. & Mrs. Alfred Florsheim, Mrs. Lillian Goldstein, Sidney Krampf, Mrs. Ruth Lessler, Benjamin Miller, Chenie and Shulamis Pekier, Mrs. Itchak Silverman, Rebecca Bronner and Mrs. Ida Weber.

On Saturday, Chol Hamoed, the Congregation enjoyed hearing Rabbi Aaron Reichel chant the Book of Kohelos and Rabbi Hillel Reichel read the Torah.

Checks for the Yizkor Appeal may be made payable to "Homes for Children in Israel" and mailed to our office.

The Yomim Tovim celebrations came to an impressive conclusion on Shabbos Breyshis when our Simchas Torah Chassanim Myron Bystritzki, Julius Falkenstein and Morris Segerman were the hosts at the festive Seudah Shlishis.

We hope to see ever growing numbers of our congregants at our forthcoming events which are announced in the columns of the REVIEW.

BREAKFAST MEETING ON SUNDAY, DECEMBER 10

Members and prospective members of the Men's Club are urged to attend the monthly Breakfast Meeting on Sunday morning, December 10th, at 10:00 o'clock. Public lecture will follow.

KIDDUSH AND HAVDALAH

The obligation to sanctify the Sabbath with the recitation of kiddush on Friday evening as well as the recitation of havdalah on Saturday night, applies to men and women. The head of the household recites the kiddush and havdalah on behalf of all present. Women should recite the entire kiddush and havdalah if they will not hear it otherwise.

Kiddush may be recited over wine or challah on Friday night; for Saturday lunch only over wine or another beverage.

The one who recites the kiddush pours some of the wine into another cup for distribution among those present, before he drinks at least two ounces from the kiddush cup. At havdalah the wine is not distributed.

Before making kiddush or havdalah we do not partake of any food. After it is dark on Saturday night "work" may be done if one recited the "Atta chonantani" paragraph in Ma'ariv before havdalah. If this prayer was not said it suffices to recite the statement, "Hamavdil bain kodesh l'chol". Havdalah, however, should be recited as soon as possible.

At havdalah, the cup is over-filled with wine as a good omen for the week to come. If wine or grape juice are unavailable, other popular beverages may be used. The havdalah candle is extinguished in the overflow.

The besamim (spices), the fragrance of which we inhale, should signify to us that we will preserve the spirit of the Sabbath, the source of strength and consecration, for the working days of the week to come. They were also meant to give us an added "spiritual lift" after the holiness of the Sabbath atmosphere departs from us.

If besamim are not available for whatever reason, they may be omitted at the havdalah. The blessing over the besamim may be recited later in the evening.

The blessing over "fire" should be recited over a candle (with at least two wicks) that has been lit after the Sabbath has terminated. A clear glass bulb may also be used. This blessing may also be recited later on that evening if "fire" is not available at the time of the havdalah.

The fire which man is permitted once more to produce by his own efforts, a symbol of man's creative endeavors, is the first element to be utilized after the Sabbath to brighten the darkness of the night. By reciting the blessing over the fire, we acknowledge it as an instrument granted by G-d for man's dominion over the earth, and we declare we will utilize the power granted us in accordance with His will. (Rabbi Elie Munk)

Inasmuch as a blessing must refer to some immediate purpose, we fold the fingers over the palm of our right hand, turn them back to the light and gaze at them to distinguish the nails from flesh and to perceive the distinction between light and shadow in the palm.

It is customary to hold the cup in the right hand except during the blessings over the besamim and the fire, when the cup is held in the left hand.
